Miss Parry To Be Wed

Mrs. William Hanrahan of 1820 Gramercy avenue has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Frances Mary Parry, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Petersen of Catalina Island.

Miss Parry, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davies of 1816 Gramercy avenue, was graduated from Torrance High School and attended El Camino College. She is employed in the offices of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, Los Angeles.

The bridegroom-to-be is a petty officer, third class, stationed at Lompoc.

No date has been set for their wedding.

Charivari Honors New Home Owners

Startled by the banging of pans and the clatter of cowbells, Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Warner opened the door of their newly acquired home at 1452 El Prado Saturday evening to discover a group of neighbors, who had staged the traditional charivari in its noisy manner.

Each well wisher at the housewarming brought a Revereware pot or pan upon which he beat with a kitchen spoon or other cooking utensil.

Participating in the affair were Messrs. and Mesdames C. T. Rippey, Charles Ver Jones, James W. Post, Sam Levy, George Peckham, and Grover C. Whyte.

MASSIES WELCOME FIRST SON

Glenn Clark has been chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jack Massie (Barbara Ann Dunlop) of 903 Amapola avenue, as the name of their first child, born October 17 in Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Massie, 1318 Encracia avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunlop, 1212 Acacia avenue.

The baby's father is engaged in local building construction work.

Nativity Dance Set for Tonite

Members of the September Guild of Nativity parish will be hostesses for the dance scheduled for this evening in parish hall, Cota at Manuel avenue.

Music for dancing from 8 until 11:30 will be provided by McDaniel's 5-piece orchestra and refreshments will be dispensed during the evening. The public is invited. Tickets at 50 cents each may be procured at the door.

Assisting Mrs. Howard Owen, chairman, with refreshments, are Miss Opal Yorker and Mesdames Howard Lander, Clarence Cole, Frank Forester, C. DeHaas, L. Kitto, James Dorigan, L. Elder, T. Graham, Rose Morris, Annette Beck, and William Fenton.

LUTHERAN MEET SET

The Victory Circle of First Lutheran Church will meet at noon Tuesday, October 31, at the home of Mrs. Anna C. Bay, 2003 Gramercy avenue.

Minister's Family Greet New Daughter

Cheryl Lynn, second child of Rev. and Mrs. Russell Killman of 605 Pine Drive, was welcomed home by her sister, Candice, 3½ following her birth October 17 in Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

The children's daddy is assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Erickson of Chicago, arrived the day before the baby's birth and will remain for a month's visit.

MISS WANDA LEE MOORE

Miss Moore to Tell Vows With Robert Dale Stewart

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Moore of 1908 Martina avenue have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Wanda Lee Moore, to Mr. Robert Dale Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Stewart of 15330 Cerise avenue, Gardena.

The couple will exchange nuptial vows in an afternoon ceremony Sunday, November 19, in Gardena Christian Church.

Miss Moore, who is em-played as cashier with McCollum's Buick agency, Hermosa Beach, was graduated from Torrance High School in June '46 and attended Compton Junior College and a Los Angeles business college.

Her bridegroom-elect, a veteran who served four years with the United States Marine Corps, attended USC and received his earlier education in Kansas City, Missouri, schools. He is employed in National Supply Company's sales department.

'Down on Farm' Club Dance to Benefit Two Philanthropies

Torrance Woman's Club will sponsor a "Down on the Farm" dance Tuesday evening, October 31 in Hollywood Riviera clubhouse.

Old time and modern music will be provided by Les Fronzier and his orchestra. Musicians as well as men guests will be attired in plaid shirts and jeans and the ladies will wear colorful cottons in keeping with the theme of the evening.

Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, special events chairman for the club, has invited members of Triple Ts, Los Fiestadores, and Sobada dance clubs in addition to members of Torrance service clubs. An invitation has been extended to the members of Las Vecinas Woman's Club, hostess club, and of course, their husbands will join in the festivities.

Proceeds of the affair will be allocated for the 1950-51 Community Chest and Red Cross Fund campaigns.

A donation of $1 per person will be accepted at the clubhouse, it was announced.

INSTRUCTOR . . . Mrs. Beeman, wife of Dr. John W. Beeman, announced this week that she will instruct a class in Home Nursing beginning at 10 o'clock this morning. The Red Cross-sponsored class will meet at 1619 Cravens avenue.

Red Cross Tells Needs

SELF HELP and MUTUAL AID were stressed at the CIVIL DEFENSE meeting at Los Angeles Chapter Red Cross, according to an informative report at this week's meeting of the local chapter, given by Mrs. Don H. Hyde, Red Cross offers training; all are urged to cooperate. In line with this thinking, Mrs. Beeman's class in Home Nursing is most timely as are preparations for the December 1 visit of the Mobile Blood Unit, which is under Mrs. C. E. Easley's chairmanship. Blood donors are urgently needed. Hours have been set from 3 until 7 p. m. Mrs. J. H. Hull, who this week accepted chairmanship of Staff Assistance Corps, will aid with the preliminary work for the visit. She also needs volunteers to aid the program.
