

MENU PLANNERS . . . Rev. Patrick J. McGuinness discusses the menu with Chef Irvin Merys, who has been preparing food for the 1000 persons who are expected to attend the annual Nativity Catholic Church dinner Sunday afternoon. The three-day bazaar starts tomorrow night. The public is invited to attend any one of these events tomorrow, Saturday or Sunday.

Dinner for 1000 Caps 3-Day Church Bazaar

Climaxing a three-day Nativity Catholic Church Bazaar, will be a dinner for 1000 persons this Sunday afternoon on the parish grounds, 1420 Coys avenue, according to Rev. Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor.

The bazaar will open tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. with many colorful booths stocked with prizes for the young and their parents. Patty Dunmeyer, of the Bettie Thomas Studios, will provide entertainment during the evening.

Saturday night special programs for the children have been arranged.

Beginning at noon on Sunday, Chef Irvin Merys, who prepared the menu, will begin slicing meat from two steers donated for the dinner by the Portuguese Dairymen's Association. Dinner will be served until 7 p.m. Sunday evening.

Entertainment during the afternoon will be provided by the Island Serenaders, a guitar orchestra under the direction of Paul Sternagle.

Prizes for the occasion were donated by Torrance merchants.

Customers' Corner

Packing your order may sound like a little thing, but our trained employees give it a lot of thought.

They know that it isn't right to place five pounds of flour on top of a quarter pound of butter . . . or to place soap next to cheese.

The men and women of A&P will appreciate it if you will let them have any suggestions as to how they can make a handier package for you to take home. Please write:
