Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRACE RYCKMAN AND MERLE HOLSTIN Frontier 5-3718

We would like to start our column this week by expressing regret that Mr. and Mrs. William E. King Jr. have moved. Mr. King, associated with the Torrance Herald, has been so kind in the past months, taking our column to the Herald office each week. But it goes deeper than that, both of the Kings were fine neighbors, and we'll miss them.

The mother of Mrs. Isabel Phillips of Santa Monica, was a recent and welcome visitor at the Phillips' home, MacAffer Road.

We understand Craig Slater had his cast removed last week. Not having time to check, we can't say for sure—but we certainly hope it is true.

Easter Sunday will remain a memorable day to the Joe Johnson's of Bindswald Road. Again they went to Camp Cooke for the day. This time they took Mrs. Peg Pacifico to see her son, Lt. Al Pacifico, for the last time before he left for Japan. The visit was pleasant, the day was beautiful, but a quiet sadness prevailed. We sincerely hope, with Joe and Esther, that your separation is a short one, Peg.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jurisich had guests for dinner last Saturday night. From the description of the food we wish we had been the guests. Hint?

The three Bronugh children of Upper Zakon Road had one big birthday party last Saturday afternoon. Their birth dates were so near each other that they celebrated together. A beautiful happy birthday to you; Bobby (age 3), Ellen (age 2), and Baby Margaret (age 1).

Passing on a tip we got recently: To keep cut flowers fresh longer, cut stem diagonally so more water can be absorbed by flower, and do the cutting after the sun has set, or very early in the morning. Happy bouquets.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 1055 went swimming at the Hermosa Biltmore Hotel. They were accompanied by Miss Johnson, Hanover, Parent, and Merola. Seems it will be a once a month affair if the parents of the girls will co-operate.

OPTOMETRIST TO OPEN NEW SUITE OF OFFICES

Specializing in vision analysis and vision training, Dr. Allen Pyeatt, local optometrist, opened a new suite of offices Monday morning at 1439 Marcelina avenue.

For the past two years Dr. Pyeatt has been associated with Dr. Alden Smith with offices on Cabrillo avenue.

Dr. Pyeatt is a graduate of the Los Angeles College of Optometry, an affiliate of the University of Southern California. Following his completion of training at the near-by college, Dr. Pyeatt returned to Texas, his native state, to practice optometry. He returned to California to become an associate of Dr. Smith. He also attended

Bill Carstens In Concert

William W. Carstens, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carstens, 1452 Post avenue, took part in the annual Occidental College A Cappella Choir concert presented last night. Olaf Frosdham directed while David Craighead served as accompanist.

Carstens, a tenor, is a graduate of Torrance High, where he was president of the senior class and active in athletics. He is a junior at Occidental and president of his class, member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, and president of the Interfraternity Council.
