

Harbor Area Night Slated August 18th

Residents of San Pedro, Wilmington, Palos Verdes Estates, Portuguese Bend, Rolling Hills, Redondo Beach, Torrance, Waverly, Lomita and Harbor City will join in an exodus to Hollywood Bowl for "Harbor Area" night, Friday, August 18, to see the ever popular light opera, "Vagabond King." The tuneful opera, with the huge Hollywood Bowl stage as its setting, promises a spectacular production, colorful and fast-moving. Metropolitan soprano Nadine Conner and Francis Bushman will be starred.

Business, industrial, civic, patriotic and club organizations are urged to arrange for blocks of reserved seats which are available to Harbor residents at 65 cents. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Robert E. Carson of San Pedro, who is general chairman; Vines Music Store in that city and La Galeria, 4126 Pacific Coast highway, Waverly. Arrangements for bus transportation will be announced later.

AT GRAND CANYON
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Stock enjoyed a recent vacation including a tour of Grand Canyon and other interest points. En route home they were guests at El Rancho, Las Vegas.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK RONALD NORRIS

NORRIS-HENRY NUPTIALS ATTENDED BY 200 GUESTS

First Baptist Church, beautifully decorated with all white flowers, was the setting Sunday afternoon when Miss Mona Jean Henry became the bride of Mr. Frank Ronald Norris, Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, officiated in the presence of 200 wedding guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Henry of 2142 236th street, and Mr. Norris' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Norris of 1508 Madrid avenue.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in traditional white satin fashioned on train. Her full length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of French lace and bouvardia surrounding a detachable corsage of white orchids. Miss Betty Floyd as maid of honor was gowned in blue chiffon complemented by an arm bouquet of pink roses and the bridesmaids, the Misses Joan Davis and Jacquie King wore identical gowns of blue organza and carried yellow roses and pink gladiolus.

Mr. Jack Norris attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Walter Bacon and Don Southwell.

Preceding the ceremony Mr. Leslie Long played the accompaniment for Miss Jeane Adams, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

At the reception in the church social hall which immediately followed the ceremony, Mrs. Henry received in green tulle with yellow roses and the bridegroom's mother also attended in green, complemented by a corsage of tallman roses.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Norris left for a honeymoon at Yosemite National Park and other points of interest in Northern California. They will live at 2108 250th street.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in June 1950, and her husband, also a Torrance High School graduate, attended El Camino College.

Men's Club To See Film

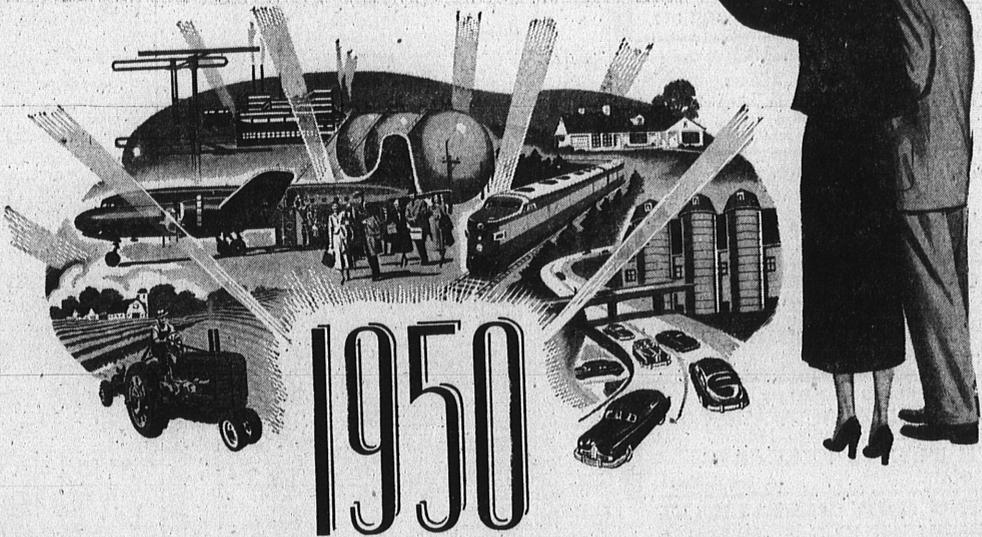

Sporting film will be shown to members of the Presbyterian Church Men's Club Friday night, July 28, when they meet for a business session, a social hour and the serving of refreshments. "Men in the community 18 years of age or older are welcome to attend the meetings."
