G. S. TROOP WINS TROPHY.

Girl Scout Troop 867 of North Torrance, sponsored by the Perry School PTA, received the second prize trophy on National Hide Day for their float, their theme being "Overnight Camping."

ELEMENTARY PTA OPENS YEAR WITH PICNIC MEET

Torrance Elementary PTA held its first meeting of the year Friday at Torrance Municipal Park. The meeting was a family picnic attended by about 400 teachers, parents, and children. A delicious potluck was preceded by a hotly-contested baseball game between dad and teachers.

Teachers made standards for the tables designating grade levels so that parents and children could become acquainted with faculty members. Robert Genter, third grade teacher and program chairman, made slides of songs which he projected on a movie screen and Miss M. Anderson, music teacher, led the group in singing and Miss Ann Olson's talented and beautiful baton twirling demonstration, augmented the program.

Seventh and eighth grade room mothers, under direction of Mrs. Charles A. Curtiss and Mrs. George Steele, arranged tables, made coffee, served and cleaned up. Parents also had the opportunity of meeting the school's new principal, Robert Morton, and R. E. Dexter, both of whom worked very hard to make the picnic the success it was.

HEADS NEW PTA GROUP

First regular meeting of the newly organized North Torrance Elementary PTA was held Wednesday evening, September 20, at the school.

Primary purpose of the meeting was to adopt by-laws and elect officers.

Initial proceedings were conducted by acting chairman, Mrs. William Sale. After welcoming the members, she turned the meeting over to Mrs. Elmer Soper of Santa Monica, who in turn introduced honor guests, Mrs. Liba Stevenson, First District PTA president and Mrs. A. C. Turner, president of Torrance Council PTA.

Officers elected and duly installed by Mrs. Stevenson included: Mrs. Ralph McBee, president; Mrs. Robert Richter, first vice president; Donald Robinson, school principal, second vice president; Mrs. Sam Harris, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Jackson, corresponding secretary; Cassius E. Sewell, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Van Bellechem, parliamentarian; Mrs. Alex Bates, auditor and Mrs. Duane Sherwood, historian.

After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served.

Stork Shower Compliments Young Matron

Complimenting Mrs. Clyde Anderson (Joan Thienhaus), Mrs. William T. Walker, Jr. of 1909 Reynosa Drive entertained recently at an attractively arranged stork shower. Approximately 20 Torrance and out-of-town guests were bidden, including Mrs. J. N. Anderson, mother-in-law of the honoree.

Bunco occupied the guests with Mrs. Frank Hunter of Bell, Miss Dorothy Petterson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Harold Rittmiller as prizewinners.

Following refreshments served from a stork-decorated buffet table, beautiful gifts were presented for the Anderson heir-to-be.

Award Presentation Feature of Fern PTA Pack Meeting.

By MRS. JOHN L. HINDS

Cub Scout Pack 724, sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA, held its first fall pack meeting Friday evening at the school. R. D. Wollard, Cubmaster, presided. The flag salute, led by Den Chiefs Fred Hilton, David Saine, Henry De Fields and Pascual Tapia, was followed by the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." The pack now has its own flags, which were purchased by the committee from funds raised by the boys from the sale of pinon nuts and paper.

An informative talk on Cubbing was given by Andrew Sais, assistant executive of the Los Angeles Area Council, Harbor District. He stressed the importance of parents' participation in carrying on the program with the boys in the home. F. C. Hemminger showed an interesting color film on tuna fishing taken by him during a recent fishing trip in the coastal waters of South America. The showing was accompanied by his interesting commentary.

During the meeting many awards were presented to the boys. Those receiving shoulder cord awards were Den Chiefs Fred Hilton, David Saine, Henry De Fields, Pascual Tapia and Lloyd Finch. Other awards were presented to Mark Euhank, wolf badge and gold and silver arrows; Norman Maloy, bear badge; George Downing, gold arrow; Robert Steers, a gold and two silver arrows; Warren Underwood, bear badge and gold and silver arrows; Kenneth Smith, wolf badge and gold and silver arrows; Robbie Wollard, bear badge, a gold and two silver arrows; Denner stripe and a service star; Henry Hinds, a gold and a silver arrow; Johnny Mouzakis, lion badge; Robert Steinbaugh, lion badge; Dal Derouin, bear badge; Pat and Mike Derouin, bobcat pins and membership cards.
