

Naoma Brown Becomes Bride Of Charles Wilbur Winner

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends here was news of the marriage of Mrs. Naoma Brown of 1980 Homeworth drive, San Pedro, and formerly of Torrance, and Charles Wilbur Winner of Lomita. The couple exchanged nuptial vows in a simple ceremony performed in the Wec Kirk of the Heather, Las Vegas, Nev., with Rev. R. P. Lovett, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride was beautifully attired in ivory blue with a corsage of orchids pinned to the shoulder of her gown.

A resident of Torrance for the past 25 years, Mrs. Winner is a past matron of Torrance Chapter, 380, Order of the Eastern Star, and has been active in social and civic enterprises. Her bridegroom, a resident at 25306 Pennsylvania avenue, is a member of the Lomita Fuchsia Club and is affiliated with Wilmington F. & A. M., and Order of the

Two Speakers To Address Perry PTA

Featured speakers at the meeting of Perry School PTA, scheduled for 1:30 tomorrow at the school include Warren Hamilton, director of child welfare and attendance for Torrance Unified School District, and Mrs. Laura Brown, school nurse.

Mr. Hamilton will discuss welfare facilities available to interested persons and Mrs. Brown will discuss the general school health program. A panel discussion will follow.

A highlight of the meeting will be a school demonstration under the direction of Mmes. Herbert and Ballock.

Social, Philanthropic Affairs Spark St. Cecilia's Calendar

St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church began a new year of social and philanthropic activity for the church and community with its first business session in 1951 on Wednesday of last week.

The new officers, Sarah Muleck, Una Dalton, Gracemary Rhone, Jean Davis and Marjorie Moore were welcomed by a large attendance of old and new members who outlined the year's program, discussed immediate projects and approved the following committees and officers:

Finance, Una Dalton, Emma Roberts, Doris Mahon and Irene Hopkins; calendar, Margaret Alter, Bettina Moller; house, Ada Siegfried, Ruth Golden; calling, Minnie Brooks; chaplain and education chairman, Roxie Sleeth; philanthropy, Alma Smith and UTO chairman, Ann Bello.

The finance committee announced its plans for a pancake supper on Shrove Tuesday, February 6 for church members and their families.

The following members volunteered to serve lunch to the men who are giving their time and effort on Saturdays to build the church school:

Una Dalton and Sarah Muleck, Jean Davis, Roxie Sleeth, Alma Smith, Ann Bello, Ada Siegfried and Ruth Golden.

Silver Wedding Anniversary Marked by Gala Open House

Silver and white appointments were used to decorate the buffet tables for the open house Sunday which marked the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dunham of 21617 Halldale avenue. Arrangements for the party were completed by the celebrant's daughter, Miss Marge Dunham, of the home address. Presiding at the silver service was Mrs. Burley Crawford, who assisted Miss Dunham in serving Torrance and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Dunham received her guests wearing a corsage of bronze orchids pinned at the shoulder of her black crepe afternoon gown.

The popular Torrance couple, who were married in Santa Ana twenty-five years ago, received many lovely gifts of sterling silver and crystal. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham have resided in Torrance for the past 24 years, where he has been owner-operator of Dunham's Auto Parts.

Guests included Judge and Mrs. Joseph Raycraft, Jane and Joan, San Pedro; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Block and Messrs. Harold and Arper Block, all of Bellflower; Messrs. S. O. Butler,

Miss Joann Moore Becomes Bride of Charles L. Wilson

In an impressive ceremony performed in the Chimes Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, Miss Joann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, 21730 Grace street, became the bride of Charles Lloyd Wilson, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wilson of 23547 Pennsylvania avenue.

Given away by her father, the lovely bride was gowned in traditional white slipper satin fashioned with a full net skirt. A beaded coronet held her veil and she carried a white Bible with a spray of gardenias which later became the corsage for her going away costume, a teal blue gabardine suit, with brown accessories.

Mrs. Lillian Ford, of 1820 Marina avenue, attended her niece as matron of honor wearing an aqua taffeta formal with a corsage of yellow carnations.

Richard Rathbun attended the bridegroom as best man.

