Top Rating Received by Fern PTA-Sponsored Cubs

Cub Scout Pack 728, sponsored by the Fern Avenue PTA, held its October Pack meeting at the school Friday evening. Mr. R. D. Wollard, cubmaster, presided.

The flag salute was led by Den 2. This was followed by inspection. The boys were rated chiefly on cleanliness and neatness for many do not yet possess uniforms. The Pack received a rating of 100 per cent from the judges.

Boys who received awards are Donald Hammond, Richard Connett and Johnny Mousakis, wolf badges; Henry Hinds, silver arrow; Norman Maloy, gold arrow; Mark Eubank, denim stripes. Bobcat pins were presented to Earl McVicar, William Cooper, Donald Baker, Jerry Hickman, Jimmy Perales, Jimmy Stillman, Tommy Coleman, Darrell Nowdesha, William Totten and Richard Bradford.

Den 4 presented an Indian skit. Boys who took part are Richard Johnson, Richard Bradford, Jack Wixom, Russell, De Fields, Kenneth Smith and Sanford Smith.

There was an excellent display of handicraft. The theme for the month was the Navajo Indians and the boy made drums, belts, bracelets and necklaces.

HOME AGAIN
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Kneisler of 1008 Anapola avenue have returned from three months visit with her sister, Mrs. Jesse L. Martin of Independence, Mo. The Kneislers also visited friends at Wyoming and returned via Carlsbad California, they report.

Rebekahs Activities Announced
 At the regular meeting of Trio Rebekahs presided over by Mrs. Ona Pence, Noble Grand, plans were made for members' attendance at South Gate's Courtesy Night observance on November 10.

The lodge will also be represented on November 17 at the school of instruction at Angeles Mesa lodge with the president of Rebekah Assembly instructing the officers. At this meeting Trio will exemplify "Visitors Attending a Lodge in a Body."

Trio lodge also was invited to attend the president's official visit to Hawthorne Lodge on December 7.

During the evening a special degree conferred on a number of members created an entertaining interlude.

Mrs. Belva Brase and her committee, Mmes. Ada Anderson and Elizabeth Hunt served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Eerie Atmosphere Prevails At Halloween Festivities

Costumes worn by guests and decorations used in parish hall created a traditional eerie atmosphere for the Halloween social staged by Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening.

Mrs. Leonard Young and Mrs. Philip B. Clayton, co-chairmen, had the assistance of Mesdames Margaret O'Toole, C. Ames and Robert Wellen, Sr. in arranging a variety of contests, games and get-acquainted songs for court members and their guests. Piano music was furnished by Mrs. James C. Donald Jr.

Prizes for costumes were won by Mesdames William LeBlanc, T. T. Babbitt and Lyle O'Hara. Winners in the several contests were Mesdames Bernard Harwood, M. O'Toole, Laurence Gitcher, Donald Pennington and Lester Dunmyer.

The committee served refreshments at tables decorated in orange and black appointments, in keeping with the occasion.

Miss Madeline Ban will be hostess to the other officers of the court at an executive board meeting at her home, 1412 Crenshaw boulevard, next Monday November 6, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Clinkscale Entertains Club

Colorful chrysanthemums created a pretty party setting when Mrs. W. A. Clinkscale entertained bridge club members recently in her El Prado home.

Prize winners were Mmes. John Keefer, and W. H. Stanger. Mrs. Otto A. Kresse was a club guest.

Hearing Test For Children Opens Nov. 6

Harbor area mothers are reminded to make appointments to have their children's hearing tested by Miss Delight Rice, Consultant, Conservation of Hearing for the Pre-School Child from the Hearing Center of Metropolitan Los Angeles.

The tests are being sponsored by the Assistant League of San Pedro. They will be held in the clubhouse, 1441 West 8th street, for the entire week starting November 6. Hours are 9 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. Children, ages 3 to 8 years will be given the tests which are painless, free of charge, and cause no after effects.

Appointments may be made by phoning the League clubhouse, TErminal 2-8088 any day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mothers from Torrance, Harbor City, Lomita, Wilmington, and San Pedro are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

At home, Red Cross-collected whole blood saves countless lives daily in civilian and V. A. hospitals in Los Angeles and Orange counties.
