MR. AND MRS. DARRELL STANLEY

Wedding Rites Unite Clyde Ridenour and Mary Corley

White organdy combined with eyelot embroidery with a sweetheart neckline, and fashioned floor-length was worn by Miss Mary Josephine Corley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hanson, 1608 W. 253rd street, Harbor City when she recited wedding vows with Clyde Allan Ridenour, son of Mrs. C. Ridenour of 2000 Lomita boulevard, at the Garden Wedding Chapel in Long Beach.

The bride chose white gardenias and pink rosebuds for her bouquet and her fingertip veil was caught up in a white net cap trimmed in pearls. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's attendants wore full-length gowns of white organdy and carried bouquets of yellow roses and violet sweet peas. Miss Loma Watson, maid of honor, wore organdy over yellow while the bridesmaids, Misses Betsy Hanson and Jean Ridenour chose white over pale green.

Best man was John Cockburn and ushers Russell Hanson and Lee Bachman.

The patio and gardens of the wedding chapel formed the setting for the reception for 150 guests, with the bride, putting the four-tiered cake. Mothers of the bride and groom were assisted by Miss Ruth McWald and Miss Dolores Thoreson as hostesses, and in charge of the guest book was Miss Mary Taylor.

A trip to the California redwoods and a few days at Catalina Island, were enjoyed by the happy couple, and upon their return they will reside in Rolling Knolls, Harbor City.

Both are graduates of Narbonne High School. The new Mrs. Ridenour has been employed in secretarial work and her husband is co-owner of Clyde and Carl's Service Stations.

"Humpty Dumpty," in the famous nursery rhyme by that name, was represented by their parents to 13th century English children, as "an egg." In reality, according to The Book House for Children, the rhyme was intended as a jibe at King Jehoi, who was compelled to sign the Magna Charta at Runnymede June 15, 1215.

Stanley-Moore Vows Told In Baptist Church Rite

At home in Van Nuys following their recent wedding in First Baptist Church are Darrell Stanley and his bride, the former Miss Helena Moore, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes of 1650 W. 218th street. Rev. C. Mills Northrup, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 60 wedding guests. A reception in the church social rooms immediately followed the ceremony.

Lovely in a pink suit and large white hat, the bride carried a single purple orchid on a white Bible. Her maid of honor, Miss Floretta Wakefield, was charming in a beige suit which was complemented by a colonial bouquet. John Villarrh of San Fernando served the bridegroom as best man.

The couple left for a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead and returned to establish their home at 7459 Sepulveda boulevard, Van Nuys.

Mrs. Stanley was graduated from Torrance High School in 1948 and since has been employed with May Company, Mr.

Stanley's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank McAllister of San Fernando. He was educated in San Fernando schools and is employed in Glendale.

WAYNE HAMILTONS VISIT IN OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hamilton and baby Larry of 2244 W. 247th street, left by plane last Tuesday for The Dalles, Ore., where they will visit Mrs. Hamilton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney until the first of August.
