On New Year's eve good fellowship and parties abounded. In Hollywood Riviera—at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Webber, to celebrate his being home from the hospital, open house was held Sunday night. At the home of C. A. Mewborns much the same policy was followed. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Scioneaux, Mr. and Mrs. Clouche, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shidler and Mr. and Mrs. John Shidler. Celebrating at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ev. Rowan with a buffet co-hosted by Mr. and Mrs. W. Schmitz on Friday, December 29, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomeroy; Mr. and Mrs. R. Blakeley, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Duke Wankle. So with our belated in either the cold snowy climes of St. Louis, Mo. or Oklahoma City, Okla., we'll say Happy New Year to you all.

STARTING THE NEW YEAR with a bang... may we introduce new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Stan (Marty) Briggs who now occupy the home at 2039 Reynosa drive. With them we find two lovely little girls, Patty Beth, five months old, and Mary Beth, one and one-half years old. They have many friends here but we also wish to extend a cordial welcome. Former owners of the new home, Harry and Dolores Jaggard are now settled in their new home in Lakewood Village.

MR. AND MRS. FRED WISE and daughter Susan of 1720 235th street entertained as their guest Christmas day, Navyman Joe Woods from San Diego. He greatly enjoyed his Christmas with the Wises as he was able to telephone his family in Detroit to wish them a "Merry Christmas." The Wises also held open house Christmas night for approximately 30 guests. A beautiful buffet table was set and a happy time was enjoyed by all.

VISITORS FROM PORTLAND, Oregon dropped in unexpectedly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Edgren, 1735 235th street, last Christmas Eve. They were Mr. Edgren's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Foster, who are en route to Mexico and Baja, California on an extended trip. They enjoyed a wonderful Christmas together except for Johnny, one of the Edgren boys. He has been ill, and we hope at this time for a complete recovery. His brother, Claude, is fine tho' and had Johnny's helping of turkey with all the fixings.

FROM SALMON, Idaho is Mr. Sam Wright who is visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Marie and David Foote, their children Linda and David of Reynosa drive.

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN (Dorothy) Wainwright and their daughters Dornis and Norma Jean of Reynosa drive entertained Christmas day with a lovely dinner for relatives and friends. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Squires, Mrs. Mary Earle, all of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Peterson of North Long Beach; and Mr. Fred Decker of San Pedro.

HAVE YOU HEARD? of the Torrance Y.W.C.A. label-saving program? If not, you can start now saving from San Diego. He greatly enjoyed his Christmas with the Wises as he was able to telephone his family in Detroit to wish them a "Merry Christmas." The Wises also held open house Christmas night for approximately 30 guests. A beautiful buffet table was set and a happy time was enjoyed by all.

Walteria News Notes

The First Aid class to be held at the Fire Station in Walteria is rapidly taking shape. The instructors hope to have at least 50 in attendance at these sessions. The classes will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. every other night, beginning Tuesday, January 2. However, anyone interested can join the class today and start one lesson late if they wish. The classes offer both the standard (18 hr.) course, and the advanced (30 hr.) course. The classes will end January 31. The eventual goal is to have one member of every family in Walteria with at least a standard course certificate.

We were very sorry to hear that Christmas joy was somewhat dimmed for Mrs. Mary Riggs and her family when her mother, Mrs. Katherine Donely, was taken seriously ill suddenly on Christmas Day, and had to be rushed to the Harbor General Hospital. We were glad to hear, however, that she was able to return home December 30.

It was a busy week for the Paul Bowens of 3329 Danaha street. They began their round of activities by spending Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hook and son in Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Allis of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith of Westchester also were there. Christmas Eve, the Bowens played host to Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Allis, who also stayed for annual Christmas breakfast. On the 27th of December, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen held a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Bowen's father, Mr. O. E. Allis, at which the guests played games and were served refreshments, including a lovely birthday cake. Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bowen of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Fineberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blencowe, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hair, all of Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McFarland, 3325 Danaha street, entertained guests at Christmas dinner. They were, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McFarland, all of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McFarland of Culver City; L. E. Milgate and family of Torrance. Also dropping in during the evening were the J. F. Merrieks of Bellflower; and the J. F. McFarlands of Los Angeles.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Beers of Newton street over the Christmas holidays were Captain and Mrs. Henry Cunningham and son, Captain Cunningham, formerly of Danaha street, in Camp Cooke and expected to be sent to Germany soon.

The Paul Sloneckers, Neece street, went to Montebello to spend Christmas week-end with Mr. Slonecker's brother and family.
