

MR. AND MRS. BILL MORGAN
 ... Stock Shelves for Grand Opening Beginning Today
Pittsburgh Paint Store
 Holds Grand Opening

Skilled in home decorating and painting techniques, Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Morgan will hold the grand opening of their new Pittsburgh Paint Store today, tomorrow and Saturday. The new, modern store is located at 1621 Cravens avenue, just three doors north of the Stadium Theater. Morgan has more than twenty years experience as a pressman for Rand McNally, famous map makers, with all of two decades in the color field. Mrs. Morgan has been trained in home decorating and is well qualified to offer interior decorating suggestions.

"We hope to be asked to customers' homes so that we might be more capable of recommending the proper decorating mediums," Mrs. Morgan said. Besides the entire line of Pittsburgh paints, the Morgans will handle a large variety of wallpaper—some never before displayed in Torrance, according to Mrs. Morgan. Painting and decorating accessories such as paint brushes, ladders, thinners, scrapers and similar paraphernalia, will be on display in the new store.

Caldwell organized the Torrance Veterans Service Center in Torrance, VFW Post, the J. Franklin Bell Camp USWV and as adjutant for the South Bay DAV Post No. 92. Caldwell was presented his life membership by Cy Weber, master of ceremonies, who outlined the history of the DAV. Tex Bradford, an explosive expert, presented a talk on the Korean situation.
