Kettler Kapers

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT IS ON! Parties, galas and treats are in store for grown-ups and kiddies alike! NEXT, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 18, 19 and 20, there will be a Kiddie Carnival downtown (across the street from the post office) for the "small fry." Tickets can be obtained from our local merchants—just ask for the free tickets! This event is sponsored by the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, December 17, at 3 p.m., is a date for everyone. At the Civic Auditorium, a special Christmas program will be presented by the Torrance Adult Education Department. Invite your friends and take the family to this free program, where you will hear the wonderful Adult Orchestra and a 100-voice choir presenting Christmas songs.

AFTER CHRISTMAS, December 29, a holiday dance will be held at the VFW hall with the very popular Les Trossier and his orchestra providing smooth dance music. This event is again given by the "Jaycees" of Torrance, who would like folks wishing to attend, to phone Walter Sharon at Lomita 2267-W for tickets, or ask any member of the Jaycees for tickets—come on, join the fun!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS AHEAD for Agnes and John Harvey of Middlebrook road who will be leaving next week for Kansas City. They will spend Christmas with their many relatives and friends in that city, some of whom they have not seen for 10 years.

MRS. BETTY WENTZ of 1840 Marinette street, hosted a gay afternoon party last Saturday for her birthday club. Mrs. Fay Carroll of Redondo Beach was the honoree for the day. Additional guests were Mrs. Phyllis Wolters of Kettler Knolls, Etta Bouse, Bess Heffner, Roz Glassman and Hazel Veeniz, all of Redondo Beach. Mrs. Wentz served delicious cherry pie with whipped cream and coffee to club members.

DONNA MARIE VELICE enjoyed her third birthday tremendously with a party held in her honor at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Violet Semple, of Redondo Beach. All of the immediate family were present and traditional cake, ice cream and candy were served. Many beautiful gifts were received by Donna Marie, who is the daughter of Darryl and Dolores Velice of 7802 Schilling court.

INTRODUCING NEW neighbors at 2105 Middlebrook road and a friendly welcome to Mrs. Miriam Wassenberg and her two sons, Douglas, 11 years old and Billy, four, and Mrs. Alberta Winnick. Mrs. Wassenberg's mother. They are former residents of Hollywood Riviera and already have found friendly neighbors.

MRS. MARJORIE CRAIG was a guest of honor last week at a luncheon given by Mrs. Belle Phillips of Engracia avenue. Another guest was Mrs. Mildred Mitchell, also of Torrance. Mrs.

Craig, a visitor from Washington, is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Ted Cunningham of Reynosa drive for the holidays.

BETTY AND JIM MOREHEAD, and daughters Janice and Marilyn, of 2117 Middlebrook road, motored to San Diego last week and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Soderman. The Sodermans and their son, Phillip, are proudly showing off their newly adopted baby daughter, Pamela. A very pleasant trip was enjoyed by the Moreheads.

MRS. INA LARSEN entertained in her home, 2708 Martha street, last week with a lovely bridge luncheon. Present were Mesdames Wilma Brown, Agnes Harvey and Dot Palmer, all of Kettler Knolls. High honors were won by Wilma Brown.

Perry Pupils To Carol, Sing Program

Perry School pupils will sing Christmas carols today for the patients at the Torrance General Hospital. The same group of girls also will sing in the evening for the Perry School PTA Christmas program.

The PTA program will feature solos and duets by: Ardelia Burch, Betty Crenshaw, Barbara Manning, Shirley Ferrer, Kathy O'Connell, Jackie Staute-mas, Barbara Todd, Judy Packham, and Vadas Marcotte, according to Mrs. E. Collier, publicity chairman.

Sorority to Assist With Donations

The philanthropic program of Phi Sigma Phi Sorority took the spotlight when members met with Evelyn West at her home, 2319 W. 24th street Wednesday night.

A check for $50 will be sent to the Adelaide Flechner Clinic in Long Beach for the maintenance of the clinic work and another check for $25 will be used for the purchase of toys for the clinic. Another check of $25 was voted for the National Phi Sigma Phi Sorority for the cancer fund and $16 for a basket of food for a worthy Lomita family at Christmas time.

Announcement was made that the scrap-books had been completed to go to the Clinic and final plans made for chapter members to assist as hostesses this week with the X-ray survey in Lomita.

Mrs. C. W. Opsahl issued an invitation to the chapter to hold their annual Christmas party at her home in Long Beach December 16 when the husbands of the members will be guests. Attending the meeting were Mesdames W. J. Bryan, E. P. Kellogg, C. W. Opsahl, H. T. Rogers, V. L. Stalcup, W. A. Trotter, G. S. Bacon, G. C. Tait, R. W. Gerhart and the hostess Evelyn West.
