

Kettler Kapers

By Virginia Jones
WITH MERRY CHRISTMAS still ringing in our ears—we hope that each and every home in Kettler Knolls enjoyed a very happy day—and that old St. Nick brought every one just what he and she ordered. Let's hope for a very bright and happy New Year for everyone!

DON'T FORGET that holiday dance tomorrow night at the VFW Hall which is sponsored by those happy-go-lucky "Jaycee" boys! Tickets may be obtained at the door and dancing starts at 9 p.m.! Les Tronier's orchestra will give out with all kinds of bebop, sweet and swing. Come one, come all—you're never too old to trip the light fantastic!

A GALA AFFAIR was the Christmas party of Circle 7, WSCS which was held at the newly redecorated home of Mrs. Betty Morehead, 2117 Middlebrook road. A very charming hostess was Betty who greeted her guests at the door, giving them paper and different articles with which to make their hats and favors. The ones who made the best hats and favors received prizes. Other novel games were played and gifts were exchanged by Mesdames Camilla Helphand, Viola Gore, Carmen Nielson, Margaret Beaver, Jewel Holmes, Jerry Willycombe, Jo Devenish, Marjorie Gardell, Lorraine Stanton, Thelma Sotiser, Anita Ransom and Iris Duncan. Refreshments of salad made in a Christmas tree mold, cookies, rolls and coffee and tea were served by the hostesses.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD WILLIAMSON and their son Bob Thomas of 22904 Caballo Avenue entertained Christmas day with a delightful dinner party. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Betty Williams and Mrs. Edith Blanchard of Long Beach.

WE HEAR TELL THAT A certain couple on Falena Avenue were responsible for old Santa Claus himself coming around Christmas eve on Falena Avenue. One could just see the expression on the kiddies' faces when they opened their doors to see Santa Claus! A special praise of merit to this couple, who, although busy as everyone else, had time to think of others!

"THE JOKER'S" club held their first Christmas party at the CIO Hall on Border avenue last Wednesday eve and a joyous occasion it was! The wives arranged and served a delicious pot-luck dinner with a beautifully decorated Christmas tree lending yuletide atmosphere. After dinner Santa Claus arrived and distributed gifts for everyone! Happy couples and their families attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark and Cathy, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horne and Mrs. Noreen, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crosswhite, Sharon, Gwen and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Friend, Diane, Pat and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Al Archbold, Sandy and Randy, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dawson, Jimmy and Dicky, Mr. and Mrs. Dwane Scoles and Sherry, Mrs. Russell Dickson, Terry and Kent, Mrs. and Mrs. Ivan Coleman, Bonnie and Susan, Cpl. and Mrs. Bill Parker and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bynum, Judith, Joyce and Raylee.

ONE YOUNG MOTHER and her daughter made especially happy for Christmas were Mrs. Louise Parker and Nancy of 1911 Middlebrook road for they had "father" with them, serviceman Cpl. Bill Parker from Camp Stoneman. He reported back to duty today but we know that they and other servicemen's families who were able to be together really had a wonderful Christmas.

BETTY AND JIM MOREHEAD and daughters Marilyn and Janice of Middlebrook road had a lovely Christmas dinner for guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Soderman and children Philip and Pamela of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kozakiewicz and children Ricky, Chris and Robbie, all of San Pedro. Wish you could all see their Christmas decorated home which boasts an almost real fireplace which they put up each year.

WITH A WISH for a happy and prosperous New Year for everyone, yours truly would like to thank everyone for the wonderful news, kindnesses, and cooperation. It's appreciated so very much and don't forget, the number is Lomita 1256-J. It's never too late to mention all those New Years parties, birthdays, new babies and especially the news of servicemen. HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

Seaside Ranchos

By BETTY LOU SPARKS

Between putting up the Christmas tree, explaining about Santa Claus and packing suitcases for our annual jaunt to the midwest, some of the multitude of yuletide activities are a little late being chronicled. A gala week, with many open houses to celebrate the season we'll pick at random and try to hit all of them. After the wonderful community Christmas tree Saturday night, December 23, when neighbors of Seaside Ranchos and Seaside Heights gathered to sing the old Christmas Carols and watch the enchanted youngsters receive a gift from Santa Claus, many open houses were held.

A large group of neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyder to toast the health and wish joy for the season. Another group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boggs. Los Cancloneros who had spent the evening bringing good cheer to the neighborhood by caroling gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman. Another group to be commended for their good cheer in caroling around Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. Club members of Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church of Torrance.

School vacations, scheduled from December 18 to January 2, and with the preponderance of parties, small fry felt that indeed Christmas was a season to remember.

Visitors and vacationing Scasiders were numerous. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lawrence for the holiday season were Mr. and Mrs. Harley B. Jobe, Hawthorne, Nevada, and their two sons. From here they expect to go to—should I say it?—Miami, Florida. Visiting in the snowy windy city of Chicago, Illinois, just prior to the holidays was Mrs. Mina Shidler. From all reports it was a wonderful pleasure trip although Mrs. Shidler went on business. Home for the holiday from Camp Cooke, where he has been working on a construction project is Mr. John Whyte. This made a merrier Christmas for the children, of course. A double dose of joy was in store for the Meese's, who spent Christmas with Mrs. Meese's family in Ohio for they are going to bring back a brand new car. Visiting the Paul Murrrays to share the children's happy holiday were Paul's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Price of Long Beach. A sunny Christmas was a change for Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy, of Detroit, when they gathered here to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomeroy.

A big turkey dinner for the children and their parents who patronize the riding stables across the hill proved a big event to some little girls in the neighborhood including Pat and Lolly Hanover, and Rosemary Conrity.

With the coming of the new year of 1951 it is a good time to sort of sit back, take stock and see what we in the south Torrance area have accomplished in 1950, and also what we are planning that is bigger and better for 1951.

PTA BOARD VOTES AID

The December executive board meeting of the Perry School PTA held at the Rosalin avenue home of Mrs. W. A. Wright, president, followed a gala Christmas party with everyone exchanging gifts.

Board members, several teachers, the principal and Mrs. A. C. Turner, Torrance council president, enjoyed the enclausal luncheon served on small tables gaily decorated to carry out the Christmas theme. During the business meeting the members voted to give baskets to two needy families, with the names of recipients held in the strictest confidence by the welfare chairman. It was decided that board members would meet at the school Thursday afternoon, December 13, to prepare part of the treats to be handed out to the students by Santa Claus on Friday afternoon, December 15. On Friday morning Mrs. Victor Weather, Room Mother chairman, would assemble her group of room mothers to prepare the remaining treats.
