'Slymnastics' Class Offered Tuesdays at THS Gymnasium

Nightly Slymnastics classes will be held hereafter from 7:30 to 9:30 on Tuesdays at Torrance High School gymnasium, according to announcement yesterday by Mrs. Betty Schafer, class instructor.

Under the direction of the City Recreation Department, the popular activity, which has formerly been a daytime function, is being held in the evening in order to accommodate more women. The special, free class features games and individual exercises given for muscle tone and body conditioning.

Exercises are given the first hour, while the second period is devoted to games such as badminton and volleyball. Any lady 18 years and over may enroll for one period or the full two hours.

Vacation Activities

Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe returned recently from an enjoyable vacation during which they visited Vancouver, Victoria, and other Canadian cities. En route they were entertained at the Alwater home of their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. William E. Keefe. Mr. and Mrs. Keefe are entertaining now as their house guest, her sister, Mrs. H. A. Ames of Great Falls, Mont.

LORANGERS, GUESTS IN NORTHERN VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Loranger and Alicia, accompanied by their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Johnson of Flint, Mich., enjoyed a delightful vacation at Yosemite National Park recently. The Lorangers later joined the easterners in their eighteenth trip in San Francisco and Oakland.

Card Party Planned for Tonight

Mrs. Howard Owen has been named chairman for this evening's Altar Society-sponsored card party in Nativity Hall, 604 at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tipples at 50 cents each may be purchased at the door.

At the close of play, delicious refreshments will be served by the hostesses. All popular games, including canasta, will be offered.

Assisting Mrs. Owen are Miss Opal Yorker and Mesdames Howard Lander, Clarence Cole, Frank H. Forester, DeHaas, Alfred Killo, James Dorigan, Albert Elder, Rose Morris, Annette Book, W. Fenton, and Thelma Graham.

BIRTHDAYS NOTED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Montague of San Fernando, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bradford, Jr., of Torrance recently enjoyed the musical show, "Miss Liberty" at the Greek Theatre. The occasion marked the birthday anniversary of ladies and dates back to earlier days when both were students in Torrance schools. Following the show, a supper at Ollie Hammond's, on Wilshire, was enjoyed.

It is possible to watch a child play for one hour and tell quite accurately the kind of home he comes from.

Sorority Activities Enjoyable

Following the business meeting pinocchio furnished diversion with Mary Ellen DeVore and Clara Swanson as winners. Luncheon in Hollywood Park clubhouse and the group's attendance at the races was another recent enjoyable club affair.

Mrs. Clara Swanson opened her home recently for a sorority meeting when Pearl Sande and Jean Mendenhall were winners at cards.

NIECE VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Luke C. Nickel of 1780 Arlington avenue are entertaining their niece, Miss Sara Lee Couland of Deming, N. M.

FORMER RESIDENT

Mrs. H. T. (Tressie) Olsen of Oklahoma City and formerly of Torrance is visiting friends here this week.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL EVERETT PIERSON

Pierson-Lucksinger Tell Vows in Church Ceremony

Before a white lattice arch entwined with fern at the altar of the First Presbyterian Church, San Luis Obispo, Miss Rosemary Allene Lucksinger became the bride of Paul Everett Pierson.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Frederick J. Hart with the father of the bride giving her in marriage.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lucksinger of San Luis Obispo.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pierson of 1319 Plaza del Amo.

The bride was gowned in white marquisette with a bodice and overskirt of Peau d'Ange lace. A marquisette yoke topped the bodice and the sleeves were long and pointed. The marquisette skirt flowed into a train. From her orange blossom coronet fell a fingertip veil of tulle.

She carried a bouquet of carnations and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

Miss Hallaine Sharp of Berkeley was maid of honor. She wore a yellow marquisette gown trimmed with yellow lace and carried white Ester Reed daisies and stock tied with green ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Janet Wallace of San Diego, Miss Joan Campbell of Berkeley, Miss Viola Merson of San Luis Obispo, Mrs. A. W. Enns of Glendale and Miss Joan Chalmers of San Luis Obispo. The Misses Wallace and Merson were in blue, Miss Campbell and Mrs. Enns in pink and Miss Chalmers in lavender. Their gowns were of marquisette trimmed in matching lace.

They carried old-fashioned nosegays of Ester Reed daisies in colors complementing their gowns, and garlands of daisies in their hair.

Little Karen Gail Pierson of Torrance, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a dainty blue marquisette frock.

The ring bearer was Frederick "Rick" Lucksinger, nephew of the bride, who wore a white linen suit.

The bridegroom was served by Dale Angel of El Nido as best man.

Ushers were Richard Pierson of Torrance, Fred Lucksinger of San Luis Obispo; Lynn Bolek of El Nido; Harold Hudson of Gardena; and Jack Adams of Anaheim.

Preceding the ceremony Edward Nelson of Berkeley sang "Through the Years," "At Dawning" and "The Love of God," and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. A. Gaylord Wilson played the wedding marches.

White flowers and greenery decorated the chapel with gladioli. Ester Reed daisies and candles in the window boxes.

A flower covered bell hung from the arch before which the young couple made their vows. Bouquets of gladioli flanked the arch.

The wedding was attended by approximately 250 guests, who were entertained later at a reception in the Presbyterian Education building.

An aqua dress, fashioned with a lace bodice and chiffon skirt, with white accessories and an orchid corsage were worn by the bride's mother. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy crepe frock with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Fred Lucksinger cut the wedding cake and assisting with the reception were The Misses Jeanette Knott, Molly Goddell, and Lucy Pavent, and Mrs. George Tallman, all of San Luis Obispo; the Misses Donna Pemberton, Los Angeles, Dolores Osborne Morro Bay; Nancy Jones, Sally Suelz, and Carolyn Reid, Berkeley; and Bernice Thompson, San Jose.

Following the reception, the young couple left for a honeymoon up the coast, planning to visit Carmel and the Redwoods. The bride wore for her going away outfit a pink garbadinge suit with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

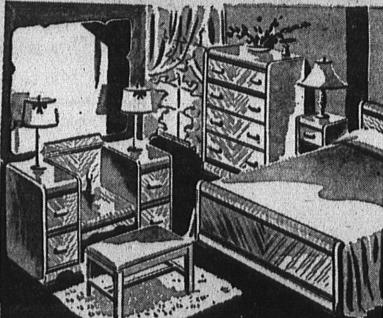

After next Monday they plan to make their home at 2000 Durant street, Berkeley.

The bridegroom, who was graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with a BS degree, is a chemical engineer for the Colgate-Palmolive Peet Company in Berkeley. He is a past president of the University Cloyne court.

The bride, who received her AB degree from the University of California at Berkeley, has been teaching the sixth grade at Morro Bay for three months. She is a past vice president of Alpha Delta Chi sorority and was a representative to North Dakota for the Order of Rainbow Girls. She is a member of Eastern Star and has been active in Camp Fire Girls activities.
