GAUCHOS SEEK REVENGE

WIN FROM TARTAR NINE

Mohicans Blast 12-3 Win Over Tartar Nine

Practice session No. 2 was all but blown off the map last Friday as the Tartar horsechiders jumped in cars and battled the wind up to Gardena for a set-to with the Mohicans. They shoulda stayed tuh home. Gardena won 12-3.

A soggy, unattended diamond at the Torrance Municipal Park forced a cancellation of the scheduled game with Long Beach Poly, so a quick practice match was cooked up with the Gardena lads.

Some of the new ball talent which has turned out this spring has added considerably to the baseball prospects in years to come at Tartarville. Smith, who is a freshman, looked fairly good in his debut as a moundsman. He may be a first rate pitcher in a couple of years.

Chuckers Work
Young chuckers Larry Roy, Burt Smith, and Bill Crawford shared duties on the pitching mound while Johnny Spiller and Jim Taylor alternated behind the plate. The pitching was nothing spectacular—but neither was the weather.

Tartars to Host Invading Narbonne Saturday Night

It'll be dog-eat-dog Saturday night in the Torrance Municipal Park as the Narbonne Gauchos invade the horseshoe diamond seeking revenge over the Tartars for a 4-3 defeat by the Torrance lads last week. Game time is 8 p.m.

BILL BARON
Heads League

Believed to be the first night game scheduled by any Bay League team, Saturday's affair is an experiment by school officials to check on the interest of the community in high school baseball.

ORDAZ MOVED
Vic Ordez, who made the All-Bay team in centerfield last year, is being returned to his old stomping grounds after having a try at infield duties. Coach Vernon Wolfe said yesterday. The coach decided Ordez is worth more to the club in the field where he can turn many a hit into an out.

Baron Holds On To Win League Scoring Honors

Besppectacled Bill Baron, who tapes his horn-rimmed glasses to his head before each basketball game, came through to win the Bay League bucket race by 17 points, a final tabulation of scoring reveals.

He nosed out Eric Wittenberg of Beverly Hills 219-202 in the 14-game scoring marathon. Other Torrance players hit the scoring ladder from the 13th to the 35th rung. Aramis Dandoy was 13th in the league with 119 points. Chick Cope was 21st with 86, Jim Taylor 25th with 68, Jack O'Call 28th with 61, and Jim Nady 35th with 46.

The league scoring roster:

Bill Baron, Torrance	219
Eric Wittenberg, Beverly Hills	202
Mike Stollin, Longwood	184
Millard Paxton, Sanohi	180
Charley Miller, Redondo	179
Stan Smith, Inglewood	177

Jim Nady, Torrance	46

RESERVES READY
Johnny Spiller will probably see some catching duty, and Larry Roy will be ready to take over the pitching chores if Camout weakens. Wolfe plans to pit Camou against the Gardena Mohicans this afternoon to reverse the 12-3 defeat the Tartars suffered there last Friday. The Tartars are trying to score up another game for Tuesday to fill their 20-game schedule. The team lost one fray from the skeds when the Loyola High game was rained out February 23. They replaced the rained-out Long Beach Poly game with the Gardena tussle last week. (The Tartars are limited to 20 games—six practice games and the 14 League games).

Admission price for the Saturday night game in the Torrance park is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. To avoid the 50 cents at the gate, students must buy their student tickets at school, officials say.

Fenwick Five Takes First Tourney Tilt

Bob Chambers, Dave Dougherty and Paul Smith nearby wore out the nets at the Admiral Leigh gymnasium in San Pedro Monday evening as they beat a Fort MacArthur quintet 64-58 in the first round of the Tony Medak tournament.

Chambers led the scoring with 22 points, Smith potted 19 and Dougherty wound up with 11. Wimpy Chambers, Ronnie Higgins, Bud Smith and Dick Carrow also figured in the win.

BULLS-EYE OR . . . We'll have to take the word of Kiwanians Alden Smith, Harry Moritz, John Stroh, and Dave Soule that they were popping bulls-eyes on the range during their Borrego Springs outing recently. It was the 15th annual outing of the club, the second to the San Diego County spa. Twenty-seven Kiwanis Clubmen made the trip. (Photo by Hank Ulbright.)

Bay League Out of CIF Playoffs

Bay League basketball is all over but the bragging. The end came in the Redondo Beach gymnasium last Friday night as Compton downed Beverly Hills, 38-34, and Long Beach Poly topped Inglewood, 52-35, in the CIF first round of play.

Beverly Hills and Inglewood were the only two Bay League teams to enter the CIF playoff. In the first round of play at the Redondo gym, the Compton Tarbabes were set up for the tourney honors by stopping the classy Beverly Hills team in a close game. In the other game held there last Friday evening, Inglewood recipited for their worst drubbing of the season when the Long Beach team pilled out of the game with a 17-point margin.

Twelve Warriors Listed for LB

Twelve of the 35 El Camino track aspirants have been nominated by Coach Anny Schindler to participate in the Long Beach relays to be held this Saturday, March 10, at Long Beach Veterans Memorial Stadium. First event starts at 11:45 a.m.

Those named for the various individual performances are George Mayol, in the open 120-yard high hurdles and also an alternate in the 880-yard relay; Bill Penton and Boyd Crawford in the open pole vault; Lynne Frantz in the open high jump, and Fred Nelsen in the open shotput.

Competing in the junior college division four-man 440-yard relay squads are Don and Dale Miller—Bob Raynor and Ed Weaver. Alternates for the run, besides Mayol include Don Adolph, Henry Compagnon, and Ray Helfenstein.