At the reception for relatives and close friends which followed at the chapel, Mrs. Moore received her guests in a teal blue afternoon dress with a corsage of gardenias and yellow roses, and Mrs. Wilson attended in a blue dress complemented by gardenias and tallman roses.

The bride, a student at Torrance High, plans to continue her studies. She is a member of the Cavalry Baptist Tabernacle of Compton. Her bridegroom was graduated from the same school last June and is employed by the Wilmington trucking company.

Assisting with reception arrangements was Mrs. Suzanne Owen. In charge of registering the approximately 40 wedding guests was Miss Nancy Ingram.

Mothers Club Plans Food Sale 20th

In a busy session conducted by the president, Mrs. Louise Cook, members of the Nativity School Mothers Club outlined plans for a food sale to be held Saturday at the entrance to the Gay Shop.

Plans to serve breakfast of hot chocolate and doughnuts to Nativity students on the first Friday of each month also were voted on.

Reports of the recent hearing tests for all children of the school were made tentatively by Mrs. M. N. Felker, pending receipt of official reports from the sponsoring Los Angeles County Health Department.

An award banner, a recent gift to the school by the executive board of the club, will be used to encourage full attendance at club meetings.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by mothers of the third grade.

Lutherans To Sponsor Girls' Chorus

Immediately following organization of a girl's chorus at 6 o'clock this evening in First Lutheran Church, the group will begin work on "The Promise of Easter," a cantata for girls from 9 to 13 years of age.

Mrs. Paul Wenske, who plans to direct the chorus, cordially invites girls in this age bracket to attend the organization and subsequent meetings.

Business, Professional Club Aid Urged by 'Dimes' Speaker

Mrs. Marguerite Clark, chairman of the Los Angeles County March of Dimes, as guest speaker at Monday evening's meeting of the National Business and Professional Club, told of the great need for the drive this year. Mrs. Clark expressed grateful appreciation for the cooperation and urged all present who could volunteer for the many tasks that are to be done to make the drive a success. She particularly stressed the "Mothers March on Polio" which is set for February 8 from 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and requested that everyone turn on the porch light between seven and nine o'clock, which will signify that the block worker is welcome to come and pick up a donation to the "March of Dimes."

Hostesses for the enjoyable dinner held at Melton's in Manhattan Beach were Miss Harriet Spencer and Mesdames Aylene Moore and Emma Roberts. Miss Verna Porter, president,

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Newly-Wed Mrs. A. P. Funke

Complimenting Mrs. Anthony P. Funke, the former Miss Elisa Mata, a recent bride, Mrs. Jack Cloward (Wanda Webb) entertained recently at the Arlington avenue home of Mrs. F. M. Giles.

The holiday motif was followed for refreshments and appointments and colorful berets and poinsettias were used throughout the rooms.

A three-tiered wedding cake and other refreshments were served, and useful and attractive miscellaneous gifts were presented to the youthful bride.

Attending were Mesdames Willy Specht, Bill Campbell, Virginia Van Krailingen, F. M. Giles, Viridis Cloward, all of Torrance; Mesdames Robert Finn, San Pedro; J. Carpenter, Hermosa Beach; M. Topper, Inglewood and Ralph Johnson, Los Angeles; the Misses Rose Rosenberg, Donna Mark, Ruth Harrison, Doris Cline, Barbara Specht, all of Torrance and Zada Kay, Long Beach.

Gifts also were received from Mrs. C. Moore and Miss Janet Lewellen, who were unable to attend.

Elementary Plans Spanish Luncheon 31st

Plans for a teachers' Spanish luncheon set for January 31 were completed at the meeting of Torrance Elementary PTA board, held Monday evening in the Gramercy avenue home of Mrs. D. Boone Kirks.

The meeting was advanced to permit Mrs. M. B. Millar, president, to attend the district meeting today at Compton College.

Specialty dishes will be prepared by Spanish mothers of Elementary pupils, and Mrs. Kenneth Sexton will supervise preparation of the salads. Decorations and arrangements are being made by Mrs. Hugh Bowman, Mrs. Clifford Bennett, and Mrs. William Diesel.

Representing this PTA unit at the December meeting of Torrance Council were Mrs. Millar, and Mrs. Victor Benard, who heard discussion of the proposed dental clinic for Torrance.
