

Warriors Lambast Santa Monica In 49-to-0 Bench Cleaning Tilt

El Camino's fighting Warriors got back on the victory road Saturday night by crushing a hapless Santa Monica team 49 to 0.

The score could just as easily have been 70 to 0, but Warrior Coach Amby Schindler cleaned the bench. Warrior tackles were even shifted to the backfield.

The El Camino Warriors will try for their eighth victory next Saturday, Nov. 18, when they tackle the invading Grant Tech eleven on the Alondra turf in a non-conference game. Top game of the season is scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, November 23, when Schindler's men meet East Los Angeles in the local stadium for the Metro conference title.

Highlight of the Santa Monica game was an 80-yard punt return by Don Miller, early in the second quarter. Miller took

Tartar Teen Talk

By MARIAN McDONALD

Our Torrance Tartar team really did a fine job of skinning those Redondo Seahawks at Redondo November 3. Congratulations to that great team of ours. Let's all keep our fingers crossed and hope they win again tomorrow night, Nov. 7, in the game with Inglewood to be played here on our field.

We seem to have a new team of football players up at school. They played their first game Thursday, Oct. 2, at the rally. Only these players wear the cutest hats instead of those old helmets. They are none other than our girls team; they even played the Redondo girls team. And won too. The members of our Torrance team were "Swivel Hips Cleveger," Betty Klem; "Dimples Dandoy," Ester Dandoy; "Lover Boy Boyce," Elaine Rehboldt; "Lollipop Leech," Jo Ann McVicar; "Pretty Boy Schmidt," Darlyne Goldman.

On the Redondo team were Jo Ann Bernard, Janet Cash, Barbara Mondor, Karen Ness and Ann Stephens. The rooters who made a big entrance down the middle aisle on a wagon were Donna Fuller and Madeline Goerke. The Torrance coach in a great big overcoat was Donna Hatfield, and the water boy, or I guess it should be "water girl" was Jerry Iurate. The two very able and rather bewildered referees were Jack O. Caine and Jim Nady. The announcer telling us what the teams were doing was Erma Carstens.

Did you notice all the red and gray around school last Friday Nov. 3 and at the game that night? It was a big pep stunt to show our team that we were all rooting for them to win.

The first Bay League Forum was held in the high school library Tuesday, Oct. 31. Each school in the Bay League sent four representatives from their council, also the president of the student body and their sponsor. The new school of Mira Costa was there also. Irwin Kasten, our student body president, was the chairman in charge of the discussion. Martha Dunn, secretary, took the minutes for this meeting.

The representatives of our student body council were Erma Carstens, Barbara Zachary, Marian McDonald, Beth Jenkins and Jerry Downing. The Tartar Knights conducted the visitors to the library. After the meeting was over, the Tartar Ladies served refreshments.

One of the problems brought up was whether or not to have players and coaches behavior counted on the Sportsmanship Trophy. It was decided to take this out of the sportsmanship rules, but it won't go into effect till next season. Another topic of discussion was how the different schools conducted their rallies and aud calls.

The problem of the Bay League dance was also brought up. It was decided to rotate this dance in alphabetical order starting with Redondo. Redondo said they will have it sometime in December, but neither the date nor the price of the tickets was set.

A double round of baseball was decided upon. The next Bay League Forum will be sometime in January at Beverly Hills. There are two of these forums a semester.

Our Varsity Club has set Nov. 22 for its annual Varsity Dance. This dance will be at the Civic Auditorium. A band has not been decided upon. This dance is for the whole student body.

The officers of this club are Jim Taylor, president; Jack Faren, vice president; Gary Groves, secretary-treasurer; Calvin Browning, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Belknap is the sponsor.

Our sophomore elections are finally over. Their new officers are as follows: Teddy Marcoux, president; Lee Mortenson, vice president; June Minura, secretary; Sally Hayakawa, treasurer; Roy Stamps and Jim Haeffel, sergeant-at-arms.

I am sure also that most of you saw the pictures of Martha Dunn, Beth Jenkins, Al Knappenberger and Jack O'Carne in the Torrance Herald a few weeks ago. They were advertising the High School booth that is going to be set up in Benson's lobby for us to use to sell tickets to our activities. Any school club that is planning to have anything which you can sell, such as tickets or food, should contact a member of the student council, who will make arrangements.

