

THIS IS IT . . . Lined up the way they'll look when they open against Glendale Hoover here tomorrow night is the 1950 Tartar team. Coaches Welch and Graybehl pulled these 11 men out of practice long enough for the picture, saying

Bert Johnson Elected President Of North Torrance Civic Group

Ballot counting following the recent election of officers for the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association revealed that Bert Johnson, of 17219 Atkinson avenue, is the new president of the organization succeeding H. R. Black.

Johnson was elected when about 60 North Torrance residents met at the new McMaster Recreation Hall at 174th and Yukon avenue for the balloting.

Ken Beight, of 17109 Elgar avenue, was elected vice president. This office has been held during the past year by Mrs. Harry Berry.

Mrs. Ed Collins, of 17015 Crenshaw boulevard, was elected recording secretary; Mrs. Wayne E. Brooks, of 3425 West 174th street, was elected treasurer; and Delbert Alford, of 17230 Atkinson avenue, was elected auditor.

These last three offices were formerly held by Bert Johnson, Councilman Willys G. Blount, and Earl Ivey.

BOARD MEETS

The new president held an executive board meeting at his home Sunday afternoon and appointed several committee chairmen to serve for the coming year.

Owen Bertrand will head the recreation committee, Dave Dyer heads ways and means, Ed Collins heads membership, Jack White heads safety, Mrs. Adaline Cortez is publicity chairman and the vice president is also the program chairman.

Heads for the health and welfare committee and the refreshment committee will be named at a later date, Johnson said.

PLANS DISCUSSED

Among the plans for the coming year discussed in the board meeting were those for dedication ceremonies for McMaster Park and the new North Torrance fire station adjacent to the park.

Tentative arrangements are being made to hold the dedication ceremonies and a dance in the first part of October. The association's general mem-
