BUSY SESSION MARKED BY RED CROSS CHAPTER

Appointment of a nominating committee headed by Mrs. M. J. Beale was made Friday at the meeting of Torrance Branch American Red Cross presided over by Mrs. Don H. Hyde. Since the date of the next meeting falls on Blood Bank Day, April 6, the annual meeting date was postponed until April 13.

Resignation of Mrs. J. H. Hull as staff aide chairman was accepted with regret.

Mrs. John W. Beaman, home nursing chairman, reported a class starting March 27, which will include two registered nurses.

Due to the illness of Mrs. C. E. Esley, Blood Bank chairman, recruits were requested to assist Mrs. O. A. Kresse, who will take over the chairman's duties for the April appointment.

Mrs. Gladys Weston reported on the progress of the fund campaign, indicating that there may be a delay in closing the drive due to illness of solicitors.

Mrs. John Keefer, canteen chairman, in asking aid for Blood Bank day, stated that her group had served 62 hours since re-activation of the chapter.

Mrs. Ruth Rutan was introduced as the new chairman of the production unit.

The meeting was concluded by a discussion of Junior Red Cross

HOME FROM MILLS

Miss Frances Barrington is home from Mills College in Oakland for spring vacation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington of Torrance boulevard. She will return to school on Easter Sunday.

EASTER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee of Date avenue have bidden a large group of friends and their families to their home Sunday for an Easter dinner.

FROM CHINA LAKE

Mrs. O. A. Kresse of El Prado is returning tomorrow from China Lake, where she has been visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Manning. The Mannings are accompanying Mrs. Kresse home for the Easter weekend.

EASTER EGG ROLL

The second grade class of Mrs. Jim Shidler of Torrance Elementary School enjoyed an Easter egg roll at the home of Mrs. Tuttle. Assisting her were Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. D'onofrio and Mrs. Levinson. Prizes were awarded and ice cream and cookies were served to the children.

Party Follows Concert 16th

Following Friday evening's concert at Torrance High School auditorium where their daughter, Lucille (Mickey) was a featured soloist, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. VanDeventer entertained informally in their home.

Their guests were Messrs. and Mmes. John K. Steinbaugh, Walter Rehboldt, M. M. Schwab, Charles A. Curtiss, John L. Stephens, and Mrs. Paul F. Vonderahe, all of Torrance; and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Robinson of Los Angeles.

Lucille's guests were Carol Campbell, Jane Moffatt, and Janet Poh.

Pastel blossoms decorated the attractive refreshment table where Mmes. Steinbaugh and Rehboldt poured.

Auxiliary Card Party, Food Sale

The social meeting of American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday, March 27, will feature a public card party, bridge, canasta and pinocle will be played, with prizes for high scorers.

Plans are complete for the Auxiliary-sponsored cooked food sale Saturday, March 24 at the entrance to Almond's Department Store.

President Annie Olson urges full cooperation of the entire membership.

Mrs. Foley Entertains

Mrs. F. P. Foley was hostess to an intimate group of friends at a St. Patrick's Day dessert bridge party in her home.

Guests included Mrs. Garth Melton of Baldwin Hills; and Mmes. R. C. Jones, C. H. Bennett, W. R. Patterson, M. B. Millar, R. M. Rogers, and R. M. Norris, all of Torrance.

Winners at bridge were Mmes. Jones and Bennett.

MRS. WALLACE TO HEAD JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Election of officers who will serve Torrance Junior Woman's Club during 1951-52 highlighted the business meeting Wednesday evening conducted by the president, Mrs. Robert C. Morton. Results of the election revealed that Mrs. Charles E. Wallace, who is presently serving as treasurer, will lead the group as president.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and their three daughters are residents of Rolling Hills.

The following other members were elected to hold office: Mrs. W. C. Boswell Jr., Mrs. H. R. Dexter, and Mrs. G. M. Miller, vice-presidents; Miss Maxine Hoyle, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Clayton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Walmsley, treasurer; Mrs. R. C. Morton, parliamentary; Mrs. John V. Agapito, auditor, and Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, reporter.

Installation of officers will be held in June.

On Sunday afternoon, April first, from 2 until 4 o'clock, Mrs. R. C. Morton and the other members of the executive board will act as hostesses at a tea to be held at the charming Crenshaw boulevard home of Mrs. E. E. Clayton.

Guests of honor will be all past presidents of the club since its inception in 1942.

Mrs. B. T. Whitney, senior club president and Mmes. Dean L. Sears, W. I. Laughon and J. E. Stavert, senior advisors, will pour.

Marjorie E. Flahive Now Mrs. Ernest L. Mongeon

In a simple ceremony performed Monday in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Miss Marjorie Elizabeth Flahive recited vows to become the bride of Ernest L. Mongeon, USAF. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Shackelford of 5411 Reese Road and her husband, a private, first class, is a son of Mrs. E. L. Mongeon of Oakland.
