

Perry PTA Election Held On Annual Fathers' Night

Along with Father's Night, elections for 1951-52 officers were featured at the Perry School PTA meeting last Tuesday. The following were elected: Mrs. Emmett Collier, president; M. H. Irving E. Winther, vice-president; Mrs. C. L. Thompson, recording secretary; Mr. Don Porter, teacher, financial secretary; Mrs. Victor Winther, treasurer; Lester Foster, principal auditor; Mrs. D. Balloch, teacher, historian.

RNAs Leave For Conclave, Plan Party

A large delegation from Torrance Royal Neighbor lodge will motor to Glendale Saturday to attend the state convention. Reservations for the chartered bus may be made with Mrs. Vertie Grimm, 1481 R, or Mrs. Hazel Hutton, 1528 M.

Next meeting of the lodge in Torrance Woman's clubhouse will be Tuesday, April 13, with Mrs. Grimm, orator, presiding.

Plans are being completed for the monthly card party in the clubhouse on Tuesday evening, April 17, with Mrs. Marie Bankston as chairman. Everyone is invited to these benefit card parties.

Scouts Recall Investitures

Following their first class in a Home Nursing course at Torrance High School, members of Senior Girl Scout Troop 610 entertained honoring their assistant leader, Mrs. Clare Schwintz, on the occasion of her birthday.

Setting for the party, a handkerchief shower, was the Torrance boulevard home of Mrs. Jose Jones, troop leader. Also present was a new assistant leader, Miss Joan Zienke.

During the evening the Scouts called details of two recent ceremonies for the intermediate section of their troop in which Connie Kulp, Connie Proculy, Dianne Powers and Pat Turkman were invested.

the group's cooperation. A movie promised for the last PTA meeting of the year will be titled "Disorganized and Organized Playgrounds."

Bethel 50 Exemplifies Work for OES

Job's Daughters of Bethel 50 recently exemplified their work for Torrance OES Chapter in a most efficient manner.

Chapter was opened in short form with the worthy matron, Vivian Cook, presiding, and past matrons and past patrons were introduced. During the evening six candidates were initiated.

OES line officers were guests of Gardena Chapter on the occasion of their "Advance Night," so the following past matrons filled their stations: Gladys Mothersell, associate matron; Frederick Cook, associate patron; Billie Kerber, conditress; Hazel Possum, associate conditress; and Mildred Edwards, Martha.

Dutch iris and daffodils were used by Job's Daughters Council members to decorate the banquet hall and purple and white nut cups marked each place. Delicious refreshments were served.

The chapter was represented Friday night at Westchester on District Courtesy Night. Attending were Vivian Cook, worthy matron; Rosearnold Winters, secretary; Rose Schmidt, chaplain; Letha Wells, Ruth; Fern Mead, Esther; and all the hostesses.

Pat Turkman Marks 11th Birthday

Patricia Ann Turkman, who was born on St. Patrick's Day 11 years ago, was honored with a delightful party when her mother entertained at the family home, 1304 Madrid avenue.

Refreshments were served and cards and gifts were presented to the honoree, who also was delighted with a birthday telegram from New Jersey sent by her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Altman.

Patricia's guests were Kathie Schott, Margaret Morin, Kathleen Geraghty, Dianne Powers, Connie Kulp, Audrey and Marion Terkmann, Joan Stewart, Sharon Cox, Nancy Harris, and Armen Turkman.
