Leland W. Dean Claims Bride As Brother's Troth Revealed

To Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Dean of 2414 Pacific Coast Highway, and formerly of Birmingham, Alabama, came the news this week of the marriage of their son, Leland, almost simultaneously with the news of the engagement of a second son, Jack.

A message from Washington, D.C., from Corporal Leland W. Dean, USAF, informed his parents of his marriage in Bolling Air Force Base Chapel to Miss Catherine Louise Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Young of Washington. A reception followed in the non-commissioned officers club.

The lovely eastern bride, given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding attire a navy blue dress complemented with red roses. Her attendant, Mrs.

Betty Ann Proulx, wore a navy suit with yellow roses.

Sgt. James C. Massey, USAF, attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Dean was graduated from Eastern High School in Washington, and her husband, who entered the U. S. Air Forces in 1948, received his diploma from Torrance High School.

A dramatic accent is the formal announcement by Mr. and Mrs. William Speck of 1511 Acacia avenue, revealing the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Geraldine, to Mr. Jack Collier Dean, USN.

Plans for an early spring wedding are being made by this couple, pending the Navy's plans for its early January recruit. Miss Speck was educated in Torrance.

Kiwanians Seat Officers at Annual Installation Dinner

Riviera Beach Club was the scene of an enjoyable party arranged as a background for the annual installation of officers and directors of Kiwanis Club of Torrance. Attending were sixty-five Kiwanians and their ladies.

Lt. Governor Homer Bale, as installing officer, inducted J. Parke Montague, president, and his staff of officers following installation of Bob L. Haggard, as past president.

Francisco. Her husband, E. F. Whittenberg, a Navy veteran of World War II, is now stationed on Guam as a civilian worker for the government.

Presentation of perfect attendance awards for 1950 highlighted the informal ceremony, master of ceremonies being Harold O. Chaney, past lieutenant governor of Division 19.

Dancing concluded the enjoyable evening.

Torrance Man Claims Bride In San Jose

A New Year's marriage united Miss Joyce Wayman of San Jose and Lloyd C. Warthan, Jr., formerly of Torrance, according to a message to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Warthan, of 650 Border avenue.

The bridegroom, a police officer for the city of San Jose, is attending San Jose State College, where he is majoring in criminology and police science. He received his commission in ROTC last June.

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Warthan are at home at 269 N. 11th street, San Jose.

Junior Club To Propose 18 Members

Miss Maxine Hoyle, vice president of Junior Woman's Club, and her committees are deep in plans for a rush breakfast to be held from 9 until 12 noon Sunday, January 14.

Mrs. R. D. Bolen will open her home at 2372 Torrance boulevard for the occasion, which will honor 18 proposed members.

Former Residents Are Guests

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Clinger, (Barbara McCune), daughter Diane, and sons Robert and Michael, of Salt Lake City and formerly of Torrance, have been the house guests of John B. McCune.

The Clingers have been hosted by many of their old friends during their visit.

Professional Women to Hear March of Dimes Authority

National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance will attend a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, January 15, at Melton's in Manhattan Beach. Miss Harriet Spencer and Mesdames Emma Roberts and Ayleene Moore will serve as hostesses. Guests are welcome and reservations may be made with the hostesses not later than January 12, after which no cancellations will be accepted. An interesting program will feature as guest speaker Marguerite

Clark, women's chairman Los Angeles County March of Dimes. Mrs. Clark will explain the great need for contributions and many of the uses of the fund.

Miss Verna Porter, president, has been approached by the California State Personnel Board of Sacramento, telling of the need of stenographers or stenotypists to act as "hearing reporters." Anyone desiring additional information is requested to inform Miss Porter at 2554-J, according to Helen Williams, news service chairman.

Girl Scout Leaders Group Holds Interesting Meeting

At the district Girl Scout meeting, held Monday evening in Torrance library lecture room, Mrs. Grace Wright was re-elected to the office of chairman. Mrs. Ilda Orr of Gardena, as section chairman, will replace Mrs. Frank Church, who is ineligible to continue in office, having served the limit of three successive terms. Mrs. Vella Hefferin of Seaside, accepted the newly created office of district secretary.

Discussion of plans for the annual meeting at the Los Angeles Assistance League on January 24, and plans for the annual cookie sale, to begin February 10, occupied the group as did those for the Girl Scout May Company sponsored birthday party on March 10.

Mrs. Evelyn Noely's report on Girl Scout Travel Day and Girl Scout Camping were enthusiastically received.
