BLACK MAGIC . . . As chic and cool a "little summer black" as you've ever seen is this rayon crepe dress featured in Cosmopolitan magazine for July. It has twin rows of buttons on front and back of the smartly plain, round-necked bodice. Jerry Parnis has given it a modified batwing sleeve, cropping it midway between elbow and shoulder. The skirt has soft, unpressed pleats at center front. About $35.00.

FAMILY REUNION

The garden of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Olson's home at 2118 Arlington avenue was the setting for a dinner party Sunday honoring their sister-in-law Mrs. B. A. Olson, who will leave this week for her home in Washington, D. C., following several months' visit in California.

Other family members attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Feller, Steven and Donald, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, and Candice, and Mrs. Emily Sharp, all of Compton; and Mrs. Mary Bingham, of Washington, D. C.

CDA Members Hear Review Of Pastor's Pilgrimage

Highlights of his Holy Year pilgrimage to Rome were related by the Rev. Edward Sullivan before members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening. Father Sullivan, assistant pastor of Nativity Catholic Church, just returned from his trip; he centered his remarks on a description of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

The monthly business session of the Court, with Mrs. J. J. MacDonald presiding, preceded the speaker. Reports were heard from several committee chairmen, including Mesdames Frank Forester, J. J. O'Toole, J. T. Bailey and Frank J. Farrell. Mrs. M. N. Felker social welfare chairman, reported that Mesdames MacDonald and F. T. Eabbitt assisted her in visiting Harbor General Hospital in June.

Dance Studio Directors at Conventions

Martha Jane Rickard and Edward T. Rickard, directors of the Three Arts Dance Studio, 2252 W. Carson street, have been attending the 29th annual convention of the Dance Masters of California at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco.

Starting July 9 through July 13 the Rickards attended the convention of Associated Dancing Teachers of Southern California at the Roosevelt Hotel, Hollywood. On July 23rd they will attend the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists, Inc. in Hollywood.

The Torrance studio will remain open during the summer except for short periods during this month.

WSCS Circle To Meet on July 19th

Members of Circle 8 of WSCS will be entertained Monday evening, July 19, at 7 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Beers, 2330 Newton avenue.

VACATION ENDS

Mrs. Lillie K. Walsworth, proprietor of Flowers by Nadine, and her husband, Dr. Clark B. Walsworth, of San Pedro, have returned from two weeks vacation at Grand Canyon.

Mrs. Richard Ban and Miss Madeline Bar will be co-hostesses to the CDA Study Club next Monday evening, July 17, at their home, 1412 Crenshaw boulevard.

Members, their families and friends will gather in the City Park Monday evening, July 24, at 6 p.m. for a picnic. The chairman, Mrs. T. T. Babbitt, asks that members bring their own dishes.

Assisting Mrs. Babbitt as July hostesses are Mesdames James C. Donald Jr. and Clayton E. Bowen.

Soroptimists Tell Plans for New Year

Activity plans for the ensuing year were discussed at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Harbor District Soroptimist Club, held at the San Pedro YWCA.

Miss Edna Whitlow, newly installed president, directed the business session, announcing committee personnel for the coming year.

Mrs. Ivor Geiger, president of the YWCA's board of directors, was welcomed as a special guest. She spoke briefly, congratulating the club on its growth during the past year, and commending its members for the sponsoring of girls' groups and for aid rendered various girls' organizations.

Following Mrs. Geiger's talk, the meeting was adjourned with recitation of the Soroptimist pledge.

The club meets each Wednesday at 12:15 p.m. for a luncheon at the "Y." An interesting program is being arranged for presentation at the July 12 session.
