

Fern PTA-Sponsored Cubs Celebrate First Birthday

Cub Scout Pack 728-C, sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA, celebrated their first birthday with a pack meeting presided by a pot luck supper in the school kindergarten, R. D. Wollard, cubmaster, presided.

Cubs and their parents participated in games and singing, and special entertainment was presented by Dal, Pat, and Mike Derouin, Gerald Maddock, Robbie Wollard, Phillip Scholl, Wayne Bischoff, Russell De Fields, and Sharon Neely.

Awards were received by Cubs Jimmy Stillman, Mark Eubank, Gerald Maddock, Robbie Wollard, Ronald Brumelow, Norman Maloy, Warren Underwood, Chuckie Reese, Dan Hammond, Fidel Tapa, George Downing, Russell De Fields, and Henry Hinds. Den Chief Dick Freeman received a shoulder cord award. Special dinner guests were Gilbert F. Roxy, a Neighborhood Chairman of Harbor Area Boy Scouts, and Mrs. Roxy.

Attend PTA Council Meet

Mmes. G. Runsted, G. Simonson, A. B. Cowie, V. Winther, T. E. Winther, E. Collier, G. Pickler, W. A. Wright and Mr. Lester Foster represented Fern PTA at Torrance Council Founders' Day meeting to meet Mrs. W. E. Bowen, the Council's only past president.

The gala affair was hosted by Waleria PTA.

HALLDALE BOARD TO MEET 2ND

Board members of Halldale PTA will convene at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the school for a monthly session.

ØES Chapter To Initiate Men's Class

Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a regular meeting tonight in Masonic Temple, Vivian Cook, worthy matron, will preside and Gladys Mothersell will be chairman for the evening.

Pearl Shumaker, Deputy Grand Matron of the 91st District, will be present to give instructions to the members.

An unusual feature of the evening will be initiation of a class of men. A special invitation is issued to all members to enjoy the ritualistic work. Several groups of visitors from the chapters of the district are expected and a good attendance of local members should welcome them.

Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, will outline the month's agenda, and preparations for the regular PTA meeting will be completed.

Candlelight Ceremony Attended by 250 Guests

Early spring blooms and ferns decorated the archway, and baskets of calla lilies and stock on the church chancel formed the setting for the recitation of wedding vows uniting Miss Nelda Jean Shook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shook of 2172 W. 245th street, Lonita, and Cpl. Eli Shurman Clouch Jr., U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clouch of 1654 W. 214th street, Torrance.

The candlelight service was read at eight o'clock in the evening of St. Valentine's Day in the Waleria Assembly of God Church by Rev. Fred Martin, church pastor, in the presence of two hundred and fifty guests.

Mrs. Ila MacPhail played incidental music and the wedding marches, and accompanied Miss Patricia Swenson, soloist, who sang "Thine Alone," "I Walk Beside You" and "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Me."

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown cut en train and fashioned in a tight-fitting bodice of imported French lace with an insert of white satin and tiny buttons in the front of the bodice. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was caught up in a small cap trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white camellias, gardenias and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants wore full-length gowns with full satin skirts and lace bodice styled in a v-neckline. They completed their attire with caps in matching satin and carried heart-shaped bouquets of rosebuds, carnations and violets.

Mrs. Dolores Rice, as matron of honor, wore green, and the other attendants, Miss Nelva Crouse and Mrs. Richard Irvine chose pink amethyst and gold

Baby Shower Surprises Young Matron

Complimenting Mrs. William J. Dietlin, the former Miss Dolores Koroske of Inglewood, Mrs. Walter Hiller, of 1617 Arlington avenue entertained at a pretty appointed surprise baby shower.

A simulated bassinet, decorated with pink and white crepe paper, held the lovely baby gifts.

Games furnished entertainment with Dorothy Fulton and Jackie Holloman as winners.

Others attending were Mesdames James Crawford, Jane Smith, Colleen O'Call, Dolores Collins, Jimmie Stanford, Juanita Smith and Bill Rogers.

Bethel Official To Visit

At a regular meeting of Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, Miss Donna Pat Wolf, honored queen, presided over a practice initiation for the Deputy Grand Guardian's official visit on March 6.

There will be a food sale March 10 with Miss Ann Marie Bishop, marshal, as chairman.

All-occasion cards are on sale for $1.00 by Bethel members.

Committee reports: Marian McDonald reported on Flower and Thought and Ann Olson reported on the Civil Defense meeting.

Miss Ann Stephens, librarian, read "The Lily of the Valley."

for their gowns. Preceding the bride as flower girl was little Linda Rinehart in a full-length green satin to match the gown worn by the matron of honor.

Best man was Charles Hawley and ushers were Ronald Higgins and Richard Irvine.

During the reception which followed in the church hall the six-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom in a heart-shaped frame, was cut and served with punch and coffee.

Miss Shirley Pierce took charge of the guest book register.

The couple left for a honeymoon which took them to Malibu and into Mexico.

The new Mrs. Clouch is a graduate of Narbonne High School, summer class of '50 and is employed in the accounting department of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Los Angeles. Her husband was graduated from Torrance High School and then entered Pasadena Junior College. He enlisted in the Army and is stationed at Camp Roberts.

FORMER RESIDENTS

H. T. Lintott, plant superintendent at Judson Steel Company, Oakland and Mrs. Lintott arrived from their home in San Carlos for a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burger.
