

Men and Missions Sunday Theme Of Reverend Schauer's Sermons

"Recommending Our Faith" will be the topic of the sermon which Rev. U. S. Schauer, pastor of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, Marcelina and Arlington avenues, will deliver next Sunday at the 11 a.m. service. The message is in keeping with the emphasis of the day which will be observed as Men and Missions Sunday by many churches throughout the nation. "Thoughtful people will realize that others are in large measure attracted to Christianity by that which they find commendable in the lives of those who profess to be Christians," claims Rev. Schauer.

Other Sunday services of Central Church are the graded

Sunday school which meets at 9:30 a.m. and the Youth Fellowship meeting at 8:30 p.m.

The Central Church Ladies Guild is serving one of their breakfasts throughout the morning on Tuesday, November 14. A cordial invitation is extended to come to breakfast.

Mortal and Immortals Is C. S. Sunday Theme

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Sunday Bible lesson in all branches of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from I Corinthians: "As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly."

The following sermon selections are from the Psalms: "In God have I put my trust; I will not be afraid what man can do unto me. For thou hast delivered my soul from death; will not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?"

In "Science and Health with

Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy declares: "Mortals have a very imperfect sense of the spiritual man and of the infinite range of his thought. To him, belongs eternal life. Never born and never dying, it were impossible for man, under the government of God in eternal Science, to fall from his high estate."

Sunday Services To Begin at 9:30

Services this Sunday at the First Methodist Church of Torrance, El Prado and Carson street, will begin at 9:30, according to Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor.

The morning worship services will begin at 10:50 with the choir under the direction of Vernon Robinson, leading the congregation in singing a hymn.

Rev. Miller will bring the morning message on the theme: "John's Message to the Seven Churches." Rev. Miller announced that a roll call of all the members of the church will be taken. A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship at the Methodist Church on Sunday.

Nine new members were received into membership last Sunday and several of those who could not be present plan to unite with the church this Sunday. Those who were received into membership were: Mr. and Mrs. Hans P. Norby, Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shearer and their two daughters, Phyllis and Mary Ann, and Monford Moore.

SECOND ANNUAL PANCAKE FEED TOMORROW NIGHT

Tempting stacks of hot cakes and crisp sausage are on the menu of the Second Annual Pancake Supper sponsored by the Methodist Men's Club of the Torrance Methodist Church tomorrow evening.

The affair will be staged at the church beginning at 6:30 p. m. Tickets are 55 cents for adults, 35 cents for children.

New Schedule of Masses Set for Catholic Church

A new schedule of Sunday Masses for the Catholic Church of the Nativity has been announced and will begin next Sunday, according to Rev. P. J. McGuinness.

New times for Sunday Mass will be 6 a. m., 8 a. m., 9:15 a. m. (children's services), 10:30 a. m. (Sung Mass), and at 12 noon.

The above schedule of services will continue throughout the winter months, according to the Rev. Fr. McGuinness.
