Dressmaking Classes Set

Classes in dressmaking will be held each Monday morning at the WALTERIA Recreation hall, 242nd and Ocean avenue, starting October 16 at 9. It was announced this week.

Instructor of the class will be Florence Laycock, who for several years headed the Home Economics department of La Verne college. Mrs. Laycock plans sessions on how to use the sewing machine and its attachments, how to follow patterns, how to design original dresses, how to remake children's clothes, how to make draperies, slip covers, and curtains.

All adults, regardless of residence, are invited to join this free class and discuss their individual problems with the instructor.

Noted Educator To Lecture Here

Dr. Harold Alberty, professor of education at Ohio State University, will address a public meeting of Torrance residents next Tuesday evening on the subject "Challenges for High Schools of Today."

The Tuesday night lecture, to start at 7:30 in the High School auditorium, will culminate in a day-long consultation by Dr. Alberty with teachers and administrators of the Torrance School district.

He is a nationally recognized leader in the field of secondary education, and is the first of three such specialists who will be brought into the district by the Board of Education to assist the local administrators with problems arising in the school system.

Local Woman Hurt In Auto Accident

Officers of the California Highway Patrol reported last Friday that Mrs. Elsie Hughes, 45, 1723 Dale avenue, was injured in an auto accident at Rosecrans and Western avenues.

She was a passenger in the car being driven by her husband, S. P. Hughes, the officers said.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN LOCAL CHEST LEADERS

Section chairmen in the Community Chest campaign, residential division, throughout the harbor area, received instructions at a PTA-sponsored school of information Thursday, October 12, in the Little Theatre of the Narbonne High School. Those attending from Torrance were Misses Lyle O'Hara, T. C. Myron and Samuel Dow. Rosemary De Camp, well known radio actress, took the lead in a skit presented by volunteers, designed to show the section chairmen how to conduct round-table workshops for their door-to-door campaign volunteers. The round tables are scheduled to be held November 4 in conjunction with a special Community Chest television

Raymond Nieves on Pacific Duty

Raymond Richard Nieves, electronics technician, first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel A. Robideaux of 1012 Crenshaw boulevard, is serving aboard a light anti-aircraft cruiser with the Formosa Straits Patrol, the Navy announced this week.

His ship was in the Far East making inspection and good will calls when the Korean conflict broke out and was ordered to combat.

Democrats Open Headquarters in Torrance

Democrat party leaders in Torrance gathered around Latry's Fixit Shop at 1813 Cabrillo avenue Tuesday afternoon and got the business of politicking under way in earnest by opening up a Democratic headquarters.

Headed by the chairman of the Torrance Democrats, Councilman Nick Draie, members of the executive board and other supporters gathered to formally dedicate the opening of the headquarters for the November campaigns in this area.

Showing up for the dedication were Beverly Smith, chairman of the executive board; Alex Bradford, Jess Dean, Councilman George Powell, C. Ed. Jones, Mrs. Rene Dean, Mrs. Glad Hall Jones, Mrs. Beverly Smith and George Downing.

Judge John Shidler, who is coordinator of the Pat Brown campaign in the 68th Assembly District, was scheduled to assist with the dedication but was unable to attend.

Another Ex-THS Student Wounded In Korean War

Pvt. Eugene B. Moore, 23, has been wounded in action in Korea, his father, Grover C. Moore, 2340 West 230th street, was advised last week by the Army. The former Torrance High School student and a member of the Merchant Marine during World War II was assigned to the 7th Cavalry Division following his enlistment in September, 1949.

Mrs. Marian Wham, his sister, said Friday that the family had just heard from the youth since Major General Edward F. Willsey's telegram arrived saying the boy had been wounded on September 19.

Video Star Slated To Appear at Teen Dance on Saturday

Television star Joe Graydon will appear in person at the Torrance Teen Dance Saturday, according to Miss Doris Awin, a adult supervisor. The dance will be held in the Civic Auditorium beginning at 8:30 and continuing until midnight. Roe Hillman and his orchestra will provide the music. Members of the Torrance Teens will be admitted for 25 cents, non-members will be charged 50 cents.
