Troop 241 Wins Second In Lomita Park Camporee

Boy Scout Troop 241, sponsored by the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, grabbed off a second place award at the 1950 Victory Camporee held last weekend at the Lomita Park. Camping in competition with more than 200 Scouts from Harbor area troops, the 20 Scouts from Troop 241 also received additional honors when two patrols, the L. S. Patrol and the Targeteers, each received the National Safety Council Safe Campers award for proper observation of safety precautions during the camporee.

A majority of the Scouts taking part in the camp were attending their first camporee, according to Scoutmaster Bob Maxfield.

Besides Maxfield, Committee Chairman A. S. Thompson and Senior Patrol Leaders Paul Huton and Ted Scheibler attended the meet.

Currently engaged in a membership drive, the troop meets each Thursday evening at 7:30 in the St. Andrew's parish hall.

HONEYMOON BOUND . . . are Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Wagner, who were recently married in La Solanita's Chapel of the Bells, in Hermosa Beach. The bride is the former Donna Corwin of Torrance. The couple motored to Washington for their honeymoon trip and will reside in Twin Falls, Idaho. (Beverly Salesbury photo).

Your Discards Urgently Needed by Salvation Army

Urgent need for discarded overstuffed furniture items in order to continue the Salvation Army's rehabilitation program this fall was told today by Brigadier Fred Ohrn, manager of the social service center serving the Torrance area.

Due to the great influx of needy families into this district the Army's supply of upholstered articles has been depleted, Brig. Ohrn said. As a result, a general appeal to the public is being issued seeking donations of unwanted divans, sofa-beds, chairs and other articles which are no longer of use to their owners.

"It's only through the reconditioning of throw-away items that the Salvation Army social service center carries on the rehabilitation program for needy and handicapped persons," the center manager emphasized, "for the social service department solicits no cash donations."

Residents may have castoff articles picked up at home or office by telephoning Torrance 1563 and requesting the Salvation Army Red Shield truck to call, Brigadier Ohrn said.

ONE OF MANY . . . Shown with one of her many pets is Valerie Daniels, a graduate of Torrance High who is now attending El Camino. Besides "Sir" Badger, of El Camino Life Science Department, shown above with Valerie, there have been hamsters, rabbits, birds, cats and other tame and not-so-tame animals around the Daniels' residence.

INSURANCE BENEFITS

Payments to American families by life insurance companies in 1949 were a record $3,478,364,000, approximately 40 per cent more than benefits paid five years before.

Local Nurses Subscribe to Nursing School

Registered nurses in this area will join their sister nurses all over the state in subscribing to a fund of $1000 or more to give the Florence Nightingale School of Nursing in Bordeaux, France.

Announcing the participation of local nurses in this project, Mrs. Margaret Feuille of Lomita, president of the San Pedro Nurses' Association (District No. 21, California State Nurses' Association) declared that through it nurses hoped to help promote international understanding for world peace. She also said the fund would be dedicated to the memory of Miss Anna C. Jamme, an outstanding California nurse leader who died in 1938.

A special committee will be appointed by the local nurses' association to accept contributions to the fund to which lay persons are invited to contribute as well as nurses.

The Florence Nightingale School of Nursing was established by the American Nurses' Association as a memorial to American nurses who gave their lives in World War I. Contributions of American nurses have largely supported it ever since, even to rebuilding the school after it was devastated by the Nazi occupation in World War II.

Nurses graduated from the school enter hospitals and homes in France, with knowledge of the best of American, as well as foreign, techniques and a feeling of fellowship for their American nurse-benefactors.

Miss Jamme was the first director of the California Bureau of Registration of Nurses, serving from 1913 to 1938, when she became first executive director of the California State Nurses' Association.

IN NEW HOME . . . Dr. W. A. Longshore Jr. of Berkeley and his bride, the former Mary Wilson Conover of 5454 Sharynne Lane, Seaside Ranchos. Their wedding was followed by an eastern honeymoon trip before they established residence in Concord, California. (Riviera photo).

Red Cross Needs Blood

During World War II an amazing record was achieved by the people of this country donating their blood to our armed forces, thereby saving countless lives.

The remarkable discoveries about blood made during the war, and more recently, are being utilized to improve the health of all of our people in this peace-time era.

Blood is unique. There is no substitute for it. It cannot be manufactured. It must come from only one source—the veins of human beings.

A pint of blood taken from the average healthy person does not reduce his resistance any more than an afternoon of exercise.

SAVORY MEAT PIE
"My family just won't eat stew."
If that's your plight, and the condition of the purse calls for stew, be clever.
Toss a few...
Crown it with a topper and don't let on that your savory meat pie is really a glorified version of the dish they claim to dislike.
Steaming beef pie—filled with chunks of beef and pieces of vegetables—rich with good brown gravy—and topped with a tasty cover—makes a hearty one-dish meal. And the meat it takes is on the list of budget cuts.
Of course, you can make pies with other meats. And you may use left-over cooked meat when you have it.

PASTRY COVERS
Then, there are lots of ways to change the toppings. You can serve meat pie fairly often and give the family appetizing variety, too.
Standard pastry makes a choice cover. When that's your selection, you'll find it's quite practical to make up the pie early in the day if you like. Assemble the pie and refrigerate it. Bake just in time for serving.
Pastry takes to changes when it's made for this main dish. Paprika, garlic or onion salt and other seasonings that you like with meat may be mixed into the flour. Grated nippy cheese is another good addition.

BISCUIT TOPPERS
Biscuit toppers are preferred by lots of folks. And there's a secret to turning them out at their fluffy best.
Have the meat, vegetable and gravy mixture bubbly hot when you put on the biscuits. They'll cook evenly—not brown on top and soggy underneath. And do remember that good biscuits rise as

BASIC BEEF PIE
1 1/2 lbs. lean beef
2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
3 Tbsp. flour
2 Tbsp. fat
3 C. cold celery or celery leaves
2 Tbsp. chopped parsley
1 doz. small white onions
3 or 4 carrots, cut in 1/2 in. slices
Purchase boned chuck round, flank or rump of beef and have it cut in 1 in. pieces. Or buy "beef stew meat" if your butcher has it cut. Mix 1 tsp. salt and pepper into flour and use this to coat the pieces of meat. Brown meat thoroughly in hot fat. Add water, celery, parsley and remaining salt. Cover and simmer over a low flame until meat is almost tender (allow about 2 hrs.). Add onions and carrots and continue cooking until vegetables are barely tender. Thicken mixture with 2 Tbsp. flour blended with 1/4 C. cold water. Turn into baking dish (wide and fairly shallow so there's room for lots of topping). Cover with desired topping.

PASTRY COVER
1 1/2 C. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. salt
2 Tbsp. shortening
2 to 3 Tbsp. cold water
Sift flour and salt into bowl. Cut in shortening until pieces are size of peas. Add water in small amounts, stirring lightly with a fork. Use only enough water to make a soft dough. Roll about 1/4 in. thick to fit baking dish. Put pastry in place over meat pie mixture. Turn edges under and press to edge of dish. Bake at 425° for 20 to 25 min.

BISCUIT TOPPER
1 1/2 C. biscuit mix
1/2 C. milk
Measure mix into bowl. Add enough milk to make a soft dough. Turn out onto floured board and knead gently into a smooth ball. Pat to 1/4 in. thickness and cut biscuits. Place biscuits on hot meat mixture. Bake at 425° for 20 to 25 min.
