Toastmasters Plan Reunion

Charter members, as well as all other members, active or inactive, have been invited to attend the First Charter Reunion of the Torrance Toastmasters Club on Tuesday night, November 7.

The reunion, a dinner affair, will be held at the Smith Brothers Fish Shanty in Waverly beginning at 7 p. m., according to Harry Watkins, a charter member.

Cost of the dinner is $2.

To Conduct Meeting

Members of the Key Club at Torrance High School will conduct the meeting of their parent group, the Kiwanis Club, on November 13.

Chamber Favors Six Propositions

Six of the propositions on Tuesday's ballot got the nod of approval from the board of directors of the local Chamber of Commerce, according to Blaine Walker, executive secretary.

Receiving the nod of the boosters was No. 2, naming persons to office; No. 3, reorganization of inferior courts; No. 4, eligibility to vote; No. 9, state civil service; No. 10, requiring an election to establish a housing project; and No. 11, the Torrens Act land title amendment.

Votes of "No" were recommended for propositions No. 1, the personal property tax; No. 5, legislators; and No. 6, legalized gambling.

ENDS AF BASIC . . . Pvt. Duane E. Patterson, 30, son of Mrs. Lula V. Bledsoe, of 29705 South Oak, has completed his Air Force basic training at the Lackland Air Force base, and will now enter an Air Force technical training course or assignment in specialized candidate.

Miller Named President of City Workers

Sherman Miller has been elected president of the newly chartered Government and Civic Workers Organizing Committee Local 1135, the CIO local representing Torrance city employees.

Chartered last week by the Congress of Industrial Organizations in Washington, the new organization replaces the United Workers union which was expelled from the CIO for alleged Communist domination.

Elected to serve with Miller were Lester Clouch, vice-president; C. R. Barton, financial secretary-treasurer; and Glenn Kirkuff, recording secretary.

No Red Feathers To Adorn Caps Of Politicians

The following resolution was adopted by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, Welfare Federation of Los Angeles Area, meeting in the L. A. Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, October 24:

"The Community Chest of Los Angeles Area seeks and receives the financial support of all people—people of all faiths and political beliefs. Red Feather agencies financed by the Chest likewise serve the public, without respect to political beliefs.

"The Chest cannot therefore endorse any political candidate, nor can it oppose any political candidate.

"The Community Chest of Los Angeles Area is non-partisan. It has not in the past, nor will it in the future, seek or authorize its identification with any political candidacy."

CUB PACK COMMITTEE TO MEET

Members of the Cub Pack 671 Committee will meet Tuesday night at the home of Kenneth Bloomfield, chairman, to discuss plans for the next monthly outing of the pack.

The meeting will start at 7:30 in Bloomfield's home at 17224 Wilkie avenue.

Last month the North Torrance Pack made a trip to the Griffith Park Zoo. A visit to a rodeo is under discussion at present.

Last week the committee hosted more than 200 persons at a spaghetti dinner in the McMaster Park recreation hall.

Don Whitney Elected Head Of Sportsmen

Don Whitney was installed as the new president of the Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen club at the annual dinner meeting held last week at the Hollywood Riviera Beach club.

Whitney succeeds Ray Borman as president. Borman received a gold bond, cherrywood gavel as an expression of appreciation for his services to the club.

Elected to serve with Whitney were Jim Byrd, vice-president; Tony Baldwin, secretary; Will Zons, treasurer; and Jack Doyle, sergeant-at-arms.

Sigma Phi Kappas Stage Gala Outing

The Sigma Phi Kappas, El Camino College social group, staged a picnic in Griffith Park Sunday for members, russees and their dates.

The boys celebrated the weekend with a rush party arranged by Jerry Sinner and Jim Walker. Eighty-five attended the party and even more participated in the Griffith Park outing.

TWO LOCAL BOYS ENTER AIR FORCE

Two local youths enlisted in the Air Force this week, according to Master Sgt. Leonard Gibbons of the local recruiting office in the Torrance Post Office Building.

Merle D. Eakins, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Greenley, 1843 West 219th street, re-enlisted, having previously served in the Air Force on occupation duty in Germany.

Vance H. Sandstrom, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sandstrom, 2042 238th street, signed up for the first time.

A former student of Northrop Aeronautical Institute, Vance was a graduate of Compton J.C. Master Sgt. Gibbons said the two men have been sent to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, where they will take Air Force training before receiving permanent assignments.

Atomic Primer Due Off Press Soon

The "Atomic Warfare Primer"—what to do in case of an atomic war—will soon be issued by the County of Los Angeles.

According to Supervisor Raymond V. Darby, the supervisors approved the sum of $4500 for the printing of 250,000 copies. The book was compiled by Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles county health officer.