The Y Debs have elected officers for the coming semester. The president is Madeline Goerke; vice president, Donna Fuller; secretary, Karen Ness; treasurer, Diane Anderson; historian, Jeanine Cobb; chaplain, JoAnn Bernard; Inter-Club Council delegates, Sandra Gulbranson and Ann Flanagan; publicity managers, Pat Merola and Madeline Goerke. The program committee is made up of Martha Gruver, Ladean Biggs, Maureen Matthews and Dayle Denham.

Christian School to Rise In Hollywood Riviera

Aiming for mid-February as the completion date, officials of the South Bay Christian School, an inter-denominational institution, Tuesday, November 7, broke ground for the $25,000 school to be built on Pacific Coast Highway adjacent to El Retiro Park in Hollywood Riviera.

Founder of the school four years ago, Mrs. Josephine Tuttle turned the traditional first spadeful of earth.

The school has an enrollment of 100 students in grades kindergarten through the eighth grade, according to A. L. Trier, superintendent. Plans for the six-room structure include an addition to house a proposed junior high school. At present the school is staffed by five teachers.

While the school is under construction classes will continue to be held in Redondo Beach.

New Pews Used for First Time on Sunday

New mahogany pews installed at a cost of $3000 were used for the first time last Sunday during the services at the First Methodist Church of Torrance, according to Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor.

The project was initiated by the House Committee, of which F. J. Stock is chairman and Mrs. Alice Palmer is vice-chairman. The campaign for funds to finance the purchase of the pews was headed by John King and a committee of enthusiastic workers.

Application Blanks in Mail Now For Winter Basketball League

Application blanks were in the mail this week to start the ball leagues for play on the high school gym and the Alondra and Lomita Park Recreation halls.

Following an agreement by city and county officials on the use of the county gymnasium facilities, Elmer S. "Red" Moon sent application blanks to all the men who had teams in last year's league here, he said yesterday.

Play, which is tentatively scheduled to begin December 6, will be governed by the National collegiate Rule Book with a few exceptions, Moon said.

Reay Marshall, parks manager of the southwest district, Los Angeles County Department of Recreation and Parks, made the negotiations with Frank Carpenter, director of recreation, and Moon, director of athletics for the city. Marjorie Lomsdale, of Lomita Park and Walt Puffer of Alondra Park agreed to the plans to use the facilities under their supervision.

Moon said persons wanting to play this winter can contact him at the recreation office, 1347 El Prado, if they aren't lined up with a team.

New Pension Law To be Explained

A campaign to acquaint the public with the benefits of a proposed new state law for old age pensions will be launched, at a meeting of the California Institute of Social Welfare to be held on Wednesday, November 22 at 1:30 p.m. in the Community Church, 20520 Elliot avenue, between Vermont and Normandie avenues.

Breaking all records for a similar movement in the political history of California, the circulation of an initiative petition to the State Legislature has just been completed with 327,000 signatures being affixed to the petition in three weeks, it was announced.

Father and Son Bag Year's Supply Of Deer and Elk

Another year's supply of deer and elk meat was assured the Duroy family, of 1628 West 218th street, when C. F. Duroy and his son James returned from a hunting trip last week.

Hunting first in southern Colorado near Montrose, the pair in a party of four each got an elk. Moving on to northwestern Utah, each hunter got a buck and a doe.

"We haven't been completely out of deer meat for several years," said son James, who has been employed at the Superior Oil Company for the past four years. (His father is a veteran of 27 years with Superior).

This is the fifth year that the father-son team of nimrods have gone into the habitat of the deer and elk—and they have had consistent good luck, James said—knocking on wood.

Lion Keglers Tighten Grip on League Honors

Torrance Lion Club bowlers strengthened their hold on the No. 1 spot in the South Bay league by downing Redondo in a two-out-of-three series. At the same time, the Torrance No. 2 team was trouncing the No. 1 Redondo team to win their first series of league play.

The standings:

	W	L
Torrance No. 1	30	10
Redondo No. 1	24	16
Manhattan No. 1	24	16
Redondo No. 2	17	23
Manhattan No. 2	12	28
Torrance No. 2	7	33
