Couple Married 50 Years Honored With Dinner Party

The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Gregory of 146 E. 21st street was observed Sunday with a dinner party for children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of the happy couple.

Places were marked at the table for 25 and climaxing the festivities was the serving of the three-tiered wedding cake decorated with the inscription designating the occasion and edged in gold coloring. Further decorations included a large bouquet of rosebuds.

Attending were five of the couple's seven children and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pitman of Whittier, cousins of Mr. Gregory, one of his few relatives, as Mr. Gregory was orphaned early in life.

It was on December 10, 1900 that Joseph Gregory took Georgia Traynom as his bride in New Albany, Mississippi and they settled down in that part of the country to establish a home and raise their family of four sons and three daughters.

STUDENTS TO BE GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lund's holiday dinner guests will include Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McNamer Sr., Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McNamer Jr., Miss Elizabeth Malak of Jerusalem and Fred Chel of the Netherlands, exchange students at Pepperdine College.

Deputy Grand Matron Visits Torrance OES Chapter

Torrance Chapter's first meeting held by 1951 officers was a fine success. The meeting opened with the worthy matron, Vivian Cook, and the worthy patron, Gordon Mothersell, presiding. Special escort was given the junior past matron and the junior past patron Gladys Mothersell and Frederick Cook, who were seated in the East. The opening ceremony was beautifully performed by the new

Appointment of Miss Lily O. Hawkinson of Los Angeles to the international relations committee of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs was announced by Miss Dorothy Donahoe, California state president, following word of the assign-

AUXILIARY INITIATES

Initiated into membership at the last meeting of the Auxiliary of Bert S. Crossland Post 170 were Emma Roberts, Margaret Whitney, Wilverta Helman, Minnie Crushan, Regina Cunningham, Eula H. Follansbee, Helena S. Ryan, Elizabeth Woodman and Josephine Orend.

Plans to assist with the Christmas party for veterans' children were completed at the meeting. There will be no public card party until January, it was announced.

The Arlington avenue home of the president, Mrs. Annie Olson, was the setting for the Past Presidents' Parley breakfast earlier this month when Persia Fess, chairman, assisted as co-hostess.

Past presidents attending were Roxie Sleeth, Fan Wilkes, Ella Robinson, Mabel Williams, Alice Thompson, Gertrude Boyle, Ella Barefoot, Oliva Lee, Ethelyn Sears and Mary Toombs.

Students Entertain For PTAs

Directed by Miss Gilda Oliveri and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Elizabeth Surace, a choir composed of first grade students at North Torrance Elementary School entertained the PTA members at their meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Numbers included "Tinga-Ling," "Silent Night," "Away in a Manger" and "Jingle Bells."

End of year reports were made by Mrs. Alex Bates, auditor; Mrs. William Sale, finance and budget, and Mrs. Aron Wiebe, student welfare.

Mrs. Walter Bronson, hospitality chairman, demonstrated many attractive ways to make Christmas decorations at home. The meeting adjourned for refreshments, with Mrs. Gerschel Babb, room mother representative, and the second-grade mothers as hostesses.

officers. The Star Points, dressed in their colors, and the hostesses, sitting in the West dressed in apple green, made a very colorful picture from the East.

Pearl Schumaker, deputy grand matron, was warmly received and escorted to the East as were worthy matrons Vivian Brewer, San Pedro Harbor; Mayme Beerup, Carnation; Ione Smale, Wilmington; and worthy patrons Leslie Parsons, Point Fermin; Ouel Brewer, San Pedro Harbor; and Harry Beerup, Carnation. A splendid group of Torrance chapter past matrons and past patrons were given escort as were visiting past matrons and patrons of the district.

and Florence Viellenave. By-Laws: Lillian Dye, Cleora Stanger, Oscar Fossum, Jack Miller and Hazel Fossum. Auditing: Frederick Cook, Irma Harrington and Mildred Mitchell. Sick-ness and Distress: Alethea Smith, Relief: Vivian Cook, Gordon Mothersell, Alethea Smith and Floyd Mead.

The deputy, Pearl Schumaker, expressed her happiness in attending Torrance Chapter for her first visit. An invitation was issued to all to visit the Chapter of the district with the line officers. Helen Miller, chairman for the evening, gave her line of march to the banquet room. The Chapter was closed in regular form, Vivian Cook, worthy matron, giving the farewell.

The banquet room was decorated with pine branches, choristers, and red and white nut cups. Delicious refreshments of plum pudding and hot sauce were served by Helen Miller, chairman, Alice Speheger, Naomi Brown, and Mary Lewis.
