Fathers Feted by Lomita PTA Thursday Night

Fathers were feted at the first meeting of Lomita PTA Thursday night and, entering into the spirit of the occasion, they presented a humorous skit on their own version of a typical PTA executive board meeting.

Taking part in this program feature were Ethan Schmidt, Tom Pentella, Harold Jack, John H. Kirsch, Melvin Smith, Newell Brown, Fred Kinstle, John Zell and Edwin Abbott.

Other program numbers included community singing with Mr. Schmidt in charge and the presentation of Yvonne Campeau and Diane Berry in several selections accompanied at the piano by their mothers. Mrs. Frank Mickunas accompanied the audience during the community singing.

Several announcements were made by Mrs. Ethan Schmidt, association president. Two booths, one selling comic books and another a game, will be in charge of the PTA at the Halloween carnival at Lomita Park October 21. Mrs. J. H. Kirsch, chairman of the County Chest X-ray Survey, asked for volunteers to assist as hostesses when two mobiles will serve this area late in November.

Mrs. Lloyd Powell, ways and means chairman, stated that the funds received from rag and paper drives would be used for Christmas welfare. She announced that $103 was realized from the last paper drive.

Mrs. V. L. Staleup made a plea for solicitors for the Community Chest drive; Mrs. Kirsch, legislation chairman, talked on Propositions 1 and 6 at the November ballot, and Mrs. John Zell, membership chairman, announced 451 members received during the drive.

Newell Brown announced that a waiting list of 89 boys had been accumulated for Cub Scout dens. He said there were now 28 boys in three dens in Pack No. 218C. He asked for leaders for this important youth work.

A committee of five Mesdames Melvin Smith, Ed Abbott, Harold Jack, Tom Pentella and A. Nicholson, was named to take care of the Christmas treat for children.

Mrs. Schmidt announced that the association would be host to Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council for a luncheon meeting November 14; that the November Tenth District PTA meeting would be held on Thursday, the 2nd, at Manual Arts High School and that, the theme of the November 9 association meeting would be "What I Expect From the School" from the standpoints of school principal, teacher, child and parents.

The meeting closed following an interesting film titled "The Doubling Thomas."

Refreshments were served by fifth grade mothers with Mesdames R. Ripper, Fred Kinstle, Theodore Brink, John Zell, M. Smith, Philip Hand serving coffee and cake.

James Flagg To Direct Scout Troop

James Flagg of 25817 Lucille avenue will be the first Scoutmaster for a Boy Scout troop to be organized Monday night, Oct. 23, at 7 o'clock in the Wayside Chapel and sponsored by the Men's Fellowship of the church.

Bob Smallwood, organizer for the Boy Scout Harbor District, will assist with the registration of charter members.

Assisting the Scoutmaster will be Holmes Eldred. The Boy Scout committee will be headed by Art Anderson as chairman, Gene Miller and Marshall Pine.

Both are graduates of Narbonne High School in 1949. Miss Williams is now employed by the Kelley Car Company in Los Angeles and Mr. Willis is with the Port Meat Company in San Pedro.

Darlene Ross Observes 3rd Birthday

The third birthday anniversary of Darlene Ross Sunday, October 15, was observed by a group of youngsters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bader, 26022 Eshelman avenue, Friday.

Yellow roses and candles decorated the birthday cake that was cut and served with ice cream. Tiny wheelbarrows filled with candies were used for favors and gay balloons were given to the children. The playing of children's records completed a happy afternoon.

The group included Linda Kay Holloway, Craig Carver, Mickey Ross, Steve High, David High, Lynette Spellman and the honoree, Darlene Ross.

Charles David Lotgering is New Arrival

Charles David Lotgering and his mother, the former Ruth Dorris of Torrance, are home from Torrance Memorial Hospital where the little fellow, weighing eight pounds and two ounces, made his arrival Oct. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lotgering of Eshelman avenue are the proud parents and Mrs. Grace Lotgering is paternal grandmother.

Represent PTA

"What Heritage for Our Children?" was the theme for the fall conference of First District PTA, held September 28 at El Segundo High School.
