

Walteria News Notes

By MOLLIE I. DOWD

Mrs. Clara Lund of Hawthorne boulevard is a patient at the Harbor General Hospital, having undergone major surgery Friday. She is doing as well as can be expected, it is reported.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rothe of Montebello.

Mrs. Frances Carrillo and son, Jerry, of Hawthorne boulevard, enjoyed a motor trip to Balboa and Laguna Beach last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Heuring, formerly of Newton street, have moved to their new residence at 816 Regan street, Los Alamitos. Mrs. Heuring is the former Joyce Michels.

Mrs. Martha Quigley and Mrs. Jane Mackay of Yermo were weekend guests of Mrs. Laura Way of Neece avenue.

Mrs. Bee Hurley of Pacific Coast highway entertained at a cosmetic party Tuesday evening of last week.

Mrs. Ethel Mosley of Ward street attended the district conference of the Women's Fellowship Organizations at Long Beach Friday. The meeting was held at the Eastside Christian Church.

Little Stevie Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sanders Jr., of Ward street, is accompanying his grandmother, Mrs. Gilbert Sanders Sr., of Hermosa Beach, on two weeks' trip to visit relatives and friends in Iowa and Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sanders of Neece avenue are parents of a daughter, Marilyn, born at Torrance Memorial Hospital on September 5.

Catholic Card Party Set Tonite

Mrs. Bernard Dougan has been named chairman for this evening's Catholic Altar Society-sponsored card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tickets may be procured at the door.

Customary games, including canasta, will be played, and while tallies are being checked, the hostesses will serve refreshments.

Assisting with party arrangements are Mesdames Walter Schaefer, Anthony Jessome, John Harvey, Silvester Sullivan, Alfred Dutz, William Souza, Edward Souza, Philip Halloran, and Gabriel Saenz.

MASTER BILL POLICK is now four years old and celebrated this event with a party given by his mother Mrs. Leo Polick at the family home, 2030 Kathy way. His guests enjoyed a tour of the Mayfair Creamery plant in downtown Torrance and then returned to his home to partake of the delicious ice cream cake which was decorated in the cowboy fashion. Four-year-old guests were Linda Foote, Marsha Johnson, Ernie Funk, Ronnie Berry and Barbara Johnson.

TORRANCE WOMEN EARN RECOGNITION AT MEET

When the representatives of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, returned from their district meeting held earlier this month in Redondo Beach they were gratified with the knowledge that their members had earned special recognition.

The meeting, held in Masonic Temple, was opened with introduction of four delegates to the Supreme Camp meeting, including Torrance's own district deputy, Mamie Kirschner of Culver City.

Following a speech by Christians Hammill, State Advisor, who stressed the coming "Round-Up," she called to the rostrum Mrs. Vertie Grimm of Torrance, and others, and presented each with a beautiful gift in recognition of fine work during the recently completed Rainbow membership campaign. Mrs. Hazel Hutton, Oracle of Torrance Camp, also graciously accepted a special gift, a beautiful Bible, to be used in the lodge work, in appreciation for her camp's efforts in securing so many beneficial members during this year.

Purple and white asters decorated the lodge hall, and made a pretty background for the white satin gowns of the officers, whose purple corsages carried the Royal Neighbor official colors.

Western living was the theme used in the dining room, with simulated cowboys and horses highlighting the table decorations.

Next meeting of the South Bay District will be in November with the Torrance Lodge as hostesses.

Attending from Torrance Camp were:

Rosa Shepherd, Vertie Grimm, Velma Scanlon, Jean Hanon, Opal Hoy, Sophia Duncan, Susie Walker, Jessie McCormick, Mrs. McMullen, Della Hoy, Hazel Hutton, Margaret Stavens, Marie Bankston, Angelina Disario, Stelma Norris, Cordie White, Cora Hill, Lucille Meyers, Pat Young, Mary Conner, Mary Baker, and Belva Brase.

Goal for 500 Members Set by Halldale PTA

Mrs. John Andrade, membership chairman, opened the membership drive for Halldale PTA Monday, September 25, with a rally at the school.

In a competitive spirit, each room will vie to gain the most new memberships during the drive. A prize for the winning room will be given in the primary division and upper divisions, respectively.

Using the theme, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall," the membership committee aims for a goal of 500 members. Last year the membership was 487. The drive will continue until October 6, and Mrs. Andrade extends a cordial invitation to all Halldale School parents to join the PTA.

Assisting with the membership rally were: Mesdames M. D. Hiebert, John Blackmon, S. P. Beaman, John Andrade, and W. A. McAllister.

Ralph W. McNiel, M.D.
