Betty Fuller Becomes Bride In Yuma Rite

Miss Betty Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller, 2073 Revonosa drive, became the bride of Donald Ewoldt, USN, in a January ceremony performed in Yuma, Arizona.

Accompanying the couple were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller, and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hilliard. Betty was graduated from Torrance High School in June, 1948. Her husband, a native of Westside, Iowa, who has been in the Navy for two years, is stationed in San Francisco where she hopes to join him soon.

Girl Scouts' Cookie Sale Opens 10th

Cookies by the case were stacked up in the home of Mrs. Harriett E. Carr, at 1544 Marcelina avenue, this week as the Torrance Girl Scouts made preparations to stage their annual cookie sale next Saturday. Brownies, Intermediate Scouts, and Senior Scouts by the scores will fan out and cover the city Saturday with boxes of cookies. In addition to the door-to-door sales this year, two cookie booths will be set up in town, Mrs. Carr reports. One booth will be set up on Sartori avenue in front of the Gay Shop, and another will be placed in the A & P market.

TO RING DOORBELLS . . . Brownie Gwen Pattishall of Troop 406 sells her first box of Girl Scout cookies in the annual cookie campaign to Ellen Morris Senior Scout of Troop 640. Girl Scout and Brownie Troops in the entire Torrance community are competing in this annual nationwide effort to replenish Scouting funds. (Herald photo.)

Baby Son Welcomed By Kirkuffs

Robert Wesley Kirkuff, weighing eight pounds and four ounces, arrived at San Pedro Community Hospital Wednesday Jan. 17 to make the Glen Kirkuff home in Waleria happy.

The little fellow has an older brother, Darroll Glen, two and a half years of age. His mother is the former Elaine Rosser, and grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rosser of Lomita, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sischo of San Pedro.
