

Wanted: A Bevy of Judges With Cast Iron Noses

Getting judges for a bathing beauty contest, has few problems compared to rounding up a bevy of judges to serve when Magician Bill Morton stages his Lions Club-sponsored magic show here next month.

He isn't even having difficulty getting entrants to the contest the judges will be called upon to judge.

The contest is for the "Homeiest Man in Town" and nobody, just nobody, wants to be responsible for naming the man.

If you have no inhibitions and no fear of winding up with a bruised nose, you might contact Roy Peterson of the Torrance Lions Club. He's show chairman.

Tickets to the free magic show and contest are obtainable from various merchants in Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City and Waveria.

SHOW STEALER . . . Magician Bill Morton says he always has trouble keeping the audience's attention when Melody Mason walks on stage during his act. At the Lions Club free magic show next month, Magician Morton will do magic, and Melody will just do!

Landscaping of Triangle Sought

Councilman Ed Karlow asked the city Tuesday night to investigate the possibility of landscaping a portion of the Santa Fe right of way at the intersection of Sepulveda boulevard and Walnut street in the Kettler Knolls area.

Karlow pointed out that the intersection was one of the entrances to the Kettler tract and that the odd shape of the area did not lend itself to development. City Manager George W. Stevens was instructed to "look into the matter."

Scouts Start Selling Circus Tickets Today

Ticket sales for the 1951 Boy Scout circus will be started in the Torrance and surrounding area today, according to A. E. "Tommy" Thompson, ticket sales supervisor for the Harbor district.

The circus, sponsored by the Los Angeles Area Boy Scout Council, will be staged at the Hollywood Bowl April 27 and 28.

Local scouts were set to begin their sales drive today following a kick-off dinner last evening in Horace Mann Junior High school at which time representatives of the district's Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorer units were given a box of sales materials for their units.

General admission for the circus will be 50 cents while reserved seats will be $1 and box seats $1.50. Scouts confidentially expect to pack the big Hollywood Bowl for each of the two night performances.

Twelve spectacular acts of the circus, designed to depict Scouting activities and ideals, will be presented.

$1000 Appropriated For Picnic Facility

The sum of $1000 was appropriated Tuesday night for the completion of the pagoda at El Retiro Park into a lattice-covered picnic area.
