George A. Rays Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ray of 28047 Narbonne avenue. Open house during the afternoon and evening was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jetta Kelly of 217 233rd street. Among the guests were friends from Oklahoma who had been closely associated with them during their entire married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray, each of whom has had 68 birthdays, were married in Clarksville, Arkansas, where they lived for several years. Later they moved to Oklahoma, where they spent the next quarter of a century and reared nine children. They have 18 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The popular couple have been residents here for more than 20 years.

Mrs. Ray received her guests in navy blue and gold-striped silk, and her corsage was of yellow roses. Arrangements of yellow roses and other golden-

Clubhouse Party Gala For Jobies

Members of Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, their escorts, and DeMolays and their dates, enjoyed a swimming party recently in Hollywood Riviera pool.

Accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. Don Luster. Following the swimming party the young people and their chaperones had access to the snack bar and dancing in the club ballroom concluded the party.

RAYMOND PAXTON TAKES BARBARA LAYNE AS BRIDE

At a Sunday afternoon ceremony performed in Montebello First Baptist Church, Rev. Woodrow Rood united in marriage Miss Barbara Layne and Raymond Paxton. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Layne of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Paxton, of 1801 Crenshaw boulevard are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. William Dossett was the bride's only attendant, and James R. Paxton attended his brother as best man. William Dossett and John Shultz ushered.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Paxton was graduated from Montebello High School. Her husband, a member of the 578th Engineers, who leaves for camp September 1, was graduated from Torrance High School.

High School PTA Plans Year's Program at Tea

Mrs. Grover C. Van DeVenter, president of Torrance High School PTA, was hostess to her executive board at a tea given Thursday afternoon in her Carson street home.

Mrs. A. C. Turner, president of Torrance Council PTA and Mrs. Thomas Hammack presided.

Plans for the year were discussed and a proposed budget was drawn up.

In discussing the programs for the year, Mrs. J. L. Stephen announced that the theme would be "The Life of a Parent," and that an effort would be made to get Dr. Thorp of USC and Mr. Lloyd Prante, principal of John Adams Junior High School, as speakers during the year.

In an effort to obtain a large number of PTA memberships, a day's outing will be awarded to the students of the room having the largest percentage.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mrs. J. L. Stephen, program; Mrs. A. B. Cowie and Mrs. Bernard Lee, membership; Bernard Lee, men's membership; Mrs. T. E. Hammack, hospital-

'Blueprint for Tomorrow' PTA Theme

"Blueprint for Tomorrow's World" will be the Tenth District PTA program theme for 1950 and 1951.

Lomita-San Pedro Council will follow the same plan of instruction for its 13 local schools, said Mrs. Don Wolf, council president.

Local presidents and chairmen held their first meeting at Torrance Park with a pot-luck luncheon.

Main objective was the outlining of the schools of information to be held Sept. 18 at the San Pedro First Methodist Church and September 26 at Lomita.

Chairmen appointed to serve were Mmes. John R. Garner, J. J. Millard, A. D. Scott, E. R. Waller, Robert Hultz, Roy Probst and Wolf.

Mrs. C. W. Ebersole was ratified as Council Community Chest chairman.

The first regular council meeting will be held at Fifteenth Street School, with that association as hostess group.

Local associations represented were Halliade, Harbor City, Lomita, Elementary and Orange Street schools.
