Beverly Luster, honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, led the monthly meeting which was devoted to a school of instruction conducted by the deputy grand guardian, Mrs. Nelle Montague of Long Beach. Joann Sandstrom, past honored queen, substituted for Donna Wolf, senior princess, who is still vacationing.

Ann Marie Bishon, chaplain, will have an obligation committee meeting in her home, 1433 El Prado, at 7:30 this evening. Tomorrow the girls will meet at the Bethel to collect papers for continuance of the paper drive.

A group of the girls and members of the Guardian Council are planning to attend Volwood Town Saturday and leave at 5:30 as the time to meet at the Bethel entrance.

Controltees for the coming fashion show were appointed by Beverly Luster.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Bever and Mrs. Don Luster in the banquet room where a farewell song was sung to Cally Ankine, who is leaving Torrance.

Clubwomen Attend Season's First District Roundtable

The Los Angeles District Junior clubwomen held their first roundtable of the season last week in Burbank Women's clubhouse. Mrs. Arthur E. Crom of San Diego, junior state president, was the speaker of the evening, choosing as her topic "The Challenge of the Margin," taken from the well-known Gandhi phrase, "The margin between what we do and what we can do is enough to save the world."

Mrs. Leland L. Hughes, Los Angeles district junior president, officiated at the roundtable.

Under the competent leadership of Mrs. Robert Conklin, district philanthropy chairman, the Los Angeles juniors plan to do a top job in helping the less fortunate in 1950-51. The four projects which the organization will support are the John Tracy Clinic for hard-of-hearing children; the Sister Kenny Foundation for polio victims; the Harlan Shoemaker Clinic for paralytics and the Rancho San Antonio, the new Boys Town in Chatsworth, San Fernando Valley.

AT STATE PICNIC
Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Honrath of Santa Barbara visited here last week-end and accompanied his mother, Mrs. Dora Honrath, to the Colorado State picnic in Long Beach.
