

Four Bethels Outline Plans For Grand Guardian's Visit

Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, held a stated meeting Tuesday evening of last week with the honored queen, Miss Donna Pat Wolf, presiding. Announcement was made of the official visit on February 6 of Mrs. Zelma McCauley, Grand Guardian of the State of California, International Order of Job's Daughters. A combined meeting of Lomita, Gardena, Compton and Torrance Bethels will be held in Torrance Masonic Temple in her honor. "With a Song in My Heart" will be the theme of the evening, emphasized with songs and valentine decorations.

An important meeting and practice will be held at 1 p. m. Sunday, February 1, at the temple in preparation for the visit. All officers, especially, must at-

Brownie Mothers

Mrs. Claudine Goode and Mrs. Lelia Stone were hostesses earlier this month for the regular meeting of the Mothers Club of Brownie Troop 435. Plans for arts and crafts work for the troop occupied the group and refreshments were served.

Chapter 44 Plans Busy Calendar

Interesting events of the week for Torrance Chapter 44 included a meeting Wednesday with the new officers in their chairs. Ritualistic work, under direction of Mrs. Marie Bankston, ritual chairman, was well executed. Arrangement of a full calendar for several months occupied the group.

On Thursday, 40 members and guests toured Helm's Bakery in West Los Angeles, under direction of Mrs. Cora Hill, homemaking chairman.

Committee chairmen were entertained Monday at the home of their senior regent, Mrs. Geneva Clawson.

Members of the degree staff will exemplify the ballot march at the convention in Compton Sunday. Transportation may be arranged by calling the senior regent.

Card party plans for February 7 are being completed.

Esmer Venable was hostess to the Friendship membership on Tuesday when a surprise birthday gift shower was given for her. Attending were Meses. Martha Evans, Ruth Kidd, Ann Wilken, Ila Mae Ambach, Velma Scanlon, Geneva Clawson and Elsie Smith.

Nurses Install Officers at Gala Banquet

A gala evening was enjoyed by nurses of the Harbor Area last night, when members of the San Pedro Nurses' Association attended the annual banquet and installation of officers.

This year, the locale was the beautiful Pacific Coast Club in Long Beach.

Mrs. Clara Swanson, chairman of the hospitality committee for the evening, arranged for the fine entertainment as well as the excellent dinner.

Waste Paper Drive School Benefit

A drive for waste paper, magazines and grease will be held Tuesday, Jan. 30, to raise funds for equipment for St. Margaret-Mary Parochial School.

Mrs. Dick Joosten, chairman, announces that she will accept telephone calls at Lomita 536-R for those who wish these materials picked up. Mrs. Florence Bailey, 2512 Walnut, will use her yard for a collection depot. Magazines and papers may be bundled together and must be collected early in the morning.

Semi-Annual Audit of PTA Books Held

Books of North Torrance Elementary PTA Association were audited and found to be in good order at a meeting last Tuesday evening. This was the semi-annual audit. Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Ralph McBer, president; Mrs. C. E. Sewell, treasurer; Mrs. Sam Harris, secretary; Mrs. Harry VanBellehem, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Alex Bates, auditor.

Renald Hoag Shows Slides Before Club

Renald Hoag of Arcadia was guest speaker before an interested group of Lomita Fuchsia Club members Thursday night when the regular meeting was held in the VFW hall on Lomita boulevard.

Beginning his talk with an interesting history of fuchsias which went back to the European countries, Mr. Hoag then showed colored slides of many of the best known varieties of fuchsias and then treated his audience to a trip via colored slides over some of the western states, the national parks, the Pacific coastline and on into the middle west to Missouri, where he had visited recently.

Seeing isn't only believing, it plays a great part in the enjoyment of food. Of course, what you see must be appealing. Taking quality and good seasoning for granted, also important to ultimate gustatory pleasure are color combination and arrangement of the dish itself. For example, a tossed salad combining two greens of varying hues and textures, such as lettuce and romaine, is more interesting than that with just one.

Here is how to create a good-looking conversation piece with that popular pair, frankfurters and mashed potatoes. The recipe comes from the Best Foods test kitchens:

- Frankfurter Crown Roast
- 10 pared medium potatoes
 - 2 carrots, diced
 - 1 small green pepper, chopped
 - 1 onion, chopped
 - 1 cup vitaminized margarine
 - 1/2 cup scalded milk
 - 1/2 teaspoon each marjoram and thyme
 - 9 to 12 frankfurters
 - 6 slices uncooked bacon.

Cook potatoes in boiling salted water until tender. Sauté carrots, pepper and onion in vitaminized margarine until tender and lightly browned. Mash potatoes thoroughly. Add milk, beating vigorously until potatoes are fluffy and creamy. Add vitaminized margarine, carrot, pepper, onion and other seasonings. Add salt to taste. Pile potatoes in a mound in a deep baking dish. Arrange halves of whole frankfurters around potatoes to resemble a crown roast of pork. Tie frankfurters together with kitchen thread or skewer with toothpicks. Tie strips of bacon around the middle of the roast, fastening with toothpicks. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) about 20 minutes or until done. Serves 4 to 6.

Dr. Berke Will Address Fern Avenue PTA Tonight
