JOB'S DAUGHTERS TO ISNTALL DONNA WOLF QUEEN

The title of honored queen of Torrance Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, will be conferred on Miss Donna Pat Wolf Saturday evening, December 16 at 8 o'clock in Torrance Masonic Temple. Presiding will be the retiring honored queen, (right) Miss Beverly Luster, who has recently completed her term as honored queen of Bethel 50 and is past grand Bethel treasurer. A capacity gathering is expected to attend the ceremonies, climax of the Bethel year.

The new ruler is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf of 21804 Halldale avenue, youngest queen ever to reign in Bethel 50. The blond, blue-eyed, attractive and popular Narbonne High School student has a wide circle of friends in the Torrance-Lomita area. Miss Wolf is a member of the school's Honorary Society, Latin Club, GAA, Annual Staff, Green and Gold, Girls' Drill Team, and also is a Sunday school teacher at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Torrance.

Harold L. Burgener Claims Lovely Bride in Home Rite

In a pretty home ceremony performed in the Budlong avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rush, their daughter exchanged vows to become the bride of Harold Leslie Burgener, son of William F. Burgener of Welteria and Mrs. H. F. Carpenter of Torrance. Rev. A. F. Makie, Gardena Methodist pastor, officiated in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

The attractive bride chose as her wedding attire a flowered print dress with contrasting accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Ann McCoy as matron of honor wore a pink gown with a corsage of matching roses. At the reception Mrs. Rush received in a grey ensemble and Mrs. Carpenter wore duobonnet. Both mothers chose pink camellia corsages.

The new Mrs. Burgener was graduated from Gardena High School and her husband, employed at General Petroleum offices, Los Angeles, received his diploma from Torrance High School. They will be at home at 65th street and Budlong avenue, Los Angeles.

Y Groups To Sing Carols

Talk of Christmas Caroling is in the air! Freshmen Y-Teens of the YWCA and freshmen H-Y boys of the YMCA are engaged in preliminary plans for caroling about Torrance on an evening immediately preceding Christmas.

The group is interested in receiving the addresses of invalids and shut-ins, and the public is therefore invited to phone the YWCA, Torrance, 1356, giving addresses of such persons. Other young people and adults who enjoy caroling are invited to phone also, to receive information about the time, place, and route, so they may help swell the choruses.

Klink Home Yule Party Setting 7th

Mrs. J. R. Klink Sr., was a gracious hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained her bridge club at luncheon and a Christmas party.

A small tree decorated the luncheon table where places were arranged for Mesdames J. W. Post, Grover C. Whyte, J. S. Lancaster, R. J. Deininger, C. T. Rippey, C. C. Schultz, George Peckham, and the hostess.

Following luncheon, which featured a seasonal menu, gifts were exchanged for the first time since the inception of the club more than 20 years ago. Scoring at bridge were Mesdames Lancaster and Post.

Yule Theme Followed for Club Program

Torrance Woman's Club members and their guests were enthusiastic in their comments on the enjoyable luncheon meeting held Wednesday in the clubhouse when places were marked for approximately 70. The Christmas motif was effectively followed for table decorations, colorful Christmas bells, red berries and greenery being chosen by Mrs. Grover C. Whyte and Mrs. James W. Post, chairman.

Guests and members were cordially greeted by the president and a brief business session preceded a thoroughly enjoyable program introduced by Mrs. B. W. Roberts.

Highlight of the business meeting was decision of the members to purchase davenport for the foyer, and to present those formerly used to Camp Cooke for use of Torrance's own service men. Requests also were made for other furnishings for the camp.

Mrs. A. G. Sauer, in reporting progress in securing hostesses for the X-ray visit here, urged further cooperation of the club. Gifts for Indian children at Lighted Rock were attractively packaged to be sent to the school room there sponsored by the club. Gifts also had been requested for the annual doll party at Juvenile Hall.

Motion by Mrs. Lee A. McCoy directed the club's annual donation to Community Chest.

Mrs. Roberts reported her recent attendance at Tuljunga Woman's Club where she represented the president at the District Council meeting.

Representing the Junior Woman's Club president at Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. W. B.

War Mothers Installation Colorful Event Wednesday

The newly organized Chapter 71, American War Mothers Wednesday evening, December 6 installed officers for 1950-51 in American Legion club house. The installation team came from Long Beach, with Julia Wagner, National vice-president, presiding.

The ceremony was impressive, with the drill being performed to music.

Members of Compton Chapter and of the two Long Beach chapters were among the guests.

A beautiful American flag was presented to the new chapter by Mrs. Leo Wagner of Torrance, for her husband in honor of his mother, Julia Wagner. Mr. Wagner served in the Navy, in World War I, having 14 Atlantic crossings to his credit; in the last war, he served as a Navy employe and now in the Korean War, is again in the Navy and was in the first U. N. group to cross the 38th Parallel, going in to do installation work. He is en route home at the present time. Mr. Wagner organized the Torrance Boys' Club which is now the Torrance Area Youth Band, and, with Mrs. Wagner has done much civic and church work. The chapter is proud to receive a gift from such a couple.

The new officers are: Jeanette King, president; Clella Mumford, Vesta Rozum and Elyda Smith, vice presidents; Veda Peer, recording secretary; Engeline Sandstrom, treasurer; Hazel McMillen, chaplain, and Sallie Moreno, custodian of records.

Hostess

Mrs. Leona Chicca was hostess to a group of friends at the Pacific Trailer Court Tuesday. Following a delightful afternoon the guests were served refreshments of cake and coffee.

Attending were Mesdames T. Kinder, J. H. Caldwell, Dois Burns, J. Earley, Irene Viellenca, Eva Wade, Donna Edmonds, Ellison, W. Dexheimer, Marie Bueche, W. Schaub and Mrs. Alma Pelsler of Anaheim.
