The office is located in the Chamber of Commerce building, 1345 El Prado. By the way, the local chapter of Red Cross is holding its meeting tomorrow at 1 p.m. Anyone who is interested in attending, please come. There is still need for volunteer workers.

THE STORK WAS BUSY again last week as he visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Vanderpool of 1339 Santa Fe street, leaving them a new son, Paul Frederick, November 5 was the date and he was born at San Pedro Hospital weighing 6 pounds, 7 ounces, but he's home now with brother David Michael, 13 months old, a little tyke himself. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vanderpool, also of Kettler Knolls.

FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS were happy to hear of the successful eye operation performed on little 3-year-old Ted "Sonny" Duncan. He was confined to Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, but is home now. He is the son of Lt. and Mrs. Ted Duncan, 2077 Middlebrook road. Lt. Duncan is stationed at Camp Cooke, but was able to see his son following the operation.

MRS. WARREN NASLUND was the honoree last Thursday evening at a lovely baby shower hosted by several young matrons. Approximately 32 guests were gathered at the home of Mrs. Waterman, 1767 Marinette street, which was gaily decorated in stork fashion with gifts arranged in blue and yellow trimmed bassinet. Appropriate games were played with prizes won by Mesdames Billie Robertson, Norma Condon and Berdine Naslund. Effective favors of boy's caps, holding nuts and candies, and cakes decorated with miniature baby shoes and storks were commented on by the guests, who were served refreshments. Many beautiful gifts were opened by the honoree.

DONNA FAYE EASLEY was a happy little girl last Saturday when she celebrated her fourth birthday. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burton Easley of 1333 Reynosa drive, and 25 youngsters were invited to her birthday party. She and her mother greeted the guests at the garden gate, where they were given balloons and favors. A table was set in the Hopalong Cassidy cowboy theme with cake and ice cream cups, and a candy waiting for them. Children's games were played and all had a merry time. Donna Faye's young brother Larry was on hand, too.

MRS. WILMA BROWN entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home, 2056 Reynosa drive, with a lovely bridge luncheon. Guests were Mesdames Agnes Harvey, Dorothy Palmer and Ina Larson.

JAYCEES WHO COULD not attend the State Convention last weekend in San Diego really missed a grand time. Two couples from Kettler Knolls made the trip and reported the dinner dance at the U. S. Grant Hotel was really "swell." Joe and Camilla Helphand and Jay and Carmen Nielson no doubt have some yarns to tell us.

MRS. EMMA LOU CLARK was the honoree last Friday evening when Mesdames Jewel Holmes and Viola Gore hosted a lovely baby shower. Approximately 15 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Holmes on Falena avenue, which was decorated in pink and green. Gifts surrounded a lovely cake inscribed "Rock-a-bye-baby," which was made by June Grubbs. Mesdames D. H. Rhoades, Jo Devanish and Mildred Bird won prizes for the games which were played. After the lovely gifts were opened, refreshments were served. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Clarence Smith of Hawthorne.

LARRY DRURY, the son of Mildred and Jack Baker, 2027 Kathy way, was honored last night with a family celebration on his 11th birthday. McMullen, Mr. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. John Keith Sr. and Larry's parents.
