

Women's Activities...

Miss Floretta Wakefield Now Mrs. Jack Delsigne

In a candlelight ceremony performed in Colonial Chapel, Redondo Beach, Floretta Wakefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wakefield, of 1668 W. 214th street, became the bride of Jack Delsigne, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Flormand Delsigne, of 807 Anapola avenue. Brother E. Partridge, of Pentecostal Church, Wilmington, read the marriage service.

Daughter's Christening Sunday Event

Christening services were held Sunday at noon for Margo Lee, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney Jr., of 1004 Acacia avenue. Rev. Arthur H. Bello, rector, officiated.

Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Haggard of Torrance and Mrs. Charles Klingler of Los Angeles.

An attractively appointed christening breakfast followed at the Whitney home, where pink and white asters centered the table set for the godparents, the baby's maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Elliott, Mr. C. R. Klingler, and the hosts.

Betsy Ross Club Plans Bazaar 28th

Betsy Ross Star Club, at their meeting Tuesday afternoon, completed plans for the bazaar to be held Thursday, September 28 in Masonic Temple.

A ham dinner to be served from 5:30 until 7:30 will precede the sale of aprons, and fine needlework, baked goods, home cooked foods, and candy which will be offered at attractive booths.

Everyone is invited. Dinner tickets for adults are $1.25 and children's, 75 cents.

Club Names Nominating Committee

Torrance Terrace Garden Club members assembled Wednesday at the Crenshaw boulevard home of Mrs. Henry Berkowitz for their first meeting of the fall season.

Following a delicious dessert buffet, club president Mrs. Frank J. Farrell welcomed the members and conducted the business session. Mrs. Minot Rugg, chairman of the nominating committee, presented her report. Serving with her were Mmes. John Delsigne Jr. and Maybelle Schmitt.

Program Chairman Mrs. Marjion Hartley led an interesting discussion of current garden problems, and with Mrs. C. F. Duroy distributed cuttings of a variety of fuchsias and other plants.

Annual election of officers will be held at the next meeting on September 27 when Mrs. Harold Sheldon will be hostess.

Question Box Featured at PTA Meeting

First meeting of Walteria PTA, presided over by Mrs. R. T. McNulty, marked by an unusually large attendance, was highlighted by presentation and adoption of a budget.

The session featured a question box concerning the school with queries in the box being answered by D. B. Kirks, principal; Lloyd Riest, instrumental instructor; Warren Hamilton, attendance officer; Mrs. Marks, school nurse; Mrs. Cecil Cramer, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Evar Jasson, program chairman.

The secretary announced: The association has purchased a new coffee maker.

The Halloween Carnival will be held on October 31. Mrs. Blesley's class won the room prize. Home-made cakes and cookies were served by the eighth grade mothers during the social hour.

REPRESENT PERRY PTA

Perry School PTA was represented at the September 12 Torrance Council meeting by Mrs. A. B. Cowie, Mrs. W. A. Wright, Mrs. C. A. Crefse, Mrs. I. E. Winther, and Mrs. Kenneth Hall.

CLUBWOMEN ENTERTAIN... Executive board members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club were hostesses at a lovely annual tea Saturday given to honor prospective members.

Left to right are: Mrs. Warren Perry, Mrs. Robert C. Morton, club president; Mrs. George W. Stevens, and Miss Maxine Hoyle. Herald photo

NOTE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moyer of Arcadia noted their third wedding anniversary Tuesday evening when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, entertained at dinner in their honor.

Tea Saturday Compliments Prospective Club Members

The lovely Crenshaw boulevard home of Mrs. Earl E. Clayton was the setting when Torrance Junior Woman's Club executive board entertained Saturday afternoon. The occasion was a rush tea given to honor 14 prospective club members.

A variety of dahlias formed the tea table centerpiece and the same flowers in effective arrangements were used throughout the home. As a get-acquainted feature guests were presented with personalized corsages of daisies as they arrived.

Pouring were Torrance Woman's Club presidents, Mmes W. I. Laughon and Dean L. Sears, both of whom had served as Junior Club advisors. Also representing the senior club was Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney, president.

