HERE FRIDAY... Pictured is the distinctive styling of the new 1951 Fords which will go on display at Schultz and Peckham Ford dealers, 1420 Cabildo avenue, on Friday November 24. Shown here are the convertible and the custom club coupe. The dual-spinner grille and longer wrap-around bumpers give the front end a wider, more massive appearance and additional chrome and wider, tall lights add to the rear end appearance. The 1951 models feature Fordomatic Drive, the new automatic transmission, as optional equipment.

VET LOANS PREFERRED

Veterans received more than $42 million, or 45 per cent of Federal Housing Administration loans during the fiscal year of 1949.

STATION OPENED

The U. S. Naval Training School at Great Lakes was established by Act of Congress April 17, 1904, and officially opened October 28, 1911.

MAIN FARM INCOME

Cattle and calves were the largest single source of farm income in the U. S. in 1949, followed by milk, hogs, poultry, eggs and wheat.

MODERN STYLING... Is the keynote of a new suite of offices comprising the Acacia Professional Building, 2406 Torrance boulevard. The two doctors and a dentist who occupy the new structure have invited the public to inspect the new quarters on Sunday, November 26. (Herald photo).

Adult School Offers Civil Service Help

Merit Certificates, to be used in place of certain required civil service examinations, may be secured at the free adult classes at Torrance Evening High School for those contemplating typing and shorthand examinations in civil service.

The certificates will be awarded to those students who can type 50 words per minute or better. "There are many times," Mack Landar, instructor, said, "when applicants taking civil service examinations, because of their eagerness and natural strain, do not perform as well as when they are not under strain. These Merit Certificates, when of a recent date, are acceptable in lieu of an examination scheduled for those taking civil service examinations."

In connection with Landar's shorthand class, Gregg authorized five-minute speed tests of 80, 100 and 120 words per minute are given and students will receive a Gregg Certificate upon satisfactory completion. These certificates also are accepted in lieu of a civil service examination for certain stenographic and secretarial openings, according to Landar.

The free adult typing class is open to all adults, regardless of residence, and is held each Monday and Wednesday night in Room 205 of Torrance High School at 6:30. The free shorthand class is held each Tuesday and Thursday night at 6:30 in Room 204. An additional typing class, conducted by Neil Galluzzo, is held each Tuesday night at 6:30 in Room 205.

Doctors Invite Inspection of New Professional Building

Friends and patients of Dr. Rodney A. Stetson and Dr. Ralph W. McNeil have been extended an invitation to attend an open house of the physicians' new suite of offices in the Acacia Professional Building, corner of Acacia avenue and Torrance boulevard on Sunday, November 26 from 1 to 5 p.m.

Located in the new building also are the dental offices of Dr. Robert C. Musulas, who recently moved his practice to Torrance from Hawthorne.

Extensive use of color throughout the building has created a "restful" feeling and has tended to lessen the tension sometimes brought on by pure white walls common to most hospitals and doctors' offices.

The 2700-square-foot brick building was constructed by Bert M. Lynn of Lynn Builders and the Lynn Brick Company. Sub-contractors on the project included C. S. Connors, masons; DeVore Electric Company, Torrance Plumbing Company, Tom Watson, plasterer, and the Olson Glass Company.

Drs. Stetson and McNeil are in the process of moving their offices from temporary quarters at 1526 Cravens avenue, opposite the Torrance Fire Station, to their new offices—2406 Torrance boulevard.

The new offices include a reception room, an industrial treatment room, two offices, an X-ray room, a pediatrics examining room, a laboratory, a physiotherapy room, and three examining rooms.

Dr. Musulas' suite includes a reception room, two treatment rooms, an office, and a laboratory.

A large paved parking area is provided at the rear and side of the building.

The two physicians came to Torrance 2 1/2 years ago from Bakersfield, Calif. Prior to establishing their own practice, the doctors were associated with the Torrance Medical Center.

Dr. Stetson is secretary of the Torrance Memorial Hospital staff, a member of the American Academy of General Practice, the Catholic Physicians Guild, and the Los Angeles County Medical Association.

Turkey Trot Slated by Tartar Teens

A post-Thanksgiving dance to be known as the "Turkey Trot" will be held by the Tartar Teens in the Civic Auditorium Saturday night, November 25, from 8:30 until midnight.

Don Gordon and his orchestra, a group that could win any popularity contest with the TT's, will furnish the music.

Tartar Teens will be admitted for two-bits (25 cents only) and all others for four-bits. Refreshments will be "on the house."

City to Repave Streets With Gas Tax Money

County gas tax allocation to the City of Torrance amounting to $18,673.72 as approved by the County Board of Supervisors will be used to resurface nearly a dozen streets which are "next in line" on the master street improvement plan of the city.

City Manager George W. Stevens, said among those to benefit by the county "kickback" on gasoline taxes were the following streets: 171st street, Casmir avenue, Calle Mayor, Arlington avenue, 235th street, Ocean avenue, Eshelman avenue and other streets in the Highland Park and Shady Nook tracts.

Cast Picked For Camino College Play

Dawne Bernhardt will play the central character, Abbey, in El Camino College's fall play, "The Late Christopher Bean," to be presented December 8 and 9 in the Torrance High School auditorium, according to Director Orme.

The play is a comedy in three acts and has proved to be a hit when produced by professional and amateur groups.

Abbey is the hired help of Dr. and Mrs. Haggitt, a rural New England family. John Chamberlain will play the doctor and Joy Miller, Gardena, his wife.

Morna Gahlbeck, who has long been associated with Camino drama, and Melva Talboys, a newcomer to the campus, will play the Haggitts' daughters. Romantic interest is supplied by Warren Creamer and Susan, the Haggitt daughter, played by Morna Gahlbeck. Chuck Smith, another newcomer to Caminville, will play Creamer.

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherkey, Jr.

THANKSGIVING

Give Him thanks for the right to vote for whom we please, the right to work for whom we please or quit if we choose.

Thank Him for the privilege of attending the church of our choice or staying away from all of them, being able to send our children to schools where they learn truth, not propaganda.

Thank Him for our citizenship, being an American, part of 150 million free men, who may go into business, win to success or lose our all without stigma.

Thank Him for giving us the precept of honor, the strength of character to live by that code and fighting for it, if necessary.

Thank Him for the feast before us, a feast put there in '76, replenished by our forefathers and piled higher by ourselves.

Thanksgiving is Feast Day; our board groans with all the blessings of a Republic. It must never be otherwise.
