DEADLINE FOR COLLECTIONS for 5 feet lights in Tracts 4 and 5 is September 15. Residents of those tracts who have not been approached for donations are asked to contact Melvin Miller, 1823 Marinette street, or call him at Torrance 2496-W.

THE FOURTH BIRTHDAY of Kent Dickson was celebrated with a huge party Monday afternoon, August 28, at 1849 Midway road, with his mother, Bette, as hostess. Children's games were played and refreshments were devoured—especially the large "Hopalong Cassidy" cake, ice cream and punch. Small guests were Ronnie Gresham, Gregory and Michael Oliver, Susan Coleman, Susan Sharon, Ardith Lee, Nancy Parker, Ken and Jerry Johnson, Jimmy Dawson, Diane and Patty Friend, Gwen, Sharon and Bobby Crosswhite, Jackie and Noreen Horner, Kathy Clark, Sandy Archibald, Kent's brother, Terry and Wait Myerscough.

Clark, Oliver, and Gresham assisted Mrs. Dickson. Other mothers present were Mesdames Oakes, Coleman, Parker, Johnson, Dawson, Crosswhite and Myerscough. The Dickson family finished off the day hosting a lovely turkey dinner in honor of their guests Tom Myerscough of New York, Mrs. Amelia Lowe of Dearborn, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myerscough of Harbor City, Mrs. Edith Dickson and Miss Lila Myerscough. Russell assisted his wife Bette, as did their sons Kent and Terry.

CAROLE JOANNE is the name chosen by Gene and Ruth Vaughan of 1764 Marinette, for their new baby daughter, born August 26, at Queen of the Angels Hospital, Los Angeles. The petite miss weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces at birth. The Vaughans have a son, Robert, who is 3 years old.

THE MAYFAIR CREAMERY SERVICE CLUB held a picnic at Torrance Park Sunday, August 27, and a gay time was had by all. The girls tried to trim the men at baseball—can't repeat the score—but 'twas fun, anyhow! Present from Kettler were Russell and Bette Dickson and sons Kent and Terry, and Dick and Alberta Gresham, Ronnie, Richey, Gary and Beverly, Edna and Walt Sharon and daughter Susan.

CANASTA PARTIES are very popular these days, the latest one being at the home of Carmen Nelson, 2083 Reynosa drive, Wednesday. Present were Mesdames Jewel Holmes, Leona Wimmell, Camilla Helphand, Helen Bell, Georgia Stroub, Bette Morehead, Virginia Jones and Jo Devenish. Delicious pie and coffee was served by the hostess.

A DAY'S FISHING at Lake Henshaw last Thursday was especially enjoyed by Dr. Grubbs, David, and Mark of 23229 Falena street, Joe Helphand, Kenny Jo and Larry of 2109 Middlebrook road. Everyone caught fish, but the fathers were busy as they could be baiting all the hooks.

WALT AND EDNA SHARON, daughter Susan, and John Boyd, all of 2047 Reynosa drive, motored to Victorville Thursday. Although it was quite warm, they enjoyed their visit with Mr. Boyd's stepson, Rev. Elmer Witt, Mrs. Witt and their baby daughter Anne. A side trip was taken to Big Pines in the mountains where they had a picnic luncheon. Mr. Boyd, a former resident of Chicago, has been making his home with his daughter, Edna Sharon, for the past six months.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD CLARK and daughter Catherine of 1815 Reynosa drive entertained Thursday night with a lovely dinner for newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keys of Mount Shasta. The Keys were married in Pasadena Tuesday, August 29.

ELEANOR AND BILL HAMMOND, of 2010 Middlebrook road were hosts on Sunday, August 27, with a luncheon for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Don Guasco of Storrs, Conn., and Miss Kathleen McCarthy of San Francisco. The Guascos attended the Hammonds' wedding ceremonies, being their best man and a patron of honor, respectively. Miss McCarthy is Eleanor's sister and is attending the University of California at Berkeley, majoring in physical education. The Hammonds have two children, red-haired Tom and blonde Carol Ann.

ANOTHER CANASTA PARTY was held at the home of Mrs. Joan Friend, 1830 Reynosa drive, on Wednesday night, August 30. Betty Dawson won first prize, and Miss Lila Myerscough won the booby prize. Also attending were Mesdames Edna Crosswhite, Gerlie Horner, Willie Archibald, Bette Dickson, Peggy Scoles, Evelyn Coleman and Dorothy Oliver. Ice cream, coffee and delicious home-made cookies were served by the hostess.

