

Kettler Kapers

By Virginia Jones

HI NEIGHBOR—Do you have your Christmas shopping done? A big "NO" is the usual answer. There's just too much doing these days! Santa Claus has been making many appearances, plans for "open houses" are in the air and of course it's fun to be at all the parties. Kettler Knolls looks very festive with all the beautiful lights on doorways, porches and the traditional Christmas tree shining thru every window! Yessiree—it's the big holiday of the year!

LET'S NOT FORGET the holiday dance at the VFW Hall, Friday evening, December 29th at 9 p.m. Just ask any member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for a ticket—make it two or three! Les Tronier's orchestra will be there too—why not you?

MRS. D. P. MAY of Weatherford, Texas, has arrived to spend the winter with her daughter and son-in-law, Caroline and Earl Chandler, 23415 Esena Avenue, last Tuesday Mrs. May and Mrs. Chandler were feted at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. Odell of Brentwood. The occasion marked one of the many parties which was given in honor of Mrs. May's grandson, Ernest May who was married last Friday, December 15 to Miss Nancy Caughey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Walton Caughey of U.C.L.A. The wedding took place at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Westwood and was attended by Mrs. May and Mr. and Mrs. Chandler.

MARY LOU AND EDWIN KARLOW of 1971 Middlebrook road attended the annual dinner dance of the Credit Men's Association last Friday night. The event was held at the Beverly Hills Hotel which was attractively decorated for the occasion.

They reported a grand time had by all.

LAST WEDNESDAY EVENING Mrs. Betty Clark, of 1815 Reynosa drive was hostess to her social club, "The Jokers." Plans were made for the club's Christmas party which was held at the Union Hall on Border avenue last night. Mrs. Clark served refreshments to her guests. In the next issue of this paper look for details of the club's gay party!

ANOTHER COLORFUL event took place last Friday night at the American Legion Hall where the Mayfair Service club had their second annual dinner dance. From Kettler Knolls were Dick and Alberta Gresham (he was elected the new proxy), Wall and Edna Sharon, Les and Betty Tronier, Benny and Charlotte Youngken and Bette Dickson.

A FAMILY GET-TOGETHER Christmas day is planned by Meade and Marguerite Ferguson and children Bill and Timmy of 21221 Esena avenue. They will be guests at the home of Mrs. Ferguson of Glendale where a delightful dinner will take place. Family guests attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spaulding and family of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Peterson and family of Sun Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ferguson of Glendale.

TONITE WILL BE A BRIGHT AND STARRY one for Walt and Rose Shaffer, Dorothy and "Sully" Sullivan and Ted and Ruth Eyrich for they will be at the formal dinner dance at the Wilton Skyroom in Long Beach.

It is the Emmons Jewelry Company's annual Christmas party. Have a good time folks! Hear tell that Ted Eyrich will be Santa Claus — and a jolly one, too! AND A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!!

Seaside Ranchos

By BETTY LOU SPARKS

by BETTY LOU SPARKS. The Christmas spirit is bursting out all over the Ranchos and the south end of Torrance these days as plans are made and open houses announce the imminence of St. Nick's visit. One of the happiest people in the Ranchos this week was Marty Frazer, whose Christmas Eve mander, Mrs. W. Frazier, will be home for the Christmas holidays. We join in wishing them the merriest Christmas. Comdr. Frazier was on one of the three ships which led the invasion of Korea at Inchon.

Not quite so fortunate are the children and wife of Lt. Comdr. Byron Johnson. But they do know that he is safely in Japan, so Christmas will be a holiday for them too.

The big Christmas Dance of Las Vecinas was an outstanding social and charitable event of this past weekend for the residents of Seaside and Hollywood Riviera. Amid the streamers of crepe paper and the tinsely Christmas decorations, a goodly crowd gathered to contribute to the crippled children in the Harbor General Hospital might have a merrier Christmas.

Some of the merry-makers who were there included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomeroy. Dotty was allowed one hour from her sick bed to glimpse some of her friends and say a glad hello. Also recently on the sick list, but looking radiant at the dance, was Betty Nelson, half of the team of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matson. Although too numerous to name, some others included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyder, Mr. and Mrs. David Hurford, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mewborn, just to mention a few.

given, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hurford, included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shidler, Judge and Mrs. John A. Shidler, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mewborn, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matson, Mr. and Mrs. William Masters, Inglewood.

Also preparing for the big event was a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ev Rowan, whose guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Miss Lorraine Wilder, Mrs. Murray O'Toole, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blakely.

A beautiful Christmas program of carols and other Christmas songs at the Civic Auditorium in Torrance was enjoyed Sunday by several Seasideans. Among them were Mrs. Donald Hall, Mrs. Juan Robert Matson, Mrs. Burnett and children from the fourth and fifth grades of Seaside School, who were part of the program.

Getting into the Christmas spirit Thursday night were Bud and Winnie Mewborn when they attended the hijinks given by the Bar Association.

A progressive Christmas party and dinner were given Tuesday night by members of Sigma Tau Delta. Beginning at the Flaxhives with campfires, the girls proceeded to the home of Shirley Arndt for cocktails, from there to Terry Hefferin's for salad, to the Merolias for soup, to Martha Gruvers for their main course and over to Ellen Morris' for dessert and the all-important opening of gifts.

A big Christmas party with tree, carolling and community singing will be given by the Seaside Homeowners Association for the big and little children of Seaside Saturdays and Seaside Heights Saturday night, December 23. Favors for the children from Santa Claus will highlight the party around the big tree at Roberts road. Let's all be there.

Several pre-dance parties were
