Among out-of-town affairs attended by Mrs. Whitney preceding the club year was a Presidents' tea held last month at Federation headquarters, 2105 Hobart boulevard. The tea preceded a district executive board meeting during which Mrs. Claude M. Sneden, district president, introduced conference chairmen and welcomed the guests of honor. A wealth of splendid material for Torrance and other district clubs' use is available, Mrs. Whitney reports.

Another meeting which combined a district council and the first presidents' conference of the year, also was attended by Mrs. Whitney.

Held in First Congregational Church, the meeting was addressed by Mayor Fletcher Bowron, as guest speaker. Dr. James W. Field, pastor, as luncheon speaker chose as his topic "The Crusade for Freedom." Guests were given an opportunity to sign the Freedom Scroll and take part in the nationwide drive for Freedom.

It's a Boy For Benners

Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Benner are the proud parents of Dennis Donn Benner, 8-pound, 15-ounce son born September 26 at a San Pedro hospital.

His father is employed in the electrical department at Columbia Steel Company and his mother is a former owner of Alice's Beauty Shoppe.

Maternal grandparents taking bows are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehne of Hawthorne.

EXTENSIVE VACATION

At home following a delightful summer-long vacation is Mrs. F. H. Clark of 1731 Andree avenue. She spent some time in Rapid City, S. Dak., where she was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Clark, formerly of Torrance.

Returning to Rapid City from a month spent in Northwest Canada, she was surprised by a visit from the Arthur Hodges of Lomita, who were on a trans-continental tour.

With all her traveling, Mrs. Clark says California still is most attractive to her.

OPEN HOUSE MARKS 25TH ANNIVERSARY FOR EWALTS

One of the loveliest parties of the week was the open house held Sunday evening in Torrance Woman's clubhouse when Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Ewalt of 1822 W. 215th street celebrated their silver wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Ewalt's home since his marriage in St. Louis, Mo., Torrance their home since his association with Torrance branch, Bank of America, which he now serves as assistant cashier.

Assisting with party arrangements were Mrs. Ewalt's mother, Mrs. William Wamhoff of Los Angeles and her sisters, Mrs. Tracy Cox of Indio and Miss Carmen Wamhoff of Los Angeles, all of whom were present at the Ewalt wedding, and Mrs. Gordon McFarlane, center of attraction was Laura Lee McFarlane, two, the celebrant's godchild.

Mrs. Ewalt received her guests in dusty pink crepe complemented with an orchid corsage, and her mother wore blue lace over taffeta and gardenias.

Les Tronsier and his orchestra furnished music for dancing for the approximately 175 guests who arrived from all over the Southland. During intermissions the Torrance Barber Shop Harmony Chorus entertained with old-time numbers.

A beautifully decorated anniversary cake, appropriately inscribed, was served under the personal supervision of Mrs. Alma Schultz, proprietor of Alma's.

Outstanding among the couple's anniversary gifts were a chest of silver presented by the Lions Club, which Mr. Ewalt serves as president; two money trees, one bearing 50 silver dollars, and numerous miscellaneous remembrances.
