High School PTA To Hear Noted Professor March 13

Dr. Earl Carnes, professor of psychology at USC, will address the March meeting of Torrance High School PTA at 7:30 Tuesday evening in the school library.
The program will be augmented by selections by the following high school students:
Elaine Rehwoldt will sing "Bo My Love," accompanied at the piano by Mickey VanDeventer.
A trio composed of Lorraine Stufel, Pat Munger and Ora Rainwater will sing "Harbor Lights" and "Tennessee Waltz."
Patty Dunmyer will sing and play guitar selections.
These plans were made at the board meeting last Wednesday morning when Mrs. Grover C. VanDeventer, president, entertained in her Carson street home. Guest of honor was Mrs. A. C. Turner, Council president.
At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served.
Mrs. Turner will hold open house at her home, 1008 Acacia avenue, Tuesday, March 13, when chairman and unit presidents are asked to arrive between 10 and 4 p.m. for assistance in compiling annual reports.

Dinner Party Compliments Miss Bishop

Complimenting their daughter, Ann Marie, on the occasion of her 17th birthday, Dr. and Mrs. Richard F. Bishop of 1433 El Prado entertained at dinner Tuesday evening at the Cocoanut Grove, Ambassador Hotel.
Following a family custom, Ann Marie's birthday cake, iced in traditional St. Patrick's Day colors, was cut, and in her honor the orchestra played "Happy Birthday."
Places were arranged for the honor guest, Miss Ann Stephens, Neil Schwab, Don Collinsworth and the hosts.

Deborah Arrives

Deborah Alice was chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Knowles, (Joyce Mitchell) 1417 W. 22nd street, as the name for their daughter, born February 19 in Torrance Memorial Hospital.
The baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mitchell. Her father is an employee of Harvey Machine Company, Torrance.

CONVALESCENT

Mrs. E. W. Clark has returned to her home at 1419 Beech avenue following surgery at a Los Angeles hospital.

ONLY THE GS REFRIGERATOR STAYS SILENT, LASTS LONGER

Come see the famous Servel Gas Refrigerator — only refrigerator that stays silent, lasts longer. Its freezing system has no moving parts. Just a tiny gas flame does the work.
Over 2,000,000 have Servels (many of them 18 and 20 years). They say, "Pick Servel. It stays noise-free, wear-free."

CONNIE L. SMITH NOW MRS. PAUL E. PARKER

Approximately 75 friends of Connie Louise Smith and Paul Edwin Parker gathered in Chimes Wedding Chapel, Long Beach Friday evening to witness their wedding ceremony.
Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Smith, were hosts at the reception which followed at the chapel and later entertained relatives and intimate friends at an open house in their home, 1808 Hickory avenue.
The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. Leonard Ludwigsen of Palos Verdes Estates.
White lace fashioned the bride's ballerina-length gown and her fingertip veil was draped from a tiara of seed pearls which matched the yoke detail of her gown. Her flowers were white roses, gardenias and Roman hyacinths.
Mrs. Cecil Albert Smith attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor and Robert Parker of Fresno stood with his brother as best man. Cecil Albert Smith, brother of the bride, ushered.
Miss Lucille Case, cousin of the bride, was guest registrar.
The bride's mother received in rose lace with black accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Ludwigsen attended in navy blue with accessories chosen to harmonize with her camellia corsage.
Assisting Mrs. Smith with reception arrangements in her home were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Smith, and her niece Mrs. Ray Flagg, both of Torrance.
Later Mr. and Mrs. Parker motored to Carmel by the Sea for a brief honeymoon. The bride will live with her parents while her husband is in service. Mrs. Parker received her diploma from Torrance High School and studied business administration at El Camino College before accepting her present position with the Torrance branch, Bank of America. Her husband, who is stationed at Fort Ord, was graduated from Redondo Union High School and from El Camino College.

Card Party Plans for No. Torrance

Mrs. Bob McKinley, chairman of the St. Catherine LaBoure-sponsored card party at 8 p.m. tomorrow evening, invites everyone to attend.
Usual games, and prizes will be offered and refreshments will be served at this monthly affair in parish hall, Redondo Beach boulevard, east of Prairie avenue.

Paper, Grease Drive Planned

186th Street PTA will meet today at the school. Topic of the month, "Resources Held in Trust for Future Generations," will be presented in the form of a panel consisting of three teachers, Mrs. Kay Davis Loftus, Mr. Baker and Mrs. David Foydham.
The teachers will be hostesses for the social hour.
A 1:00 o'clock board meeting in the teacher's room will precede the general meeting. Plans will be completed for the combined paper and grease drive to be held March 13 and 14. For pickup on papers call the school at 342-4185.
Potluck luncheon will be served next Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. in the teacher's room. The teachers, as hostesses, will furnish the food. Parents are invited to have lunch with friends and the children's teachers.

Women of Moose News

Last night's monthly card party sponsored by Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, was a splendid success, chairmaned by Elsie Smith, who expresses her appreciation to all who assisted.
The College of Regents meeting held Sunday in Los Angeles was attended by Ila Mae Ansbach, Ann Wilken, Lillian Nelson and Alice Harker.
During the meeting, Mrs. Harker was initiated into the Defending Circle.
A $50 check was donated by Torrance Chapter to the House of God building at Moose Heart. This new building will be used by all creeds for religious worship.
A full attendance is asked for the next chapter meeting.

Party Honors Mrs. Beckwith

Complimenting Mrs. Melvina Beckwith on the occasion of her 75th birthday, family members entertained at dinner Sunday in her Engracia avenue home.
Mrs. Beckwith was showered with cards and gifts from Torrance and out-of-town friends and relatives. Among her beautiful gifts was an antique spinning wheel which had been in the family of friends for more than 200 years.
Celebrating with the long-time Torrance resident were her sons-in-law and daughters, Messrs. and Meses. Joe Hartin and Frederick Cook, all of Torrance; and Miss Florence Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Welz (Florence Beckwith) and their family, now residents of Richmond, Calif., were unable to attend.

Council Holds Meet

The Grech avenue home of Mrs. Mary McDonald, was the setting for a meeting of Guardian Council of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, when Mrs. Edna Babcock served as hostess.
