Ex-Texan Avers There's Nothing Like California

"Even though I was born in Texas, there is nothing like good ole sunny California," was the comment this week from Wallace Sanford, who reported recently to the Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio, Tex., for training.

Sanford and Jack Eren, both Torrance High School students, left here January 16 for duty with the Air Force. Both are now at the Texas base.

Eren writes that Sanford is now known as "Tex." Eren was on the 1930 varsity football squad, where he played in the backfield. Sanford played on the Bee squad in 1919 and was a member of the high school band.

Fully Rounded Season of Boys' Softball Leagues Being Planned

Spring is just around the corner, if you can take the word of Frank Carpenter, director of recreation for Torrance.

Carpenter announced this week that his department was busy completing plans for a "fully rounded" softball program for the coming season.

He said arrangements were being made for leagues to be established on each of the playgrounds under the supervision of the Recreation Department.

Four classifications of play will be offered for boys' competition: Pee Wee, 11 years and under; Midget, 12-13-year-olds; Juniors, 14-15 years, and Seniors, 16 and 17.

For age classification, he said the age of the player on the third Monday in June, which is June 18, will be the determining factor.

Pre-season match games will be scheduled immediately for the eager beavers and the early birds, Carpenter said.

Directly in charge of the play will be the city's athletic director, Elmer "Red" Moon. Moon is issuing a call for all organizations doing youth work—service clubs, churches, boys' clubs, the YMCA, TAPs, CYO, and others—
