

Fashion Show Highlights 186th PTA Opening Meet

Mrs. J. A. DeJaifre, new program chairman of 186th Street PTA, presented an enjoyable program Thursday to highlight the first meeting of the year.

Introduction of the new faculty by the principal, Mrs. Mary J. Hawks, preceded a fashion show with mothers and children modeling clothes made during the summer. Also featured was a handcraft display of articles made by members who attended adult education classes during the past year.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Evaline Gill's and Mrs. Brunson's rooms.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting.

Plans for the "Membership Drive" to begin this week and a carnival to be held November 16, were discussed at the executive board meeting prior to the general meeting.

Plans were made for a combined rag drive and paper drive October 17 and 18.

Thirteen members attended the School of Information held in San Pedro last Tuesday, it was announced.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, Mrs. Ernest Tanner and Mrs. Evelyn Gandy represented 186th Street PTA at the Gardena-Wilmington Council Friday.

Seaside Ranchos

By BETTY LOU SPARKS

Chilly mornings, the crisp smell of autumn, the quiet of the neighborhood with the children in classes, vacations over and we find we have time to sit back, take stock and listen to plans for the fall and winter activities of the various community organizations.

From Paul Murray, president of the Seaside Homeowners Association, comes the news that during November or late fall grading for the proposed park area will be started. Planting of the shrubs and actual landscaping will be postponed until next spring, so that next summer the children of Seaside will have at their doorsteps, so to speak, a park any community could well be proud of.

The civic committee of Las Vecinas, under the able direction of Mrs. R. H. Blakely, Hollywood Riviera, has announced plans for their fall activities. A group for getting out the vote in the November 6 elections will be headed by Mrs. Jordan D. Kocher. An outdoor Christmas Decoration contest will be sponsored by Las Vecinas under the supervision of this committee. Prizes will be awarded in different classes for the most original and attractive yard and house decorations in Seaside Ranchos and Hollywood Riviera. It's a long way off, but you can be planning now. The contest will be under the direction of Mrs. Ev Rowan, Seaside and Mrs. Frank Brennan.

The Youth Festival, held last summer, netted the industrious younger set $130.69, which was equally divided between the Seaside Ranchos and Hollywood Riviera Girl Scouts, Cubs, Brownies and Junior Rockettes and the Teen-Age Canteen. This year instead of the usual Christmas party for sons and daughters of the members of Las Vecinas, a party for underprivileged children or an orphanage will be given. All of the youth groups will aid in making favors, dressing dolls and planning the party.

For you moms and dads who find a little free time on your hands after the kiddies are in bed, there are some interesting and worthwhile adult education classes being conducted at Seaside Elementary School this semester. On Tuesday night from 7 till someone will be there to show you the intricacies of leather and copper tooling. And for an evening of fun, on Wednesday from 7 until 10 there will be square dancing instruction at the school. Those of us who participated last year can vouch for the value of these classes.

Don't forget either the Seaside Country Fair, sponsored by the Seaside PTA October 6 and 7. Beginning October 6 with a dance at the Seaside School ca-

Salvation Army Committee Reveals Hobby Show Plans

Youngest exhibitor at the Salvation Army Hobby Show and Open House this month will be Jennifer Lynn McDonald, 8, who began her collection of nearly 200 dolls when she was just able to walk.

The Hobby Show is an annual feature held at the Salvation Army social service center, 1370 Alamos Avenue, Long Beach. The event is slated for tomorrow from 2 until 8:30 p.m.

Torrance residents will have an opportunity to see hundreds of rare and antique articles at the show. A priceless group of clocks owned by A. R. Mercer of Lakewood will be on display. Another interesting exhibit is a gun collection, the property of Milo Taylor of Long Beach. Children attending the Salva-torium with floor show and a real orchestra, the fair will be in full swing Saturday with a Kids Parade down Doris way, Reese road and end at the school, where breakfast will be served. Then to visit the many booths at the Fair. Everything from a booth with unusual recipes, a general store, a cake booth, hot dogs, candy, ice cream, balloons. A climax of one of Claude Ferrel's famous barbecued dinners will send them all home with a warm feeling that next year's carnival can not come too soon.

With many smart new outfits, looking like models themselves, Las Vecinas members gathered Thursday at the Riviera Beach Club to see a fashion forecast for fall presented by the Mademoiselle Shops and LaVonne, furrier of Los Angeles. Members who modeled for the afternoon included Mrs. Delbert Donk, Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mrs. William McReynolds, Mrs. Keith Niles, Mrs. George Stefan, Mrs. Donald F. Stewart, Mrs. Robert Warmuth, Mrs. Harvey Spielman, Mrs. William Schmitz and Mrs. William Whyte.

Anxiously waiting for a letter from Kobe, Japan, these days are Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Howey, one of whose sons is Sgt. Jim Howey of the U. S. Marines. The other son, Rod, is a staff sergeant in the Air Corps and is stationed at March Field. Both boys were well known here. Rod was majoring in engineering at the University of Southern California.

Jayne Gail, Carlton, very prim and proper, entertained seven little members of her kindergarten class at a dinner party Wednesday night to celebrate her fifth birthday. Guests included Diane Hurford, Penny Hopkin, Diana Murray, Bernice Venable, Linda Scioneaux, Wendy Schmitz and Marlene Fetters.

Entertaining Wednesday night at a dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz, Seaside Ranchos. Their guests on that occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ziegler, Mr. Ziegler is chief pilot for North American Aviation and will leave shortly for the east to assume a position with Bell Aircraft Co.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howey recently were Mr. Arthur W. Rodemeyer, Fort Wayne, Ind. and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chandler also of Fort Wayne, who came here from a trip through the southwest states.

The real truth behind those stories of Bud Mewborn's broken foot is that he kicked the ladder on the swimming pool while vacationing at Catalina. From the look of the cast we thought maybe he'd been cementing the basement and tumbled in.