Rushes included Mesdames George Stevens, Warren Perry, David Berle, Gordon Smith, Kenneth Dudley, John Kemp, Douglas Baldwin, Victor Smith, Melvin Means, William Pearson, William Stier, Robert Clayton, Howard Percy and Rex Welch.

Summertime Bride Feted at Post Nuptial Shower

Complimenting Mrs. Charles H. Smith, the former Jettie Wilona Seaborn, Mrs. S. S. Stanly and her sister, Mrs. A. C. Carroll, entertained at a post-nuptial surprise shower given in Mrs. Stanly's Andreo avenue home.

The former Miss Seaborn exchanged vows July 2 in a Tijuana, Mexico, ceremony with Charles H. Smith, USN, who is attached to the USS Philippine Sea. The ceremony took place

PTA Council Opens New Year 12th

The Acacia avenue home of Mrs. A. C. Turner was the setting for the year's first meeting of Torrance Council PTA, held on September 12.

At the meeting which preceded an informal buffet luncheon, plans were discussed for the year's program and the budget. Mrs. Byron Johnson was ratified as council registration chairman and an outline for the annual membership drive, set for the first two weeks in October, was submitted.

All schools in the Torrance Unified School District were represented at the meeting at which Mrs. Turner presided.

DAUGHTER ENTERS CONVENT

Miss Margaret Vonderahe left this week to enter the novitiate of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Condolet at St. Mary's Academy, Los Angeles.

Miss Vonderahe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Vonderahe, of 1452 Engracia avenue, will study for the teaching profession.

She was graduated from St. Mary's Academy in June, when she also was awarded her diploma in music. Her earlier education was received at St. James School in Redondo Beach.

DAKOTAN VISITS

A visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Murphy, 1520 Fern avenue, is his sister, Mrs. Maude Pickett of Pierre, South Dakota.

MRS. CHARLES H. SMITH
... Wedding Revealed

while she was completing a month's course with the Naval Reserve. The recent bride is a former Torrance High School and El Camino College student. She is now employed with Hoffman Radio Company, Los Angeles.

Attractive and useful gifts for her new home were presented by her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Seaborn, Mrs. Ruth Tripp, and by Miss Joyce Crane, and Mmes. May Crane, Seaman Neely, Mary Caughern, Darleen Free, Barbara Peterson, Dorothy Martin, Stella Flewelling, Wanda Coon, Gussie Bourne, Rosa M. Wickham, all of Torrance, and Mrs. Nell McGuire, and Mrs. Francis Dooley, of Harbor City, and hostesses. Gifts also were sent by other friends who were unable to attend.

Games were played, with Mmes. Free, McGuire, Crane and Carroll as prizewinners. Refreshments featured a large sheet cake decorated with a heart and inscribed with the newlyweds' names.

MR. AND MRS. JACK DELSIGNÉ
... Bride Carries Corsage on Bible

LEAVES FOR EAST

Mrs. Mary Gately returned to Long Island, N. Y. via TWA on Tuesday, to reside with her daughter, Mrs. William R. Mc-Guire. For the past year she has made her home here with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gately of South Vermont avenue.

GAY'S dress with a
....LONG LIFE

WOVEN MATELASSE
SUIT DRESS

$10⁹⁵

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' pleat-shoulder, one-button suit with the long sleeves that will make it good WAY into Fall (— even winter— why not?) Slot pockets are placed JUST right. Black, brown, green, woven MATELASSE.

Sizes 12 to 20 - 14½ to 22½

THE Gay SHOP
1319 - SARTORI TORRANCE

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHTS

Photo by Lee Neinstein

just to suit you!

BENSONS
New 1951
BUDGET
SUIT

Wonderful Sheen Gabardine tailored into this Fall's most popular suit. Simple in line—Smooth in look. All handstitched at collar and hip pockets. Best shades 10 to 18

39.95

Use Bensons
4 Months
Budget Plan

1217 SARTORI — TORRANCE

• Los Angeles • Maywood • Burbank • Compton
• Long Beach • Bellflower • San Diego, 2 Stores