Charles Schultz Jr., Claims Lovely Bride in Altar Rite

Pink and white blossoms decorated Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, Long Beach, Wednesday evening when Charles Schultz Jr., whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Schultz Sr., of 1304 Cota avenue, claimed as his bride Miss Helen Weir, of 1408 Acacia avenue. The Rev. A. M. Nelson officiated in the presence of 75 relatives and intimate friends of the couple. The charming bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Dunhouse of Sparta, Ill., chose as her wedding attire a dressmaker suit of bottle green gabardine. Her accessories were of mist pink and she carried a bouquet of pink-tinted Queen Anne's lace, and her grandmother's lace handkerchief.

Mrs. Berton Lamb, the bridegroom's sister, as matron of honor wore a beige suit with mint green accessories, complemented with a corsage of green cymbidiums.

Berton L. Lamb attended his brother-in-law as best man, and Cecil Albert Smith ushered. Preceding the ceremony, "Be cause" was sung by the church soloist, and later, as the couple knelt, "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. and Mrs. Schultz greeted their guests at the church and later Victor Hugo's, Long Beach, was the setting for the wedding supper for the newlyweds, their attendants and their parents.

Mrs. Dunhouse, the former Mrs. Lillian Weir of Torrance, attended her daughter's wedding in a pantomime suit, complemented by black accessories and a corsage of yellow begonia blossoms. Mrs. Schultz chose a navy suit and matching accessories, with a pink begonia corsage.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Casa Manana at La Jolla, Mr. and Mrs. Schultz will live at 1408 Acacia avenue.

They will leave Saturday for a month's trip to the New England states, via New Orleans and Washington, D. C.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and University of Redlands, and has been active in Torrance Junior Woman's Club. Her husband is associated with Schultz and Peckham, Torrance Ford dealers.

ELEMENTARY PTA HEADS RATIFIED

Elected members of the Torrance Elementary PTA executive board met recently at home of the president, Mrs. M. B. Millar, 2448 Andree avenue. Purpose of the meeting was to set up a budget, approve program plans, and to ratify the following chairman:

Mmes. R. E. Moffitt, publicity; Clarence Reibold, membership; Kenneth Sexton, ways and means; Boone Kirks, parliamentarian; Kenneth Ruffell, registration; Erma D. Bennett, juvenile protection and exceptional child; Miss M. Anderson, music; and Mrs. Herman Edgren, hospitality.

Monthly meetings will be alternately afternoon and evening affairs. Afternoon meetings will be devoted to the study and explanation of the methods of teaching reading, writing, and arithmetic. The teachers will give class demonstrations and answer questions of the parents.

Evening meetings will be given over to outstanding speakers and special events.

It is hoped that the programs will help to give the parents a better understanding of the methods and aims of the present day educational system.

Walteria Sets Year's First Meet

The first meeting of the Walteria PTA will be held at 7:30 this evening. The meeting, in which eighth graders will participate, will feature a get-acquainted program and there will be a question box. This year's theme is "Live Oaks from Little Acorns Grow."

WSCS SETS RUMMAGE

Plans are being completed by the WSCS of Torrance Methodist Church for a two-day rummage sale September 29 and 30 at the church, El Prado at Manuel avenue.

Full cooperation of church members and their friends is requested.

Mothers of Scouts to Meet 18th

The monthly meeting of the Scout Mothers of Troop 241 will be held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Irwin, 1408 Engracia avenue, Monday, September 18, at 7:30 p.m.

All members and mothers of the boys are urged to attend, to discuss arrangements for their luncheon in October.

Welcome First Son

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. William J. Campbell (Dolores Ulbright) of 1434 El Prado. The couple's first child, who has been named Craig Stephen, was born Sunday at Torrance Memorial Hospital, and tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 1 1/2 ounces.

The baby's father, a sergeant with the 578th Combat Engineer Battalion, had left the previous week for duty at Camp Cooke, and has not yet seen him.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Ulbright of the El Prado address; Mrs. Martha Campbell of Andree avenue, and George E. Campbell of San Francisco.

Kent Boys Named for Grandfathers

Robert Earl is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Kent (Joyce Hartley) of 1925 Gramery avenue for their second son who was born September 5 in a San Pedro hospital.

His brother, Steven Wilder, is two years old and bears the name of his maternal grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Wilder W. Hartley live in San Pedro. The children's paternal grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Kent and have made Torrance their home for many years.

The boys' mother is active in Junior Woman's Club and YWCA, having only recently resigned from the board of the latter organization.

HONOREE . . . Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, and members of the Guardian Council will pay tribute to their own Bethel member, Miss Beverly Luster at a reception in Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, September 19 at 8 o'clock. Miss Luster, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Luster, is currently serving as Grand Bethel Treasurer, Order of the Eastern Star, State of California. A brief meeting will precede the reception, and members are asked to arrive promptly.

Year's Activities Begin For Junior Woman's Club

Torrance Junior Woman's Club members gathered in the clubhouse last night for the first meeting of the new year with Mrs. Robert C. Morton, president, conducting the session.

Business of the meeting had been previewed at a board meeting held September 5 at the Crenshaw boulevard home of Mrs. Albert Posner.

Ways and means projects for the year were approved by the board as outlined by Mrs. W. C. Boswell, third vice president.

Torrance Kiwanis Club had asked the Juniors to sponsor a booth during the National Kids Day celebration on September 23, it was announced. The club will also enter a float in the Kids Day parade, Mrs. Morton stated.

The executive board members will be hostesses to the new members at a Rush Tea in the home of Mrs. Earl Clayton, 1020 Crenshaw boulevard.

Highlighting the year's initial board meeting was announcement by the president of her committee chairmen, who will serve during 1950-51: Mrs. Albert Posner, program; Miss Maxine Hoyle, membership; Mmes. R. R. Dexter, hostess; T. M. Saine, house and hospitality; Albert Smith, year book; W. O. Clausing, bulletin; A. P. Smith past president.

The bride, Narbonne High School graduate, and her husband, a Torrance High graduate, honeymooned in Northern California.

candlelight ceremony which was followed by a reception in the chapel gardens. Mrs. Walter Withrow, Mary Tibbets and Mrs. Howard King assisted as hostesses.

Women's Activities...

ANNUAL TEA COMPLIMENTS SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

The Hollywood Riviera home of Judge and Mrs. John A. Shidler was the setting for a beautifully appointed tea given Sunday afternoon. Hosts for the annual affair planned as a back-to-school courtesy for administrators of Torrance Unified School District, were members of the Board of Education, their wives, and husbands.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Heinrich

Hull assisted as hosts at the tea which provided a delightful opportunity for the Torrance educators to become better acquainted.

At the candlelight table, lovely with an arrangement of fall flowers, the wives of four new principals, Mesdames John Garver, Donald Robison, Ronald Henderson, and Lester Foster poured.

LUTHERAN WOMEN SET LUNCHEON

Priscilla Circle of First Lutheran Church will meet Wednesday, September 20, at the home of Mrs. Julius Meier, 2116 Andree avenue, for a noon potluck luncheon.

Mrs. Julie McManus, a teacher in Los Angeles City School System, has moved to South Gate, where she was transferred.

RNAs Plan Card Party

Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors of America, will hold a monthly card party on September 19 at the Woman's Clubhouse on Engracia avenue.

Usual games will start promptly at 8 p.m., with prizes for each table. While the scores are being added, delicious refreshments will be served by the chairman, Mrs. Jessie McCormick, and her assistants.
