

Vicki Lynn Arrives at Townsends'

Their first child, a daughter, Vicki Lynn, was born August 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Townsend. The young lady weighed 8 pounds 13 ounces when she was born at a Long Beach maternity hospital.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hastings of 2203 Gramercy avenue, and Mrs. Stella Urban, 2214 Cabrillo avenue.

The baby's father, a master sergeant in the National Guard, will leave for active duty early next month.

Card Party Planned by Rebekahs

Plans for a card party and other business occupied members of Trio Rebekah Lodge at their last meeting held August 23 in California Hall, Lomita. Ona Pence, Noble Grand, presided, and Mrs. Irma Powers supervised the social hour.

The card party will be held in the auditorium of San Pedro Gas Company at a date to be announced later.

Game prize winners during the social hour were Retta Nelson and Nettie Taylor.

Out-of-town members in attendance included Mrs. Mary Cozart of Lawndale, who plans to move to Torrance soon.

I am sure that nothing has such a decisive influence upon a man's course as his personal appearance, and not so much his appearance as his belief in its attractiveness or unattractiveness.—Leo Tolstoy.

You can never put the blossoms back on a tree after a storm, no matter how hard you try.—CHINESE PROVERB.