NEXT MEETING OF CIRCLE 7-WSCS, will be held at the home of Mrs. Jewel Holmes, 23217 Falena street, on Tuesday, September 12, 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Lorraine Stanton will be co-hostess. Circle members have a number of plans for the coming year, one of them being a rummage sale to be held at the Methodist Church, September 29 and 30. If you have anything you wish to contribute, please contact circle chairman, Mrs. Viola Goree, Lomita 2217-W, and she will be very happy to receive the articles.

A NEW RECRUIT to the Torrance Fire Department is Jay Nelson of 2083 Reynosa drive. His wife Carmen and son Keith will probably see him flying around on one of those red fire wagons one of these days.

LORRAINE AND DALE STANTON, children Bonnie and Leslie of 23105 Falena street, enjoyed a week's vacation at Sacramento, Sutters Ford, Lake Tahoe, Reno, and Carson City. They also spent a few days at Yosemite.

MRS. EARLENE WALKER honored her husband "Bill" with a birthday party Monday evening, August 28, at the family home, 1909 Reynosa drive. Relatives invited for the festivities were Mrs. Louise Walker, Mrs. Virginia Sorenson, Margaret and Billy, Miss Margaret Dunklin, and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter, and Carol and Mr. Martin. Bill's daughter Linda had loads of fun opening the gifts and helping her mother serve the refreshments.

ANOTHER LITTLE 4-year-old is Gwen Carlson of 23127 Huber street who celebrated her birthday on Thursday, August 24, her mother Mrs. Henry Carlson being hostess for this delightful affair. Gwen greeted her guests by presenting each one with a balloon and a hat. A big circus cake caught everyone's eye while ice cream, punch and candy were served to Jamie Ridenour, Skipper Sage, Jimmy Clancy, Dickie DeMott, George Moraine, Leslie and Lynn Cole, Steven Rowe, Tommy Schneider and Karen Hintz. Also present were Mesdames Schneider, Cole, Clancy, Hoy, Ridenour, and Doris Pischel.

EDWIN AND MARYLOU KARLOW and daughter Krista of 1971 Middlebrook road are in Oakland. Ed is there on a business trip, and his wife and daughter will stay one week.

MRS. R. C. CLUTTER of 1916 Reynosa honored her daughter, Judith Ann with a lovely birthday party Monday, August 21. Invited were 14 neighborhood friends of Judith who enjoyed the many games and delicious luncheon which was served by Mrs. Clutter. Mesdames Earlene Walker, Madeline Waite, Marian Allen, Georgia Spiker, Marjorie Watkins and Judy's grandmother, Mrs. Lena Clutter also attended the party. Mr. and Mrs. William Ireland called in the evening to wish Judith a very happy birthday.

A WEEK OF CAMPING and fishing was enjoyed by Henry Carlson and Jack Moraine, both of Huber street. They packed into Lake Sabrian in the High Sierras and caught enough fish to feast upon and brought plenty home to show the folks.

DOLORES AND CLEON LLOYD of 22831 Walnut street are proud parents of David Cleon, their first son and second child. David was born August 26 at Seaside Hospital, Long Beach, weighing 7 pounds 11 ounces. Daughter Gloria is 4 years old and already fond of her new baby brother.

SEEN SWINGING AND SWAYING to the tunes of Les Trossier and his band at the American Legion Hall last Saturday night were the Garvers, Sharons, Wests, Cunninghams, Beavers, Duncans, Joneses and many other from Kettler. The festivities were in honor of the National Guard unit which is leaving this week. Incidentally, Master Sergeant Clyde Garver of 2819 Gramercy street is leaving with the 578th Engineer Combat Battalion of the 40th Division. His wife June and sons Ronnie, Jimmy and Patrick, will remain at the family home. Also from Kettler is Ted Duncan of 2077 Middlebrook road, another member of the National Guard. Best of luck to all these men!

UNION LABEL. First union label was used by cigar makers of San Francisco in 1874.

LITERACY DOWN. At the time of the first U. S. census in 1840, only 49 per cent of the people were literate.
