MISS JO ANNE WILSHIRE
... Lovely March Bride-Elect

Wilshire-Moon Names Linked By Redlands Campus Romance

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Wilshire of Oak Glen, Redlands, have formally announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jo Anne, to Mr. Daniel Earl Moon, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Moon of 1021 1/2 Amapola avenue. They have planned their wedding for Saturday, March 10, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Redlands.

Miss Wilshire, a member of an old California family, is in her freshman year at University of Redlands, where her fiancé is a popular senior. He is a journalism major, and Phi Chi affiliate. Prominent in athletics in Torrance, he was graduated with the class of winter '46. This past year he was a star end in the university football team. Duties as sports and fringing editor of The Bulldog, campus organ, also have been among his activities.

Jo Anne accepted his fraternity pin at a holiday family party at the ranch home of her parents, where Dan was a holiday house guest. A satin heart attached to a decorative greeting card inscribed with his original verse, later revealed the betrothal news to their university associates and his fraternity brothers.

Miss Wilshire was a recent house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moon.

HOUSE GUESTS

Mrs. Ila Gilbert, of 1504 Date avenue, is entertaining as her house guests Mrs. Evelyn Neville, of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. Myrtle Sutherland, of Lafayette, California.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT JOHN LESSMAN

Miss Pauline Ban Becomes Bride of San Clemente Man

Pauline Anne, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ban of 1412 Crenshaw boulevard, became the bride of Robert John Lessman, of San Clemente, during nuptial Mass Saturday morning in Nativity Catholic Church. Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor, officiated in the presence of 100 wedding guests. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Heinie Lessman of San Clemente.

The bride chose as her wedding attire an ankle-length dress of white lace over taffeta and carried white orchids and bouvardia on a prayerbook. She was attended by her sister, Madeline, who wore an emerald green dress fashioned like the bridal gown, and carried pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Stephen Baer, a fraternity brother, and former classmate.

Following the ceremony, 60 guests were entertained at a wedding dinner served in parish hall, where Mrs. Ban received in cocoa crepe with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Lessman attended her son's wedding in a smart pink and blue dress with navy accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The new Mrs. Lessman was graduated from Torrance High, and for two years attended

UCLA, where she majored in physical education. The bridegroom, an accountant, with an office in San Clemente, served as an Army officer during World War II. He received his training in Georgia and at Stanford University, where he studied for one year. He was graduated in June from UCLA, where he became a Delta, Sigma Phi.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessman will establish their home in San Clemente, following their Las Vegas, Nevada, honeymoon. Among the lovely prenuptial affairs arranged to compliment the bride was a personal shower given by her sister, Miss Madeline Ban, and attended by 18 guests. Another delightful affair was a miscellaneous shower attended by 65 friends and relatives and given by Mrs. P. Pleick of Los Angeles, aunt of the honoree, with Mesdames Sam Nincevic, of Torrance, Mrs. Peter Pleick, and Mrs. George Pleick, of Los Angeles, as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Hansen of San Clemente, aunt of the bridegroom, also entertained at a shower attended by 30 guests.
