

MISS DOROTHY FULLMER
Lovely Bride-elect ...

MARTIN-FULLMER TROTH REVEALED BY PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Fullmer of 2304 Andree avenue have formally announced the engagement of their daughter Dorothy, to Mr. Wayne L. Martin of Los Angeles.

The bride received her diploma from Torrance High School in 1949 and since has been employed as a junior secretary with the Los Angeles offices of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Her fiance was educated in eastern schools and is associated with a Los Angeles firm.

No date has been set for their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron A. Russell, 2103 Arlington avenue, visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phil M. Russell, of Duarte, during the week end.

Vincent G. Lovell Takes Bride in Beach City Rite

All white flowers decorated the sanctuary of the Church of Holy Innocents of Long Beach for the wedding of Miss Barbara Valenzuela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Valenzuela of Long Beach to Mr. Vincent Gerald Lovell, U.S.N.A.S., whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lovell of 1541 W. 215th street.

Rev. Father O. J. Green officiated at nuptial mass in the presence of 100 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white, frosted organza over rose taffeta, with which she wore a pink taffeta picture hat. Her flowers were Cecile Bruner roses arranged in a Colonial bouquet.

Miss Adele Tessier, wearing pale blue organza, a white hat, and carrying a Colonial bouquet of white stock, was the bride's only attendant. William Millard of Torrance attended the bridegroom as best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Pat Boyer of Long Beach sang "On This Day" and other appropriate selections.

A reception in the church social hall immediately followed the ceremony and later Mr. and Mrs. Lovell left for a honeymoon at a mountain resort. They will establish their home in Alameda, where he is stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Service Base.

Mrs. Valenzuela received in white with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations, and Mrs. Lovell attended in powder blue with black and white accessories and a carnation corsage.

A tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Clayton Watson of Long Beach, and Mrs. Pat Newhouse of Long Beach and Mrs. Mary Lou Sanders of Torrance served punch.

The bride was graduated from St. Anthony's High School, Long Beach, and her husband received his diploma from Narbonne High School.

Hatfield-Ross Vows Told In Beach City Ceremony

Normandy Wedding Chapel was the setting when Miss Beverly Jean Ross became the bride of Mr. Frank A. Hatfield. The bride is the daughter of Mr. William J. Ross, of 1724 Arlington, and the late Mrs. Ross, and Mr. Hatfield's parents are Mrs. W. A. Ziel of Long Beach, and Mr. George A. Hatfield of Hollywood Riviera.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage, was gowned in blush pink satin, designed on train with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was of bluish nylon and she wore a strand of heirloom pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis, surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Delford Thompson of Torrance as matron of honor wore powder blue taffeta, styled like that of the bride, but with an abbreviated train. Her flowers were yellow roses and blue delphinium, Katherine King of Long Beach was flower girl.

Bruce Lee of Anaheim attended as best man, and ushers were Duane Steele and Delford Thompson, both of Torrance.

At the reception following, Miss Rose Rosenberg registered the wedding guests.

Mrs. Hatfield was graduated from Torrance High School, and attended El Camino Junior College. Her husband, who also was educated in Torrance schools, served for three years in the U. S. Navy.
