OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY IS extended to Mr. Clarence Brown of 2035 Middlebrook road who received word from the War Department last Friday that his son, Cpl. C. R. Brown who was with the 8th Army in Korea, was killed in action, February 17. He was a veteran of World War II and enlisted in the army two years ago. In Texas, where he resided are his wife, and small daughter to whom we also wish to convey our sympathy.

CIRCLE 7, WSSC WILL HAVE THEIR next meeting March 13, Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Beaver, 2122 Middlebrook road. Co-hosts will be Mrs. Carpen Nielsen, Chairman, Mrs. Viola Goree extends a cordial welcome to anyone interested in joining the circle. It is sponsored by the Methodist Church here in Torrance.

CAPT. AND MRS. C. H. VANDERPOOL, of 1715 West 235th street, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of Westchester enjoyed a day's jaunt to La Mesa where they visited with Lt. and Mrs. Stevens in that city.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MARIE AND DOUG Townsend, of 23038 Huber, who became proud parents of a little girl, Sylvia Diane on February 26th. The Queen of Angels Hospital in Los Angeles tabbed her as weighing six pounds, seven ounces. Her 18 months old brother David Douglas welcomed the newcomer home last week and is mighty proud of her!

MAKE A DATE FOR THE RED CROSS BLOOD BANK on April 6th! You may phone Torrance 1524 or sign up at Red Cross Headquarters, 1345 F Prado. Or just come in person on April 6th at Torrance Civic Auditorium between 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Donate a pint of blood for our boys in Korea. The need is! Remember, too, why your neighbors are volunteer-their time for the fund campaign, give willingly — your donation will help transfer and pay for the cost of blood plasma shipped overseas.

MRS. AGNES HARVEY and MRS. WILMA BROWN were guests at the home of Mrs. Pauline Crocker last week for a bridge luncheon. Making the fourth was Mrs. Charlene Fox. Mrs. Crocker won high honors for the day.

HOUSEGUEST AT THE HOME of Gloria and Bill Hixson, of 2054 Kathy way, is Mrs. John (Jeanne) Hixson and 5 months old daughter Maureen of Savannah, Georgia. They flew out here last week to complete arrangements on their new home in Torrance Gardens. Her husband, Major John Hixson is Bill's brother and is executive officer at the Pusan airfield in Korea. They also have a son Johnny who is staying with Jeanne's mother in Savannah.

YOUNG JIMMY GOREE IS NOW 5 years old and celebrated this occasion with a "swirligint" party at his home 23205 Falena last Saturday. His mother, Mrs. Viola Goree served traditional ice cream and cake to his host of friends which included Danny Cunningham, Virginia Withycombe, Bonnie and Leslie Stanton, Donnie, Danny and Shelly Baldwin, Corky Frailly, Kenny and Dean Holmes, Rosemary and Linda Blakely and Mrs. Blakely, Ronald Gowin and Mrs. Gowin, Joyce Goree, Jim's sister all of Torrance, Arlene and Mary White, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, Sr. all of San Pedro, Vicky and Mark Ferrans and Mrs. Ferrans all of Long Beach and Gregory White from Ardena.

WEEK END GUESTS of Georgia and Bill Stroub of Falena street were Alice and Clyde Ursler of San Diego who said when they left Kettler Knolls they'd come back to visit and

Students Displaying Work at Flower Show

Horticultural students of El Camino College have an exhibit at the International Flower show being held at Hollywood Park, Inglewood.

Field-grow cut flowers and potted plants will be on display in the educational section of the exhibit. Students taking part are all veterans working under instructors Leon Erlin and Charles Luger.

so they have! The Stroub's and the Ursler's along with Ruth and Ted Eyrich, Al and Leona Wimmell, Joe and Camilla Helphand and Roberta Helphand, Jerry and Jim Withycombe and Jewel Holmes, all enjoyed Square Dancing at Normont Terrace last Saturday evening. They then returned to the home of the Eyrich's on Falena street with Harold Holmes and Norwin and Ruth Buehe joining the crowd for delicious hot cornbeefed sandwiches and coffee served by Mrs. Eyrich and Mrs. Wimmell. Highlight of this evening of fun was the two-man orchestra — namely Bill Stroub and his electric guitar and Ruth Eyrich at the piano who played many a rousing tune! Center of attraction were Charles and dancers Camilla Helphand and Ted Eyrich who really can swing out with this dance! The youngsters sang "Happy birthday" to Al Wimmell who by the way, is recreation director at Normont Terrace Recreation Hall. He is welcoming all of us folks to join them on the first and third Saturdays of each month at the Hall, 101 Hiway and Normandie avenue at 8 p.m. for a swell evening of Square Dancing. There are two callers, instruction to help you along, and coffee and cake are served free of charge. The charge is only 50 cents a person. Every Thursday evening, is a beginners class, too. Phone Al Wimmell today at Lomita 2161-W and join this happy-go-lucky crowd.

RECUPERATING NICELY AT HOME following a recent operation is Mrs. Robert A. (Marie) Nanney of 2810 Gramercy street. We're all happy to hear of her quick recovery.

Do-Si-Do Classes Fun

Square dance enthusiasts can get free lessons weekly by showing up at the Torrance Elementary School between 7 and 10 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, according to Donald Manshaw, director of the Torrance School of Adult Education. Open to all adults, the free classes are sponsored by the Adult School.

Caller Gerald Reeser is attempting to develop the fundamentals of square dance techniques so couples can later join more advanced groups. Manshaw said.

Although the class is essentially a beginning square dance class, those attending it naturally exhibit wide individual difference. Couples or single men and women or groups are being invited to join the class. Interested persons can register for the class at the regular meeting time on Tuesdays.

Tartar Teens to Hear Don Gordon and Band

Music by Don Gordon and his orchestra will be the highlight of the Tartar Teen semi-monthly dance to be staged Saturday night, March 10, in the Torrance Civic Auditorium. Admission price, according to Miss Doris Avis, adult supervisor, is 25 cents for members, 50 cents for non-members.

MUSEUM OPENED

The fabulous British museum was founded by Sir Hans Sloane in 1753 and was opened for public use six years later.

San Pedro Pair Pays $50 Fine on Child Molesting

Fines of $50 each or 10 days in jail were meted out last week by City Judge Otto B. Willett to two San Pedro men accused of attempting to molest a 10-year-old girl near the Torrance City Park.

The two men, Ernest Bent and John Joseph Mainar, were observed by Torrance Police Officer Jim Thompson to call the young girl over to their auto. Apparently seeing the officer the pair left the scene. Thompson questioned the girl, and then took out after the two men and returned them to the Torrance jail where they were booked on the child-molesting charge.

Harbor District Chamber to Meet

Dr. J. C. Jones, president of Whittier College, will address the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce at the next regular meeting of the organization to be held at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles on March 8.

The highway committee will meet in room 204 at 5 p.m. The business session is to start at 5:30 p.m. with the dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. The college is located at 1121 West 79th street.
