Darl Mead Named President Of Freshman Hi-Y Club

Darl Mead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mead, 721 Annapola avenue, was elected president of the Freshman Hi-Y Club of Torrance High School at the organizational meeting of the group.

Other officers elected to serve for the school year are: Richard Lindenberg, vice president; Jerry Neely, secretary; treasurer and Don Kasten, sergeant-at-arms. Leonard Litton, high school faculty member, is the adult advisor for the club.

Realtors Urge 'Yes' Vote on Proposition 10

The Board of Directors of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board at a recent meeting went on record as being in favor of the passage of Proposition No. 10. The directors urge local residents to vote "Yes" on the Public Housing measure. "A 'Yes' vote only signifies that the voter is in favor of cities having a voice in whether federal housing projects will or will not be located within their boundaries," according to Perry L. Connett, one of the members of the city board.

Staff Sergeant Arrives at Air Field Overseas

Staff Sgt. Harold N. Landon, husband of Mrs. Beryl Joan Landon, 4316 West 174th street, is among the mid-September arrivals on Clark Air-Force Base in Central Luzon who will serve an overseas tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force. He has been assigned as a maintenance inspector for the 18th Maintenance and Supply Group, Philippines Command (Air Force) and Thirteenth Air Force on Clark Air Force Base. The Landons have three children, Sunny Eleanor, 8, Elaine Ann, 3, and Larry Joe, 1.

ATTEND CONVENTION

City Plumbing Inspector Arthur S. Moore and Mrs. Moore of 2408 Andree avenue returned Sunday from San Francisco where he represented Torrance at the Western Plumbing Officials and Assistants Convention.
