TORRANCE SOLDIERS PROMOTED

Two Torrance soldiers, serving with Southern California's 49th Infantry Division, have been promoted in grade; it was announced today by Lt. Col. Dallas I. Downs, commander of the 578th Engineer Battalion.

Rafael P. Estalano, 231 Arlington, was promoted to sergeant; and Gary L. Dawson, 1906 Plaza Del Amo, was advanced to the rank of corporal.

The 578th Engineer Battalion, headquartered in Torrance before the 49th was activated last September 1, is currently engaged in advanced unit training at Camp Cooke. The battalion, along with all other 49th units, has reached peak strength with the arrival of thousands of fillers from throughout the United States.
